2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 12, 2017

Introduced by Sens. PARKER, COMRIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Finance

AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, the state finance law and the tax law, in relation to development of biomethane as a fuel alternative and creating the biomethane fuel incentive fund; and making an appropriation therefor

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new
2	section 1884 to read as follows:
3	§ 1884. Biomethane grants. The New York state energy research and
4	development authority shall:
5	1. Oversee and promote research and development regarding fuel diver-
6	sification and energy efficiency in the transportation sector; and
7	2. Provide grants for:
8	(a) the components of the biomethane fuel pathway, including the
9	components required to produce biomethane, including land, biogas
10	collection systems, anaerobic digesters, and biogas refinery;
11	(b) municipal purchases of light-duty vehicles to heavy-duty freight
12	trucks that use biomethane; and
13	(c) installation of biomethane fueling equipment.
14	§ 2. Section 1851 of the public authorities law is amended by adding a
15	new subdivision 19 to read as follows:
16	19. "Biomethane" shall mean biogases that are emitted as organic
17	wastes break down in airless environments. Biomethane is produced from a
18	variety of biomass and/or biogas sources including landfill gas, solid
19	waste, municipal wastewater and agricultural manure via airless tanks
20	called anaerobic digesters. It can also be produced from other sources
21	such as forestry and agricultural waste through the process of thermal
22 23	gasification and methanation, although these technologies are not yet widely used. Biomethane is a renewable fuel, easily distributed through

2	vehicles to heavy-duty freight trucks.
3	§ 3. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 99-g to
4	read as follows:
5	§ 99-g. Biomethane fuel incentive fund. 1. There is hereby established
6	in the joint custody of the state comptroller and the commissioner of
7	taxation and finance a special revenue fund to be known as the "biometh-
8	ane fuel incentive fund".
9	2. The fund shall consist of the amount of revenues from sales taxes
10	imposed on the receipts of the price of motor and diesel fuel more than
11	one dollar or equal to or less than two dollars.
12	3. Monies of the fund, when allocated, shall be disbursed for the
13	following purposes:
14	(a) credits against personal income tax and corporate franchise tax
15	for the installation or conversion of fueling stations for biomethane
16	fuels;
17	(b) grants for research and development in regards to biomethane fuel
18	production and use in the transportation sector;
19	(c) grants for the components of the biomethane fuel pathway, includ-
20	ing the components required to produce biomethane, including land,
21	biogas collection systems, anaerobic digesters, and biogas refinery;
22	(d) grants for municipal purchases of light-duty vehicles to heavy
23	duty freight trucks that use biomethane fuel;
24	(e) grants for the installation of biomethane fueling equipment; and
25	(f) administrative costs borne by the department of taxation and
26	finance and the New York state energy research and development authori-
27	ty.

(a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, 20 to be computed as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by this 21 article for the cost of installation construction, reconstruction or acquisition of an alternative fuel refueling facility that is directly 22 attributable to the storage, compression, charging or dispensing of 23 alternative fuels to motor vehicles. The income tax credit shall be 24 25 thirty percent of the costs associated with such expenses. 26 (b) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision 27 for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the amount described in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this 28 29 section. If the amount of the credit allowable under this subdivision 30 for any taxable year exceeds the taxpayer's tax for such year, fifty 31 percent of the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be 32 credited or refunded as provided in section six hundred eighty-six of this chapter, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon. 33 34 The balance of such credit not credited or refunded in such taxable year 35 may be carried over to the immediately succeeding taxable year and may be deducted from the taxpayer's tax for such year. The excess, if any, 36 of the amount of the credit over the tax for such succeeding year shall 37 38 be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded as 39 provided in section six hundred eighty-six of this chapter, provided, 40 however, that no interest shall be paid thereon. 41 § 8. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 187-t to read as follows: 42 43 § 187-t. Alternative fuel credit for installation or conversion of 44 fueling stations. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a 45 credit, to be computed as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed 46 by this article for the cost of installation construction, reconstruction or acquisition of an alternative fuel refueling facility that 47 48 is directly attributable to the storage, compression, charging or 49 dispensing of alternative fuels to motor vehicles. The income tax credit 50 shall be thirty percent of the costs associated with such expenses. 51 (2) Application of credit. If the amount of the credit allowable under 52 this section for any taxable year exceeds the taxpayer's tax for such year, fifty percent of the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of 53 tax to be credited or refunded as provided in section six hundred eight-54 55 y-six of this chapter, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid 56 thereon. The balance of such credit not credited or refunded in such S. 2195

1 taxable year may be carried over to the immediately succeeding taxable 2 year and may be deducted from the taxpayer's tax for such year. The 3 excess, if any, of the amount of the credit over the tax for such 4 succeeding year shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited 5 or refunded as provided in section six hundred eighty-six of this chap-6 ter, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.
