§ 1298. Deposit and disposition of revenue. (a) All taxes, fees, interest and penalties collected or received by the commissioner under this article shall be deposited [and disposed of pursuant to the provisions of section one hundred seventy-one-a of this chapter] daily with such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies, as may be designated by the comptroller, to the credit of the comptroller for disposal pursuant to section eighty-eight-a of the state finance law. An account may be established in one or more such depositories. The comp-54 troller shall require adequate security from all such depositories. Of the total revenue collected or received under this article, the comptroller shall retain such amount as the commissioner may determine to be necessary for refunds under this article. The commissioner is authorized and directed to deduct from the amounts it receives under this article, before deposit into the trust accounts designated by the comptroller, a reasonable amount necessary to effectuate refunds of appropriations of the department to reimburse the department for the costs incurred to administer, collect and distribute the taxes imposed by this article.

- (b) On or before the twelfth and twenty-sixth day of each succeeding month, after reserving such amount for such refunds and deducting such amounts for such costs, as provided for in subdivision (a) of this section, the commissioner shall certify to the comptroller the amount of all revenues so received during the prior month as a result of the taxes, fees, interest and penalties so imposed. The amount of revenues so certified shall be paid over by the fifteenth and the final business day of each succeeding month from such account into the mass transportation operating assistance fund for payment pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision five of section eighty-eight-a of the state finance law or paragraph (c) of subdivision seven of section eighty-eight-a of the state finance law.
- (c) The commissioner and comptroller are authorized to consult with the director of the division of budget and the commissioner of transportation in determining which account of the mass transportation operating assistance fund to deposit and dispose of revenues collected or received under this article.
- § 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 5 of section 88-a of the state finance law, as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 1981, is amended and a new paragraph (d) is added to read as follows:
- (a) The "public transportation systems operating assistance account" shall consist of revenues required to be deposited therein pursuant to the provisions of section one hundred eighty-two-a of the tax law_section twelve hundred ninety-eight of the tax law and all other moneys credited or transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law.
- (d) (i) The comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to transfer the taxes, fees, interest and penalties collected or received pursuant to article twenty-nine-B of the tax law on TNC prearranged trips originating outside the metropolitan transportation commuter district to the public transportation system operating assistance account established under this subdivision. These transfers shall not be included for purposes of calculating the sales tax growth factor established in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, and shall supplement the additional transfers indexed to the sales tax growth factor required under this subdivision. Transfers provided under this paragraph shall not be used to offset reduced transfers under paragraph (c) of this subdivision.
- (ii) The comptroller is authorized to consult with the director of the division of budget and the commissioner of transportation in determining whether to transfer the taxes, fees, interest and penalties collected or received to the public transportation system operating account.
- (iii) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the comptroller is authorized to withhold the transfer of taxes, fees, interest and penalties collected or received pursuant to article twenty-nine-B of the tax law from public transportation systems eligible to receive operating assistance pursuant to section eighteen-b of the transportation law in the event that a county or municipality reduces its annual operating payments to a public transportation system or mass transportation service. The comptroller is further authorized to consult with the director of the division of budget and the commissioner of transportation in making that determination.

§ 5. Subdivision 7 of section 88-a of the state finance law is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c)(i) The comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to transfer the taxes, fees, interest and penalties collected or received pursuant to article twenty-nine-B of the tax law on TNC prearranged trips originating outside of the city of New York within the metropolitan transportation commuter district to the metropolitan mass transportation operating assistance account. Transfers provided under this paragraph shall supplement the aggregate amount of funds appropriated and disbursed from the metropolitan mass transportation operating assistance account for the state fiscal year ending March thirty-first, two thousand eighteen. Provided, further, that the director of the division of budget shall not withhold an additional percentage of disbursements relative to the enacted budget financial plan for the state fiscal year ending March thirty-first, two thousand eighteen from metropolitan mass transportation operating assistance account revenues generated in subsequent fiscal years.

(ii) Provided, further, that taxes, fees, interest and penalties transferred pursuant to subparagraph (i) of this paragraph shall only be distributed to public transportation systems providing mass transportation services outside the city of New York. For purposes of this subparagraph, mass transportation services provided outside the city of New York shall include commuter rail provided in the metropolitan transportation commuter district. Taxes, fees, interest and penalties shall be transferred in proportion to the location where the prearranged trip originated, provided that fifty percent of transfers shall be disbursed to bus lines and fifty percent of transfers shall be disbursed to commuter rail in localities where both mass transportation services are provided. The comptroller is authorized to consult with the commissioner taxation and finance, the director of the division of budget and the commissioner of transportation in determining the appropriate public transportation systems and mass transportation services that should receive the transfers.

(iii) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the comptroller is authorized to withhold the transfer of taxes, fees, interest and penalties collected or received pursuant to article twenty-nine-B of the tax law from public transportation systems eligible to receive operating assistance pursuant to section eighteen-b of the transportation law in the event that a county or municipality reduces its annual operating payments to a public transportation system or mass transportation service. The comptroller is further authorized to consult with the director of the division of budget and the commissioner of transportation in making that determination.

§ 6. This act shall take effect on the first of July next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law; provided however, that the amendments to subdivision 1 of section 171-a of the tax law made by section one of this act shall be subject to the expiration of such subdivision pursuant to section 26 of part AAA of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, when upon such date the provisions of section two of this act shall take effect; provided, however, that effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
