

Senate Resolution No. 4225

BY: Senator RITCHIE

RECOGNIZING April 8-14, 2018, as National Library Week

WHEREAS, The State of New York takes great pride in participating in important weeks of recognition; and

WHEREAS, The week of April 8-14, 2018, has been designated National Library Week; and

WHEREAS, First celebrated in 1958, National Library Week marks its 60th Anniversary in 2018, as a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) and libraries across the country each April; and

WHEREAS, National Library Week is a time to highlight the value of libraries, librarians, and library workers; and

WHEREAS, "Libraries Lead" is the theme for National Library Week 2018, reminding all Americans that today's libraries lead by providing access to crucial services and lifelong learning to help transform communities and open minds; and

WHEREAS, Misty Copeland, the first African-American principal dancer at the American Ballet Theatre, and an award-winning author, will serve as the 2018 Honorary Chair of National Library Week; and

WHEREAS, Libraries are a treasured part of American culture, and a valuable resource on a wide variety of popular topics, encouraging people to read, helping to improve incomes and health, and encouraging the development of strong, happy lives; and

WHEREAS, Not only places to borrow books, libraries also serve as creative and engaging community centers where people can collaborate and use new technologies to further their skills and passions; and

WHEREAS, Libraries serve as a resource for students, small business owners, English-language learners and many others who depend on all of the resources our libraries have to offer; and

WHEREAS, With New York State residents served by approximately 755 public libraries with over 1,100 branches and outlets, it is fitting that we recognize the significant impact libraries may have on individuals, and the invaluable services they provide to residents of the State of New York; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to recognize April 8-14, 2018, as National Library Week; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Jeremy Johannesen, Executive Director of the New York

Library Association.
