Introduced by M. of A. COOK, LENTOL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the county law, in relation to assignment of counsel

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The closing paragraph of section 722 of the county law, as 2 amended by chapter 453 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 Upon an appeal in a criminal action, and on any appeal described in 5 section eleven hundred twenty of the family court act, article six-C of 6 the correction law or section four hundred seven of the surrogate's
7 court procedure act, wherein the party is financially unable to obtain 8 counsel, the appellate court shall assign counsel furnished in accord-9 ance with the plan, conforming to the requirements of this section, 10 which is in operation in the county or in the city in which a county is 11 wholly contained wherein the judgment of conviction, disposition, or 12 order of the trial court was entered; provided, however, that when such 13 county or city has not placed in operation a plan conforming to that 14 prescribed in subdivision three or four of this section and such appel-15 late court is satisfied that a conflict of interest prevents the assign-16 ment of counsel pursuant to the plan in operation, or when such county 17 or city has not placed in operation any plan conforming to that 18 prescribed in this section, such appellate court may assign any attorney 19 in such county or city and, in such event, such attorney shall receive 20 compensation and reimbursement from such county or city which shall be 21 at the same rate as is prescribed in section seven hundred twenty-two-b 22 of this chapter.

23 Assignment of counsel upon an appeal in a criminal 24 action pursuant to this subdivision, or pursuant to paragraph b of 25 subdivision one of section thirty-five of the judiciary law, includes 26 authorization for representation by appellate counsel, or an attorney selected at the request of appellate counsel by the administrator of the
