Introduced by M. of A. STECK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to judicial proceedings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 16-102 of the election law, as 2 amended by chapter 79 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as 3 follows:
4 2. A proceeding with respect to a petition shall be instituted within 5 fourteen days after the last day to file the petition, or within three 6 business days after the officer or board with whom or which such peti-7 tion was filed, makes a determination of invalidity or validity with 8 respect to such petition, whichever is later; except that a proceeding
9 with respect to a petition for a village election or an independent
10 nomination for a special election shall be instituted within seven days 11 after the last day to file the petition for such village election or 12 independent nomination or within three business days after the officer 13 or board with whom or which such petition was filed, makes a determi-14 nation of invalidity with respect to such petition, whichever is later.
15 A proceeding with respect to a primary, convention, meeting of a party 16 committee, or caucus shall be instituted within ten days after the hold-17 ing of such primary or convention or the filing of the certificate of 18 nominations made at such caucus or meeting of a party committee.
19 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 20 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment
21 and/or repeal of any rules or regulations necessary for the implementa-22 tion of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or 23 before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
