

BY: Senator HANNON

HONORING the recipients of the LeadingAge New York
2017 Long Term Care Employee of Distinction Awards

WHEREAS, Employees of New York's not-for-profit, mission-driven and public providers strive to improve the quality of life for New York's elderly and chronically disabled, thereby meriting the highest commendation; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and fully in accord with its long-standing traditions, it is the intent of this Legislative Body to congratulate the activity aides, directors, nursing assistants, plant operations managers, social workers, environmental services workers, housekeepers, recreation therapy leaders, program development managers, registered nurses, licensed practical nurses and support aides, who have been nominated by their peers, supervisors and management personnel to receive this recognition; and

WHEREAS, Founded in 1961, LeadingAge New York, formerly the New York Association of Homes & Services for the Aging, under the leadership of James W. Clyne Jr., is the only statewide organization representing the entire continuum of not-for-profit, mission-driven and public senior living and services, including nursing homes, home care agencies, senior housing, retirement communities, assisted living, adult care facilities, adult day health care and managed long term care; and

WHEREAS, LeadingAge New York's nearly 500 not-for-profit, mission-driven and public provider members serve an estimated 500,000 New Yorkers of all ages annually; and

WHEREAS, LeadingAge New York's Long Term Care Employee of Distinction program recognizes those who deal with the staffing crisis in long term care on a daily basis, while successfully facing the challenge of providing quality care; and

WHEREAS, Recipients of recognition include: Mary Roessel, Heritage Commons Residential Health Care; John Santello, Clara Welch Thanksgiving Home; Kevin O'Toole, The Community at Sunset Wood; Tara Searor, St. Luke Health Services; Sonia Goldson, The Osborn; Kelvin Hui, United Hebrew of New Rochelle; David Nolan, Kendal on Hudson; Joseph Costa, Good Samaritan Nursing Home; Gaik Sim Khoo, St. Margaret's House; Zantonio Hung, VillageCare at 46 & Ten; Tashauna Vigo, University Avenue Assisted Living, The New Jewish Home; Rhonda Davis Campbell, Kirkhaven; Jean Loomis, St. John's Home and Meadows-Brickstone Communities; Priscilla Salgado, St. Ann's Community at Cherry Ridge; Nicholas Anderson, GreenField Health & Rehabilitation Center; and Cathleen Peterson, Hultquist Place; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor the men and women of New York State who, day after day, perform their jobs in an exemplary manner making them worthy of recognition by

LeadingAge New York's 2017 Long Term Care Employee of Distinction Awards; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to each of the recipients of the LeadingAge New York 2017 Long Term Care Employee of Distinction Awards.