MEMORIALIZING Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to recognize April 21, 2017, as a Day of Silence in the State of New York

WHEREAS, The Day of Silence is a day on which students take a vow to remain silent for a full day in order bring attention to the harassment and discrimination faced by lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people in schools, including students, teachers, and other school staff; and

WHEREAS, The Day of Silence has been held annually since April of 1996; and

WHEREAS, The Gay, Lesbian, and Straight Education Network (GLSEN) has designated April 21, 2017, as the Day of Silence; and

WHEREAS, Hundreds of thousands of students at more than 8,000 K-12 schools, colleges and universities participated in Day of Silence events in 2016; and

WHEREAS, It has been reported by GLSEN that more than 80 percent of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender students have been verbally harassed by their peers because of their sexual orientation and gender identity; and

WHEREAS, It has been reported by GLSEN that 40 percent of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender students have been physically assaulted by their peers because of their sexual orientation and gender identity; and

WHEREAS, It has been reported by GLSEN that more than 30 percent of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender students report missing at least one entire school day in the last month because they feel unsafe; and

WHEREAS, Bullying, harassment and discrimination can hinder student achievement and have a negative impact on students' academic performance; and

WHEREAS, Every child, should be guaranteed an education free from discrimination and harassment; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body supports the goals and ideals of the Day of Silence; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim April 21, 2017, as a Day of Silence in the State of New York; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo, Governor of the State of

New York.
