AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, the tax law, the administrative code of the city of New York and the state finance law, in relation to establishing a Co-STAR program for seniors

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 425-b to read as follows:

3 § 425-b. Co-STAR program for senior citizens. 1. Generally. When real 4 property receives the enhanced STAR exemption from school district taxa-5 tion authorized by section four hundred twenty-five of this title, the 6 property shall be designated as eligible for a Co-STAR assessment on the 7 same assessment roll in the manner provided by this section, and the 8 qualified owner-applicant or owner-applicants shall be entitled to a 9 county tax rebate in the amount and manner provided by section one 10 hundred seventy-seven-a of the tax law. No separate application need be 11 filed for such Co-STAR assessment or rebate.

12 2. Co-STAR assessments. (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b)
13 of this subdivision, the Co-STAR assessment for each eligible parcel 14 shall be equal to three times the exempt amount determined for purposes
15 of the enhanced STAR exemption authorized by section four hundred twen-16 ty-five of this title for the assessing unit in which the parcel is 17 located.

18 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivi-19 sion, in no event shall the Co-STAR assessment of a parcel exceed the 20 taxable assessed value of that parcel for county purposes.

21 3. Entry on assessment roll; effect. Each parcel which is eligible for 22 a Co-STAR assessment shall be designated as such by the assessor on the 23 assessment roll, provided, however, that a Co-STAR assessment shall not 24 affect the total or taxable assessed value of any parcel for any

1 purpose, and shall not be considered when determining the tax rate of 2 any county or for any purpose other than determining the rebate to which 3 the owner-applicant or owner-applicants are entitled under section one 4 hundred seventy-seven-a of the tax law.

5 4. Payment of Co-STAR rebates. The commissioner of taxation and 6 finance shall pay Co-STAR rebates in the manner provided by section one 7 hundred seventy-seven-a of the tax law.

8 5. Failure to pay county taxes. If the county taxes on an eligible 9 parcel are not paid in full during the applicable county fiscal year, 10 the owner-applicant or owner-applicants shall be subject to the conse-11 quences specified in subdivision five of section one hundred seventy-12 seven-a of the tax law, in addition to such other consequences as may be 13 provided by law.

14 6. Exceptions. (a) Cooperative apartment units and mobile homes. When 15 an enhanced STAR exemption is granted pursuant to paragraph (k) of 16 subdivision two of section four hundred twenty-five of this title in 17 relation to a cooperative apartment unit, or pursuant to paragraph (l) 18 of such subdivision in relation to a mobile home which is separately 19 owned from but assessed with the land on which it is located, and such 20 cooperative apartment unit or mobile home is also eligible for a Co-STAR
21 assessment pursuant to this section, the Co-STAR rebate shall be paid 22 directly to the qualified owner-applicant or owner-applicants notwith-23 standing the fact that the STAR exemption applies to the parcel itself.
24 The assessor shall prepare a list or data file identifying such owner-25 applicant or owner-applicants, their mailing addresses, and the taxable 26 assessed value for county purposes attributable to their respective 27 cooperative apartment units or mobile homes, and shall submit the same 28 to the commissioner within thirty days after the completion of the final 29 assessment roll. Such list or data file shall be prepared in such form 30 and manner as may be prescribed by the commissioner in consultation with 31 the department of taxation and finance.

32 (b) Counties in certain cities. In the case of a county located wholly 33 within a city with a population of one million or more inhabitants, the 34 Co-STAR assessment associated with each eligible parcel shall be equal 35 to fifty percent of the exempt amount determined for purposes of the 36 enhanced STAR exemption authorized by section four hundred twenty-five 37 of this title for such city after the adjustment required by paragraph 38 (j) of subdivision two of such section.

39 7. Correction of an incorrect entry. An incorrect entry on an assess-40 ment roll of a Co-STAR assessment may be corrected in the manner
41 provided by law for the correction of an incorrect entry of the STAR 42 exemption authorized by section four hundred twenty-five of this title.
43 A denial of a Co-STAR assessment shall be subject to administrative and 44 judicial review in the manner provided by law for the review of assess-45 ments.

46 8. Inconsistent laws superseded. The provisions of this section shall 47 apply to all assessing units, excluding village assessing units and 48 cities within a county assessing unit, and to all counties, notwith-49 standing any provision of law to the contrary.

50 § 2. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 177-a to read as 51 follows:

52 § 177-a. Co-STAR tax rebates. 1. Payment of rebates. The commissioner 53 shall pay Co-STAR tax rebates, as provided in section four hundred twen-54 ty-five-b of the real property tax law, to authorized payees as defined 55 in this section. The amount of each such rebate shall equal the Co-STAR 56 assessment associated with the parcel in question multiplied by the

1 applicable county tax rate. Such payments shall be made as promptly as 2 possible following receipt of the payee identification and other infor-3 mation specified in this section, subject to appropriation by the state 4 legislature. The commissioner shall design, develop and implement a 5 process to review the quality and integrity of the Co-STAR information 6 in his or her possession.

7 2. Authorized payees; mailing addresses. (a) For each eligible proper-8 ty, the Co-STAR rebate shall be paid to the qualified owner-applicant or 9 owner-applicants, or his, her or their payment designee or designees, if 10 any. In the case of Co-STAR assessments granted pursuant to section four 11 hundred twenty-five-b of the real property tax law, the qualified 12 owner-applicant or owner-applicants shall be the senior citizen or citi-13 zens who applied for, and were found to satisfy the requirements of, the 14 enhanced STAR exemption authorized by section four hundred twenty-five 15 of the real property tax law.

16 (b) The Co-STAR rebate shall be mailed to the mailing address provided 17 on the application form for the enhanced STAR exemption submitted pursu-18 ant to section four hundred twenty-five of the real property tax law.

19 3. Reporting of data to department. (a) When developing or maintaining 20 its data base for purposes of administering its responsibilities under 21 this section, the department shall utilize to the maximum extent possi-22 ble data extracted from the assessment roll data files submitted to the 23 commissioner pursuant to article fifteen-C of the real property tax law.
24 On or before November first of each year, the commissioner shall ascer-25 tain from such data files, the identification numbers of the parcels 26 designated thereon as eligible for Co-STAR assessments, the names of the 27 owners of each such parcel as appearing thereon, the taxable assessed 28 value for county purposes of each such parcel as appearing thereon, and 29 the assessing unit in which each such parcel is located.

30 (b) For purposes of administering its responsibilities under this 31 section in relation to cooperative apartment units and mobile homes, the 32 department shall also utilize data extracted from the lists and data 33 files submitted to the commissioner by assessors pursuant to paragraph 34 (a) of subdivision six of section four hundred twenty-five-b of the real 35 property tax law. On or before November first of each year, the commis-36 sioner shall ascertain from such lists and data files, the names and 37 addresses of the owner-applicants as shown thereon, their mailing 38 addresses as shown thereon, the taxable assessed value for county 39 purposes attributable to their respective cooperative apartment units or 40 mobile homes, and the assessing unit in which each such cooperative 41 apartment unit or mobile home is located.

42 (c) The county treasurer of each county shall certify to the commis-
43 sioner, no later than the thirty-first day of January of each county 44 fiscal year, the county tax rates applicable to each city and town with-45 in the county for that fiscal year. In the case of a county located 46 wholly within a city with a population of one million or more inhabit-47 ants, the commissioner of finance of such city shall make such certif-48 ication; provided that the tax rate to be provided thereunder, and used 49 to compute Co-STAR rebates pursuant to this section, shall be a compos-50 ite of the tax rates for both city and school district purposes.

51 (d) In addition to receiving data pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and 52 (c) of this subdivision, the department may enter into agreements with 53 local assessors, with county treasurers, or with some or all of such 54 parties, for the reporting to the department of such other data as may 55 be required for its administration of the Co-STAR tax rebate program.
56 Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to preclude the

1 department from collecting directly from putative payees such data as it 2 shall deem appropriate.

3 (e) Information provided to or prepared by the department pursuant to 4 this section shall not be used for any purpose other than administration
5 of the Co-STAR program, and such information shall not be redisclosed 6 other than for the purpose of administering such program nor shall the 7 provisions of article six of the public officers law apply to any such 8 information.

9 4. Limitations. Payment of a rebate upon the information provided to 10 it, or denial of or failure to pay a rebate based on such information, 11 shall relieve the commissioner and the department from all liability to 12 any owner of the property, or the estate, trust, assigns, successors, 13 heirs or representatives of any such owner, or any other person, with 14 respect to such payment, and such persons shall have no right to 15 commence a court action or proceeding or to any other legal recourse 16 against the state, the commissioner, the department, or any officer or 17 employee of state or local government involved in the administration of 18 this program, to recover such payment.

19 5. Failure to pay county taxes. (a) After the conclusion of each coun-20 ty fiscal year, the county treasurer of each county shall submit to the 21 commissioner a list identifying all parcels with respect to which the 22 county taxes for that fiscal year remained unpaid as of the end of that 23 fiscal year. In the case of a county located wholly within a city with a 24 population of one million or more inhabitants, such list shall be 25 submitted by the commissioner of finance of such city and shall identify 26 all parcels with respect to which the city taxes for that fiscal year 27 remained unpaid as of the end of that fiscal year. Such list shall be 28 submitted to the commissioner when submitting the report described in 29 paragraph (c) of subdivision three of this section.

30 (b) Upon receiving such a list, the commissioner shall withhold any 31 future Co-STAR rebate payments to the owner-applicants in relation to 32 any parcels on the list until receiving confirmation that all outstand-
33 ing county taxes on the parcel in question have been paid in full. It 34 shall be the responsibility of the owner-applicant to obtain such 35 confirmation in writing from the county treasurer, and to provide the 36 same to the department in such manner as the commissioner may prescribe.
37 After receiving such confirmation, any withheld rebates for which the 38 owner-applicant is eligible and has timely applied shall be released and 39 future rebate payments may be made, subject to continued eligibility and 40 continuous payment of future county taxes. No interest shall be paid or 41 payable on any withheld rebates that are so released. The commissioner 42 may schedule the processing of requests for the release of withheld 43 rebates so as to allow payments to be collectively authorized for this 44 purpose no more frequently than twice per calendar year.

45 (c) If such confirmation is not received within a time period to be 46 determined by the commissioner, the commissioner may revoke the Co-STAR 47 rebate for the county fiscal year identified in paragraph (a) of this 48 subdivision and recapture the applicable amount in the manner prescribed 49 by subdivision seven of this section.

50 6. Erroneous rebates; replacement checks. The commissioner may, in his 51 or her discretion, seek to recover any erroneous rebate by notifying the 52 payee of the amount thereof. If such erroneous rebate is not returned 53 within thirty days, the commissioner is authorized to treat the errone-54 ous rebate as an erroneous refund of income tax pursuant to the 55 provisions of paragraph five of subsection (c) of section six hundred 56 eighty-three of this chapter and such amounts, when collected, shall be

1 deposited as provided in subdivision one of section one hundred seven-2 ty-one-a of this article, as if such amounts were taxes collected under 3 an article of this chapter referred to in such subdivision. Where the 4 commissioner finds that an original rebate check has been misdirected 5 for reasons beyond the control of the authorized payee, he or she may 6 issue a new rebate check to the authorized payee.

7 7. Regulations. The commissioner shall be authorized to make such 8 rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary for the performance of 9 his or her duties under this section, including but not limited to rules 10 and regulations relating to standards and procedures for furnishing data 11 to the department.

12 § 3. Processing of Co-STAR assessments for senior citizens on the 13 assessment roll. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 425-b of 14 the real property tax law, as added by section one of this act, parcels 15 which are eligible for Co-STAR assessments pursuant to such section 16 shall not be designated as such on the 2014 assessment roll. In lieu 17 thereof, upon receipt of the 2014 assessment roll data file submitted to 18 it pursuant to section 1590 of the real property tax law, the commis-19 sioner of taxation and finance shall identify the parcels thereon which 20 are receiving the enhanced STAR exemption pursuant to section 425 of the 21 real property tax law, shall ascertain the taxable assessed value for 22 county purposes of each such parcel, and shall forward such information 23 to the department of taxation and finance, together with the maximum 24 allowable Co-STAR assessments for each assessing unit.

25 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 177-a of the tax law, as 26 added by section two of this act, for purposes of issuing rebates of 27 county taxes for the county fiscal year beginning in 2013, the depart-28 ment of taxation and finance may presume that the qualified owner-appli-29 cant or owner-applicants were the property owner or owners as of the 30 applicable taxable status date, as shown on the assessment roll data 31 file filed with the commissioner of taxation and finance pursuant to 32 article 15-C of the real property tax law, and may further presume that 33 the appropriate mailing addresses are the owners' addresses shown there-34 on.

35 (c) When property which is eligible for a Co-STAR assessment pursuant 36 to this section constitutes a cooperative apartment unit or a mobile 37 home which is subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) of subdivision 38 6 of section 425-b of the real property tax law, as added by section one 39 of this act, the assessor shall not be required to file the list or data 40 file required by such paragraph until the one hundred twentieth day 41 after the effective date of this act, notwithstanding any provision in 42 such subdivision to the contrary.

43 § 4. Subsection (e) of section 1310 of the tax law, as added by chap-44 ter 481 of the laws of 1997, is relettered subsection (g) and a new 45 subsection (h) is added to read as follows:

46 (h) City Co-STAR credit. (1) For taxable years beginning after two 47 thousand seventeen, a city Co-STAR credit shall be allowed for taxpayers 48 who have attained the age of sixty-five on or before the close of the 49 taxable year. The credit shall be allowed against the taxes authorized 50 by this article reduced by the credits permitted by this article. If the 51 credit exceeds the tax as so reduced, the taxpayer may receive, and the 52 comptroller, subject to a certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as 53 an overpayment, without interest, the amount of such excess. For 54 purposes of this subsection, no credit shall be granted to an individual 55 with respect to whom a deduction under subsection (c) of section one hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code is allowable to another taxpayer for the taxable year.

(2) The credit shall be determined under this paragraph.

(A) Married individuals filing joint returns and surviving spouses. In the case of a husband and wife who make a single return jointly and of a surviving spouse:

For taxable years two thousand seventeen and after the credit shall be one hundred twenty dollars.

(B) All others. In the case of an unmarried individual, a head of a household or a married individual filing a separate return:

For taxable years two thousand seventeen and after the credit shall be sixty dollars.

§ 5. Subdivision (c) of section 11-1706 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 1997, is relettered subdivision (g) and a new subdivision (h) is added to read as follows:

(h) City Co-STAR credit. (1) For taxable years beginning after two thousand seventeen, a city Co-STAR credit shall be allowed for taxpayers who have attained the age of sixty-five on or before the close of the taxable year. The credit shall be allowed against the taxes imposed by this chapter reduced by the credits permitted by this chapter. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced, the taxpayer may receive, and the state comptroller, subject to a certificate of the state commissioner of taxation and finance, shall pay as an overpayment, without interest, the amount of such excess. For purposes of this subdivision, no credit shall be granted to an individual with respect to whom a deduction under subsection (c) of section one hundred fifty-one of the internal revenue code is allowable to another taxpayer for the taxable year.

(2) The credit shall be determined under this paragraph.

(A) Married individuals filing joint returns and surviving spouses. In the case of a husband and wife who make a single return jointly and of a surviving spouse:

For taxable years two thousand seventeen and after the credit shall be five hundred dollars.

(B) All others. In the case of an unmarried individual, a head of a household or a married individual filing a separate return:

For taxable years two thousand seventeen and after the credit shall be sixty dollars.

§ 6. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 85 to read as follows:

§ 85. Co-STAR fund. 1. There is hereby established in the sole custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance a special fund to be known as the Co-STAR fund.

2. Such fund shall consist of all monies credited or transferred thereto from the general fund or from any other fund or sources pursuant to law.

3. The monies of the fund shall be available for payment of Co-STAR rebates authorized by section one hundred seventy-seven-a of the tax law, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, shall be paid out on checks issued and signed solely by the commissioner of taxation and finance.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately, provided, however:

(a) Section one of this act shall apply to assessment rolls filed in 2018 and thereafter; and

(b) Section two of this act shall apply to county fiscal years beginning in 2019 and thereafter.
