AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the definition of a campground within the Adirondack park

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 10 of section 802 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 348 of the laws of 1973, is amended and a new subdivision 55-a is added to read as follows:

10. "Campground" means [~~any area designed for transient occupancy by camping in tents, camp trailers, travel trailers, motor homes or similar facility designed for temporary shelter~~] a tract or parcel of land, including principal buildings and accessory structures, where five or more campsites are made available for temporary or seasonal overnight occupancy. Nothing in this article shall require the removal of a recreational vehicle that remains on a campground or a campsite in such campground, with the consent of the owner of the campground during those periods of time that it is not occupied, provided that it is not used in a manner that violates the terms and conditions of the permit issued to the campground by the state or a county department of health.

55-a. "Recreational vehicle" means a vehicular camping unit primarily designed as temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, travel or seasonal use that has its own motive power or is mounted on or towed by another vehicle.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.
