AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to prohibiting deceptive acts and practices for substance use disorder treatment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The mental hygiene law is amended by adding a new section 32.06 to read as follows:

§ 32.06 Prohibition on deceptive acts and practices.

(a) Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Addiction professional" shall mean a professional who, within the scope of their license issued pursuant to title eight of the education law or credential issued pursuant to section 19.07 of this chapter, if working in an individual capacity, provides substance abuse and prevention services.

(2) "Credentialed professional" shall include any person who is in the process of applying for a credential issued by the commissioner pursuant to section 19.07 of this chapter, or who has a valid credential, or who is eligible for credential renewal;

(3) "Health care provider" shall mean a practitioner in an individual practice, group practice, partnership, professional corporation or other authorized form of association, a hospital or other health care institution issued an operating certificate pursuant to article twenty-eight of the public health law or article thirty-one of this title or this article, and any other purveyor of health or health related items or services.

(4) "Potential service recipient" shall mean a person who is a substance abuser, substance dependent, in need of services to avoid becoming a substance abuser, or substance dependent.

(5) "Substance abuse program" shall mean any public or private person, corporation, partnership, agency, either profit or non-profit, or state or municipal government which provides, or holds itself out as providing, substance abuse services, in either a residential or ambulatory setting, to persons who are substance abusers, substance dependent, in need of services to avoid becoming substance abusers, substance dependent or to significant others.

(6) "Substance abuse services" shall include services to inhibit the onset of substance abuse or substance dependence; to address the social dysfunction, medical problems and other disabilities associated with substance abuse or substance dependence, and to rehabilitate persons suffering from substance abuse or dependence.

(b) It is unlawful for any person, including any individual, addiction professional, credentialed professional, health care provider, health care facility or substance abuse program to:

(1) Promote, offer, give, solicit or pay any commission, bonus, rebate, kickback, or bribe, directly or indirectly, in cash or in kind, or engage in any split-fee arrangement, to induce the referral of a potential service recipient or in connection with the performance of a substance abuse service;

(2) Solicit, agree to receive or receive any commission, bonus, rebate, kickback, or bribe, directly or indirectly, in cash or in kind, or engage in any split-fee arrangement, in any form whatsoever, in return for referring a potential service recipient or in connection with the performance of a substance abuse service; or

(3) Aid, abet, advise, or otherwise participate in the conduct prohibited under paragraph one or two of this subdivision.

(c) This section shall not apply to:

(1) Any discount, payment, waiver of payment, or payment practice not prohibited by 42 U.S.C. § 1320a-7b(b) or regulations promulgated thereunder.

(2) Payments to an addiction professional, health care provider, health care facility or substance abuse program for professional consultation services.

(3) Commissions, fees, or other remuneration lawfully paid to insurance agents as provided under the insurance law.

(4) Payments by a health insurer who reimburses, provides, offers to provide, or administers health, mental health, or substance abuse services under a health benefit plan.

(5) Payments to or by an addiction professional, health care provider, health care facility, a health care provider network entity, or a substance abuse program, that has contracted with a health insurer, a health care purchasing group, or the Medicare or Medicaid program to provide health, mental health, or substance abuse services under a health benefit plan when such payments are for services under the plan.

(6) Payments by an addiction professional, health care provider, health care facility or substance abuse program to a health, mental health, or substance abuse information service that provides information upon request and without charge to consumers about providers of

1 substance abuse services to enable consumers to select appropriate
2 substance abuse programs, provided that such information service:

3 i. Does not attempt through its standard questions for solicitation of 4 consumer criteria or through any other means to steer or lead a consumer
5 to select or consider selection of a particular addiction professional,
6 substance abuse services or substance abuse program;

7 ii. Does not provide or represent itself as providing diagnostic or 8 counseling services or assessments of an individual's need for substance
9 abuse services and does not make any promises of cure or guarantees of 10 treatment;

11 iii. Does not provide or arrange for transportation of a consumer to 12 or from the location of a substance abuse service or program; and

13 iv. Charges and collects fees from an addiction professional, health
14 care provider, health care facility or substance abuse program partic-
15 ipating in its services that are set in advance, are consistent with the 16 fair market value for those information services, and are not based on 17 the potential value of a potential service recipient or recipients to a 18 substance abuse program or of the goods or services provided by the 19 substance abuse program.

20 (d) Any individual, including an officer, partner, agent, attorney, or 21 other representative of a partnership, association, corporation, limited
22 liability company or partnership, public or private agency or any part
23 thereof who knowingly fails to comply with the provisions of this
24 section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor as defined in the penal law.

25 (e) If the commissioner has reason to believe that there is an indi-
26 vidual, partnership, association, corporation, limited liability company
27 or partnership, public or private agency or any part thereof violating 28 subdivision (b) of this section, he or she shall proceed pursuant to 29 applicable sections of this chapter including but not limited to 30 sections 32.13, 32.15, 32.19 and 32.27 of this article.

31 (f) The party bringing an action under this section may recover
32 reasonable expenses in obtaining injunctive relief, including, but not 33 limited to, investigative costs, court costs, reasonable attorney's
34 fees, witness costs, and deposition expenses.

35 (g) The provisions of this section are in addition to any other civil,
36 administrative, or criminal actions provided by law and may be imposed
37 against both corporate and individual defendants.

38 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
