WHEREAS, The UniverSoul Circus is a single ring circus, established in 1994, by Cedric Walker, an African American man who had a vision of creating a circus, with the majority of performers being people of color; traveling all over the world to find people with incredible talents, he was able to find entertainers from approximately 24 different countries; and

WHEREAS, Cedric Walker's vision was to explore the various talents, other than singing and dancing, that people of color performers had to offer; he wanted to apply their gathered years of experience in the live appearance industry with the intent to make a difference, to change the industry they lived in, and to create growth and opportunity; and

WHEREAS, The first performance took place in the parking lot of Atlanta Fulton County Stadium in 1994; since its debut, the UniverSoul Circus has successfully turned the traditional circus world upside down; by 1997, the circus tour had grown to a 10 city tour; two years later, 19 cities; a South African tour in 2001; an Emmy nominated HBO special in 1998; and in 2005, a 32-city tour; and

WHEREAS, Today, The UniverSoul Circus is playing to packed houses from coast to coast, successfully entertaining all who comes to their shows; and

WHEREAS, The arts, in whatever form depicted, are central to human expression; they are truly a universal language and its contribution to the development of friendship and understanding among all peoples cannot be overestimated; and

WHEREAS, The history, the heritage, and the lives of the people of all countries and all cultures are portrayed in their exhibits; the art and act of sharing them enriches us altogether; and

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body that when organizations of such noble aims and accomplishments are brought to our attention, they should be recognized by all of the citizens of this great Empire State; now, therefore, be it
