IN SENATE

February 22, 2017

Introduced by Sen. FELDER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Cities

AN ACT to amend the general city law and the general business law, in relation to regulating the contracts of energy services companies and telecommunications services companies

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general city law is amended by adding a new article 9-A 2 to read as follows: 3 ARTICLE 9-A 4 ENFORCEMENT POWERS OF STATE LAWS CONCERNING SERVICES DISTRIBUTION 5 COMPANIES б Section 135. Enforcement provisions of the energy and telecommunications services company consumers bill of rights. 7 8 § 135. Enforcement of provisions of the energy and telecommunications 9 services company consumers bill of rights. 1. The corporation counsel or 10 city attorney of any city may, in accordance with subdivisions ten and eleven of section three hundred forty-nine-d of the general business 11 12 law, bring a civil action to enforce the provisions of the energy and 13 telecommunications services company consumers bill of rights against any 14 services distribution company, its sales agent, and/or its third party 15 representative. Such action may be brought upon his or her own motion, 16 or upon referral from the attorney general, the public service commission, the Long Island power authority or the department of state. 17 18 2. The corporation counsel or city attorney of any city may further, 19 in lieu of bringing an action pursuant to subdivision one of this 20 section, request that a civil action be brought by the attorney general 21 to enforce the provisions of the energy and telecommunications services company consumers bill of rights against a services distribution compa-22 23 ny, its sales agent, and/or its third party representative.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

2. Section 349-d of the general business law, as added by chapter 1 § 416 of the laws of 2010, subdivision 9 as amended by section 34 of 2 part A of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows: 3 4 § 349-d. Energy and telecommunications services company consumers bill 5 of rights. 1. For the purpose of this section: б (a) "Energy services" shall mean electricity and/or natural gas; 7 (b) "Energy services company" or "ESCO" shall mean an entity eligible to sell energy services to end-use customers using the transmission or 8 9 distribution system of a utility; (c) "Telecommunications services" shall mean land line telephone 10 11 services, including long distance land line telephone services; (d) "Telecommunications services company" or "TSCO" shall mean an 12 entity eligible to sell telecommunication services to end-use customers 13 14 using a land line telephone network, including wires, switches and/or 15 other telephone network services; 16 (e) "Services distribution company" or "SDCO" shall mean an ESCO 17 and/or a TSCO; 18 (f) "Customer" shall mean any person who is sold or offered an energy 19 services contract by an [ESCO] SDCO (i) for residential energy utility 20 or telecommunication service, or (ii) through telephone sales, or (iii) 21 through door-to-door sales; and 22 (q) "Telephone sales" shall mean the sale of energy or telecommunication services in which the SDCO or the SDCO's representative 23 personally solicits the sale, and the buyer's agreement or offer to 24 25 purchase is made over the telephone; provided that such term shall not 26 include any sale which is conducted in writing and consummated entirely 27 by mail, or in writing by other electronic means, or during a scheduled appointment at the premises of a buyer of nonresidential utility 28 service, or through solicitations of commercial accounts at trade or 29 30 business shows, conventions or expositions. (h) "Door-to-door sales" shall mean the sale of energy or telecommuni-31 32 cation services in which the [ESCO] SDCO or the [ESCO's] SDCO's repre-33 sentative personally solicits the sale, and the buyer's agreement or 34 offer to purchase is made at a place other than the place of business of 35 the seller; provided that such term shall not include any sale which is 36 conducted in writing and consummated entirely by mail, telephone or in 37 writing by other electronic means, or during a scheduled appointment at the premises of a buyer of nonresidential utility service, or through 38 solicitations of commercial accounts at trade or business shows, 39 40 conventions or expositions. 41 2. Any person who sells or offers for sale any energy services to a 42 customer for or on behalf of an [ESCO] SDCO shall (a) properly identify himself or herself and the [energy] services distribution company or 43 44 companies which he or she represents; (b) explain that he or she does 45 not represent a distribution utility; (c) explain the purpose of the 46 solicitation; (d) provide each prospective customer with a copy of the 47 "[ESCO] SDCO consumers bill of rights" developed by the public service commission, in consultation with the Long Island power authority, the 48 state consumer protection board and the department of law; and (e) 49 provide any written materials, including contracts and the "[ESCO] SDCO 50 51 consumers bill of rights", in the same language utilized to solicit the 52 prospective customer. 53 3. No person who sells or offers for sale any energy or telecommuni-54 cation services for, or on behalf of, an [ESCO] SDCO shall: 55 (a) engage in any deceptive acts or practices in the marketing of 56 energy or telecommunications services [+] ;

1	(b) be retained or compensated on a commission basis, or be provided
2	remuneration for the number of contracts for the provision of energy or
3	telecommunication services sold by such person; or
4	(c) complete a telephone sale for the provision of energy or telecom-
5	munication services, without first obtaining on behalf of the SDCO, a б	signed, written contract from the customer agreeing to such sale, and 7	acknowledging receipt of the SDCO consumers bill of rights required to
8	be provided pursuant to this section.
9	4. No contract for provision of energy services by an [ESCO] SDCO
10	shall require any customer prepayment for energy or telecommunication
11	services. However, an [ESCO] SDCO may offer a customer an option of 12	prepayment. Any contract providing for prepayment may be cancelled by
13	the customer, without any penalty or obligation, within ninety calendar
14	days. Any unused portion of the prepayment shall be returned to the 15	customer by the [ESCO] SDCO within thirty business days following
16	receipt of notice of cancellation.
17	5. No contract for provision of energy or telecommunication services
18	by an [ESCO] SDCO shall require the customer to pay any fee for termi-
19	nation or early cancellation of a contract in excess of either (a) one
20	hundred dollars for any contract with a remaining term of less than
21	twelve months; (b) two hundred dollars for any contract with a remaining
22	term of twelve months or more; or (c) twice the estimated bill for ener-
22	gy or telecommunication services for an average month. To charge a fee
23 24	based on the estimated bill for energy or telecommunications services
24 25	for an average month, an [ESCO] SDCO must have provided the customer, at 26	the time that the contract is offered, with an estimate of the average monthly bill that customer would be charged for energy or telecommuni-27 28
29	6. No material change shall be made in the terms or duration of any 30
31	contract for the provision of energy or telecommunication services by an [ESCO] SDCO without the express consent of the customer. This shall not 32 33
34 25	the customer in writing, not less than thirty days nor more than sixty
35	days prior to the renewal date, of the renewal terms and of his or her
36	option not to accept the renewal offer; provided, however, that no fee
37	pursuant to subdivision five of this section shall be charged to a
38	customer who objects to such renewal not later than three business days
39	after receiving the first billing statement from the [ESCO] SDCO under 40	the terms of the contract as renewed. The public service commission and
41	the Long Island power authority may adopt additional guidelines, prac-
42	tices, rules or regulations governing the renewal process.

1 10. The attorney general and/or the counsel for any city pursuant to article nine-A of the general city law, upon his or her own motion or 2 upon referral from the public service commission, the Long Island power 3 4 authority or the department of state, may bring a civil action against 5 any energy services company, any telecommunications services company, or б any sales agent and/or third party representative of any energy services 7 company or telecommunications services company that violates any 8 provision of this section and may recover (a) a civil penalty not to 9 exceed one thousand dollars per violation; and (b) costs and reasonable 10 attorney's fees. In any such proceeding the court may direct restitu-11 tion. 12 [10] 11. In addition to the right of action granted to the attorney 13 general and/or the counsel for any city pursuant to this section, any 14 person who has been injured by reason of any violation of this section 15 may bring an action in his or her own name to enjoin such unlawful act 16 or practice, an action to recover his or her actual damages or five hundred dollars, whichever is greater, or both such actions. The court 17 may, in its discretion, increase the award of damages to an amount not 18 to exceed three times the actual damages up to ten thousand dollars, 19 if 20 the court finds the defendant willfully or knowingly violated this 21 section. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees to a prevailing 22 plaintiff. [11] 12. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit any authori-23 24 ty of the public service commission or the Long Island power authority, which existed before the effective date of this section, to limit, 25 suspend or revoke the eligibility of an energy services company or tele-26 27 communications services company to sell or offer for sale any energy 28 services or telecommunications services for violation of any provision 29 of law, rule, regulation or policy enforceable by such commission or 30 authority. 31 [12] 13. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit any authori-32 ty of the public service commission or the Long Island power authority, 33 which existed before the effective date of this section, to adopt additional guidelines, practices, policies, rules or regulations relating to 34 35 the marketing practices of energy services companies or telecommuni-36 cations services companies to residential and commercial customers, 37 whether in person (including by telephone or by door to door), or by 38 mail[, telephone] or other electronic means, that are not inconsistent 39 with the provisions of this section.

40 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
