

BY: Senator ORTT

MEMORIALIZING Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim
September 10-16, 2017, as Direct Support
Professionals Recognition Week in the State of New York

WHEREAS, Direct support workers, direct care workers, personal assistants, personal attendants, in-home support workers and paraprofessionals (referred to in this Preamble as direct support professionals) are the primary providers of publicly funded long term supports and services for thousands of New Yorkers with developmental disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Direct support professionals first allegiance is to the person they support; they must build a close, trusted relationship with an individual with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Direct support professionals make community living a reality for more than 125,000 New Yorkers with intellectual and developmental disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Direct support professionals assist individuals with disabilities with the most intimate needs, on a daily basis, including a broad range of supports such as: preparation of meals; helping with medications; bathing and dressing; mobility and getting to school, work, religious, recreational activities; and with general daily affairs; and

WHEREAS, Direct support professionals are responsible for supporting the emotional, physical and personal well-being of individuals receiving support, and helping to keep an individual with disabilities connected to both family and the community; and

WHEREAS, Direct support professionals enable individuals with disabilities to live self-directed, meaningful and productive lives and are the key to allowing an individual with disabilities to live more successfully in the community; and

WHEREAS, Direct support professionals respect the human dignity and uniqueness of the people they support; they advocate for the people they support, promoting their human rights, their civil rights and responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body appreciates the contribution of direct support professionals in supporting the needs that reach beyond the capacities of the families in the State of New York, and further recognizes them as integral in supporting the long-term support and services system in this great Empire State; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body finds the successful implementation of the public policies of the State of New York depends on the dedication of direct support professionals; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Andrew M. Cuomo to proclaim September 10-16, 2017, as Direct Support Professionals Recognition Week in the State of New York, recognizing the dedication and vital role of direct support professionals in enhancing the lives of individuals with disabilities of all ages; appreciating the contribution of direct support professionals in supporting the needs that reach beyond the capacities of thousands of families in the State of New York; and commending direct support professionals as integral in supporting the long-term support and service system in the State of New York; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo, Governor of the State of New York.