Introduced by Sen. TEDISCO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to authorizing the delivery of liquefied petroleum gas in times of emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 192-e of the agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new subdivision 6-a to read as follows:

6-a. Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, a person, firm, limited liability company or corporation who is not the owner of a liquefied petroleum gas cylinder, container or receptacle may fill, refill or otherwise deliver liquefied petroleum gas into such liquefied petroleum gas cylinder, container or receptacle, provided, such cylinder, container or receptacle and devices and associated pipelines operating off of such cylinder, container, or receptacle has been inspected and certified as required by law or regulation, when:

a. a federal, state or local state of emergency has been declared; or
b. extreme temperatures or other natural or man-made occurrence places individuals in imminent danger of death or injury due to exposure to such extreme temperatures or occurrence without the delivery of such liquefied petroleum gas.

Any person, firm, limited liability company or corporation who fills, refills or otherwise delivers liquefied petroleum gas pursuant to this subdivision shall not charge any emergency filling, refilling or delivery fees in addition to any standard filling, refilling or delivery fee.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
