36 interest in the animal or in the proceeds from the sale of such animal.

37 c. In no event shall the security prevent the impounding organization 38 having custody and care of the animal from disposing of the animal 39 pursuant to section three hundred seventy-four of this article prior to 40 the expiration of the thirty day period covered by the security if the 41 court makes a determination of the charges against the person from whom 42 the animal was seized prior thereto. Upon receipt of a petition from the 48 The person who posted the security shall be entitled to a refund of the 49 security in whole or part for any expenses not incurred by such impound-

50 ing organization upon adjudication of the charges. The person who posted 51 the security shall be entitled to a full refund of the security, includ-
52 ing reimbursement by the impounding organization of any amount allowed 53 by the court to be expended, and the return of the animal seized and 54 impounded upon acquittal or dismissal of the charges, except where the 55 dismissal is based upon an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal
56 pursuant to section 215.30 of the criminal procedure law. The court

1 order directing such refund and reimbursement shall provide for payment 2 to be made within a reasonable time from the acquittal or dismissal of 3 charges.

56 research, experimentation or testing. No authorized agent of a duly

1 incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, nor of a 2 duly incorporated humane society, shall use any animal placed in its 3 custody by the duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty 4 to animals or duly incorporated humane society for the purpose of 7 district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of 8 cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society in charge of 9 animals forfeited pursuant to subdivision one or two of this section 10 may, in its discretion, lawfully and without liability, adopt them to 11 individuals other than the convicted person or person charged with an 12 animal cruelty offense for conspiring, aiding or abetting in the unlaw-13 ful act which was the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an 14 accomplice if such charge has not yet been adjudicated, or humanely 15 dispose of them subject to section three hundred seventy-four of this 16 article.

17 6. (a) Prior to an order of forfeiture of farm animals, a hearing

20 basis of the conviction. Written notice shall be served at least five 21 days prior to the hearing upon all interested persons. In addition, 22 notice shall be made by publication in a local newspaper at least seven 23 days prior to the hearing. For the purposes of this subdivision, inter-

25 company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity
26 who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in the farm 27 animals which are the subject of the forfeiture action.

28 (b) All interested persons shall be provided an opportunity at the 29 hearing to redeem their interest as determined by the court in the 30 subject farm animals and to purchase the interest of the convicted 31 person. The convicted person shall be entitled to be reimbursed his or 32 her interest in the farm animals, less any costs, fines or penalties 33 imposed by the court, as specified under subdivision two of this 34 section. In no case shall the court award custody or control of the 35 animals to any interested person who conspired, aided or abetted in the 36 unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or who knew or
