

Senate Resolution No. 3669

BY: Senator PARKER

RECOGNIZING February 1, 2018, as National Freedom Day

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize important events which remind us of the rich and diverse heritage of our great State and Nation; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to recognize February 1, 2018, as National Freedom Day; and

WHEREAS, February 1st has been designated as National Freedom Day in the United States to celebrate and recognize the abolition of slavery; this joyful celebration is held across New York State and America to fittingly note the contributions of African Americans throughout history and in all fields of endeavor; and

WHEREAS, National Freedom Day is a time to reflect on the struggles and victories of African Americans throughout our country's history and to recognize their numerous valuable contributions to the protection of our democratic society in times of war and in peace; and

WHEREAS, In addition to freedom from slavery, National Freedom Day recognizes America as a true symbol for freedom; it honors the signing of a joint House and Senate resolution by Abraham Lincoln which later became the 13th Amendment of the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, President Abraham Lincoln signed the Amendment outlawing slavery on February 1, 1865, but it was not ratified by the states however, until December 18, 1865; and

WHEREAS, A former slave and great leader in the community by the name of Major Richard Robert Wright, Sr. created National Freedom Day; and

WHEREAS, On June 30, 1948, President Harry Truman signed a bill proclaiming February 1st as the first official National Freedom Day in the United States; and

WHEREAS, On this day throughout our great State and Nation, many towns have festivals and celebrations, reflecting on the freedoms the United States honors, as well as reflecting on and appreciating the goodwill of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Events which celebrate diversity and peace contribute to fulfilling our Nation's great legacy of equality and opportunity for all, and do so profoundly enhance our shared commitment to freedom and justice; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to recognize February 1, 2018, as National Freedom Day.
