Introduced by M. of A. STECK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to capping the repayment of the operation of the state lottery and allocating certain revenues derived from lottery tickets sold

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 92-c of the state finance law is amended by adding two new subdivisions 3-a and 3-b to read as follows:

3-a. For the state fiscal year commencing April first, two thousand eighteen and thereafter, the repayment of first instance expenditures incurred in the operation of the state lottery pursuant to paragraph (i) of subdivision three of this section shall not exceed the amount repaid in the two thousand seventeen state fiscal year.

3-b. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this section or of any other provision of law, for the state fiscal year commencing April first, two thousand eighteen, all revenues derived from lottery tickets sold in excess of the amount of revenue derived in the two thousand seventeen state fiscal year shall be used for the purpose of (i) providing aid to pupils with special educational needs as defined in paragraph e of subdivision one of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law, and pupils with handicapping conditions receiving state financial support for programs delineated in paragraph f of subdivision one of section thirty-six hundred two, article eighty-three, article eighty-five, article eighty-seven, article eighty-eight, article eighty-nine, article forty and subdivision seventeen of section thirty-six hundred two of the education law, (ii) providing aid to all school children pursuant to the provisions of subdivision four of this section, and (iii) providing aid for elementary and secondary education.

§ 2. Nothing contained in this act shall supersede or diminish the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
