2 law, as amended by section 5 of part T of chapter 59 of the laws of 3 2015, is amended to read as follows:

4 (a) (i) The term "investment income" means income, including capital 5 gains in excess of capital losses, from investment capital, to the 6 extent included in computing entire net income, less, (A) in the 7 discretion of the commissioner, any interest deductions allowable in 8 computing entire net income which are directly or indirectly attribut-
9 able to investment capital or investment income, (B) any of capital gain 10 included in federal taxable income that has to be recharacterized as 11 business income pursuant to paragraph (u) of subdivision nine of this 12 section; provided, however, that in no case shall investment income
13 exceed entire net income. (ii) If the amount of interest deductions
14 subtracted under subparagraph (i) of this paragraph exceeds investment
15 income, the excess of such amount over investment income must be added
16 back to entire net income. (iii) If the taxpayer's investment income 17 determined without regard to the interest deductions subtracted under 18 subparagraph (i) of this paragraph comprises more than eight percent of 19 the taxpayer's entire net income, investment income determined without 20 regard to such interest deductions cannot exceed eight percent of the 21 taxpayer's entire net income.

6 § 3. Subdivision 9 of section 208 of the tax law is amended by adding 7 a new paragraph (u) to read as follows:

8 (u) Special rule for corporate partners performing investment manage-
9 ment services. In the case of a taxpayer that is a partner who performs 10 investment management services (as defined in subsection (h) of section 11 six hundred thirty-one of this chapter) for the partnership, the taxpay-12 er will not be treated as a partner for purposes of this article with 13 respect to the amount of the partner's distributive share of income, 14 gain, loss and deduction (including any guaranteed payments) which is in 15 excess of the amount that such distributive share would have been if the 16 partner had performed no investment management services. Instead, such 17 excess amount shall be treated as an amount received from a trade or 18 business carried on by the taxpayer, and notwithstanding any state or 19 federal law to the contrary, such excess amount shall be characterized 20 as a payment for services rendered. For purposes of this paragraph, the 21 amount of the distributive share that would have been determined if the 22 partner performed no services, shall not be less than zero.

31 ty-one of this chapter, which is in excess of the amount that such 32 distributive share would have been if the partner had performed no
33 investment management services, shall be treated as a business receipt 34 that arises from the performance of services. For purposes of this 35 subdivision, the amount of the distributive share that would have been 36 determined if the partner performed no services, shall not be less than 37 zero.

38 § 5. Subsection (b) of section 617 of the tax law, as amended by chap-
39 ter 606 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

40 (b) Character of items. Each item of partnership and S corporation
41 income, gain, loss, or deduction shall have the same character for a 42 partner or shareholder under this article as for federal income tax
43 purposes. Where an item is not characterized for federal income tax
44 purposes, it shall have the same character for a partner or shareholder 45 as if realized directly from the source from which realized by the part-46 nership or S corporation or incurred in the same manner as incurred by 47 the partnership or S corporation. See subsections (f) and (g) of 48 section six hundred thirty-two of this article for special rules for 49 partners and shareholders performing investment management services.

50 § 6. Subsection (d) of section 631 of the tax law, as amended by chap-
51 ter 28 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as follows:

56 ly by reason of the purchase and sale of property or the purchase, sale

2 account.

3 (2) This subsection shall not apply to a partner or shareholder
4 performing investment management services as described under subsection 5 (h) of this section.

6 § 7. Section 631 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
7 (h) to read as follows:

8 (h) Investment management services. (1) For purposes of this section,
9 the term "investment management services" to a partnership, S corpo-10 ration or other entity means providing a substantial quantity of any of 11 the following services to the partnership, S corporation or other enti-
12 ty:

13 (i) advising the partnership, S corporation, or entity as to the 14 advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling any specified 15 asset, or

16 (ii) managing, acquiring, or disposing of any specified asset, or

17 (iii) arranging financing with respect to acquiring specified assets, 18 or

30 percent of the average fair market value of the specified assets of the 31 partnership, S corporation or other entity during the taxable year
32 consist of real estate.

33 § 8. Section 632 of the tax law is amended by adding two new 34 subsections (f) and (g) to read as follows:

35 (f) Special rule for partners performing investment management
36 services. In the case of a partner who performs investment management 37 services for the partnership, the partner will not be treated as a part-38 ner for purposes of this article with respect to the amount of the part-39 ner's distributive share of income, gain, loss and deduction (including 40 any guaranteed payments) which is in excess of the amount such distribu-
41 tive share would have been if the partner had performed no investment 42 management services. Instead, such excess amount shall be treated as an 43 amount received from a trade, business, profession or occupation carried 44 on in the partner's own capacity for purposes of this article. Notwith-
45 standing any state or federal law to the contrary, such excess amount 46 shall be characterized as a payment for services rendered for purposes

8 of the shareholder's pro rata share of income, gain, loss and deduction 9 which is in excess of the amount such pro rata share would have been if 10 the shareholder had performed no investment management services.
11 Instead, such excess amount shall be treated as an amount received from 12 a trade, business, profession or occupation carried on in the sharehold-13 er's own capacity for purposes of this article. Notwithstanding any 14 state or federal law to the contrary, such excess amount shall be char-
15 acterized as a payment for services rendered for purposes of this arti-
16 cle, and for purposes of section six hundred thirty-one of this article 17 shall be allocated in accordance with the rules and regulations applica-18 ble to:

19 (1) individuals rendering personal services in the case of an individ-20 ual shareholder, or

21 (2) a business carried on in New York in the case of a shareholder
22 that is an estate or trust.

23 For purposes of this subsection, the amount of the pro rata share that 24 would have been determined if the shareholder performed no services, 25 shall not be less than zero.

36 subsection (d) of section 1085 of the tax law, in relation to the 37 preceding year's return, shall be calculated as if the amendments made 38 by this act had been in effect for that entire preceding year.

39 § 10. Income from investment management services as defined in 40 subsection (h) of section 631 of the tax law shall be subject to a 19% 41 "carried interest fairness fee" payable to the state of New York until 42 such time as the commissioner of taxation and finance has notified the 43 legislative bill drafting commission that the United States Congress has

1 the provisions of section 44 of the legislative law and section 70-b of 2 the public officers law.
