IN ASSEMBLY

January 23, 2018

Introduced by M. of A. HEVESI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to mandating training of direct care workers in adverse childhood experiences (ACEs)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 2 20-d to read as follows:

3 § 20-d. Training of direct care workers in adverse childhood experi-
4 ences. 1. As used in this section:

5 (a) "Direct-care employees" means the employees of domestic violence 6 shelters, safe dwellings, and domestic violence programs identified by 7 the certifying organization to receive training, which shall include,
8 but not be limited to, the directors and coordinators of such shelters, 9 dwellings, and programs, and any individual or employee performing or 10 required to perform similar responsibilities.

11 (b) "Certifying organization" means an organization designated by the 12 federal department of health and human services to coordinate statewide 13 improvements within local communities, social services systems, and 14 programming regarding the prevention and intervention of domestic 15 violence in New York state.

16 (c) "Adverse childhood experiences" or "ACEs" means stressful or trau-17 matic experiences experienced during childhood, which are strongly
18 related to the development and prevalence of a wide range of health 19 problems throughout a person's lifetime, including, but not limited to 20 physical or sexual abuse; domestic violence; parental mental illness;
21 substance abuse; and incarceration.

22 2. The office of temporary and disability assistance and the office of 23 children and family services shall, within amounts appropriated for such 24 purpose, contract exclusively with an entity, or with entities in part-25 nership, to develop a training program for direct-care employees to 26 identify individuals who have experienced ACEs, develop effective strat-27 egies for assisting and interacting with such individuals, and locate 28 programs and services to which such individuals with ACEs may be

1 referred to help build the individual's resilience. Such entity, or 2 entities in partnership, shall be experienced in providing trauma-in-3 formed, victim-centered training on domestic violence, child abuse, and 4 ACEs. Such entity, or entities in partnership, shall be responsible for 5 providing such training to direct-care employees.

6 3. All direct-care employees shall be required to participate in such 7 training program. Such training shall be provided at no cost to such 8 employees.

9 4. The office of temporary and disability assistance and the office of 10 children and family services shall, within amounts appropriated for such 11 purpose, contract with a certifying organization to provide a certif-12 ication of completion to each direct-care employee who satisfies the 13 requirements of such training program.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 15 have become a law.
