AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the New York state career development and occupational studies commencement credential

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 4401-b 2 to read as follows:

3 § 4401-b. High school exiting credentials. 1. Notwithstanding any 4 provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the New York state
5 career development and occupational studies commencement credential
6 shall be considered a diploma and be renamed as such and shall be issued 7 at the same time the student receives his or her local or regents diplo-8 ma or any time after such student has attended school for at least 9 twelve years, excluding kindergarten, or has received a substantially 10 equivalent education elsewhere, or at the end of the school year in 11 which a student attains the age of twenty-one.

12 2. A school district that awards the New York state career development 13 and occupational studies commencement diploma to more than twenty 14 percent of the students with disabilities in the cohort, where such 15 diploma is not a supplement to a local or regents diploma, shall be 16 required to use a portion of its Part B individuals with disabilities 17 education act grant funds for targeted activities as deemed necessary by 18 the department to ensure that students with disabilities have appropri-19 ate access to participate and progress in the general education curric-20 ulum necessary to earn a local or regents diploma.

21 3. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations ensuring 22 that all students are provided with the appropriate access to earn a 23 local or regents diploma, including providing students with meaningful 24 access to participate and progress in the general curriculum to assist 25 in meeting the state's learning standards.

26 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately, and shall be deemed to 27 have been in full force and effect on and after July 1, 2013.
