1     § 1250. Program established. There is hereby established a first home 2 savings program and such program shall be known and may be cited as the 3 "New York state first home savings program".

4     § 1251. Purposes. The purposes of the program shall be to authorize 5 the establishment of first home savings accounts and to provide guide-6 lines for the maintenance of such accounts to:

7         1. enable residents of this state to benefit from the tax incentive
8 provided for qualified state first home savings accounts under section 9 six hundred twelve of the tax law; and

10        2. incentivize residents to save for the purchase of a first home
11 within the state.

12     § 1252. Definitions. As used in this article, the following terms
13 shall have the following meanings:

14         1. "Account" or "first home savings account" shall mean an individual 15 savings account established in accordance with the provisions of this 16 article for the exclusive benefit of the account owner or designated 17 beneficiary that is the first time buyer of a home, townhome, condomin-
18 ium or unit in a cooperative housing corporation.

19         2. "Account owner" shall mean a taxpayer who enters into a first home 20 savings agreement pursuant to the provisions of this article, including 21 a person who enters into such an agreement as a fiduciary or agent on 22 behalf of a trust, estate, partnership, association, company or corpo-23 ration.

24         3. "Designated beneficiary" shall mean, with respect to an account or 25 accounts, the designated individual or individuals whose first home
26 purchase expenses are expected to be paid from the account or accounts.

27         4. "Financial organization" shall mean an organization authorized to 28 do business in the state, and (a) which is an authorized fiduciary to 29 act as a trustee pursuant to the provisions of an act of congress enti-
30 tled "Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974", as such 31 provisions may be amended from time to time, or an insurance company; 32 and (b)(i) is licensed or chartered by the department of financial 33 services, (ii) is chartered by an agency of the federal government,
34 (iii) is subject to the jurisdiction and regulation of the securities
35 and exchange commission of the federal government, (iv) is any other 36 entity otherwise authorized to act in this state as a trustee pursuant 37 to the provisions of an act of congress entitled "Employee Retirement 38 Income Security Act of 1974", as such provisions may be amended from 39 time to time, (v) or any banking organization as defined in subdivision

47 investment residences, including residences owned in the United States
48 or abroad, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. If either 49 the individual or individuals are not first time home buyers, neither 50 the individual or individuals shall be considered a first time home
51 buyer. If an individual's only potentially disqualifying present owner-
52 ship interest is ownership of a mobile or manufactured home, the indi-
53 vidual shall be considered a first time home buyer and shall be eligible
54 for a first home account deduction. For the purposes of this article a 55 "mobile or manufactured home" shall mean a structure that is valued as 56 personal property and not real property. If, due to his or her ownership

1 of a mobile or manufactured home, the individual has claimed a real
2 estate tax or home mortgage deduction on his or her personal income tax
3 returns, such individual shall not be considered a first time home buyer
4 regardless of whether the mobile or manufactured home was considered
5 personal or real property.

6 6. "Ownership interest" shall mean a fee simple interest, a joint 7 tenancy, a tenancy in common, a tenancy by the entirety, the interest of 9 contract. Interests which do not constitute ownership interests include 10 the following: (a) remainder interests, (b) a lease with or without an 11 option to purchase, (c) a mere expectancy to inherit an interest in a 12 residence, (d) the interest that a purchaser of a residence acquires on 13 the execution of a purchase contract and (e) an interest in real estate

17 8. "Qualified first home purchase expenses" shall mean monies applied 18 for the purchase or construction of a house, townhouse, condominium or 19 unit in a cooperative housing corporation within the state to be used as 20 a primary residence of the account owner or designated beneficiary for a 21 period of not less than two years after purchase.

22 9. "Qualified residential housing" shall mean a house, townhouse, 23 condominium or unit in a cooperative housing corporation within the 24 state.

25 10. "Qualified withdrawal" shall mean a withdrawal from an account to 26 pay the qualified first home purchase expense of the account owner or 27 designated beneficiary of the account.

28 11. "Nonqualified withdrawal" shall mean a withdrawal from an account
29 but shall not include:

30 (a) a qualified withdrawal;

31 (b) a withdrawal made as the result of death;

32 (c) an unforeseeable emergency; or

33 (d) need based upon qualifying for military service in the armed forc-
34 es of the United States as determined by rules and regulations promulgat-35 ed by the comptroller.

41 comptroller or a financial organization and the account owner.

42 15. "Program manager" shall mean a financial organization selected by 43 the comptroller to act as a depository and manager of the program.

44 16. "Commissioner" shall mean the commissioner of taxation and 45 finance.

46 § 1253. Functions of the comptroller. 1. The comptroller shall imple-47 ment the program under the terms and conditions established by this 48 article and a memorandum of understanding with the commissioner relating 49 to any terms or conditions not otherwise expressly provided for in this 50 article.

51 2. In furtherance of such implementation the comptroller shall:

52 (a) develop and implement the program in a manner consistent with the 53 provisions of this article through rules and regulations established in 54 accordance with the state administrative procedure act;

55 (b) engage the services of consultants on a contract basis for render-56 ing professional and technical assistance and advice;

4 program to obtain the state income tax benefits or treatment provided by 5 this article;

6 (e) charge, impose and collect administrative fees and service charges 7 in connection with any agreement, contract or transaction relating to 8 the program;

9 (f) develop marketing plans and promotion materials;

10 (g) establish the methods by which the funds held in such accounts be

12 (h) establish the method by which funds shall be allocated to pay for 13 administrative costs; and

14 (i) do all things necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of 15 this article.

16 § 1254. Powers of the comptroller. 1. The comptroller may implement
17 the program through use of financial organizations as account deposito-
18 ries and managers. Under the program, an account owner may establish 19 accounts directly with an account depository.

20 2. The comptroller may solicit proposals from financial organizations
21 to act as depositories and managers of the program. Financial organiza-
22 tions submitting proposals shall describe the investment instrument
23 which will be held in accounts. The comptroller shall select as program 24 depositories and managers the financial organization, from among the 25 bidding financial organizations that demonstrates the most advantageous 26 combination, both to potential program participants and this state, of 27 the following factors:

28 (a) financial stability and integrity of the financial organization;

29 (b) the safety of the investment instrument being offered;

30 (c) the ability of the investment instrument to track increasing costs
31 of residential housing;

32 (d) the ability of the financial organization to satisfy recordkeeping
33 and reporting requirements;

34 (e) the financial organization's plan for promoting the program and 35 the investment it is willing to make to promote the program;

36 (f) the fees, if any, proposed to be charged to persons for opening 37 accounts;

38 (g) the minimum initial deposit and minimum contributions that the 39 financial organization will require;

40 (h) the ability of banking organizations to accept electronic with-41 drawals, including payroll deduction plans; and

42 (i) other benefits to the state or its residents included in the 43 proposal, including fees payable to the state to cover expenses of oper-44 ation of the program.

45 3. The comptroller may enter into a contract with a financial organ-
46 ization. Such financial organization management may provide one or more 47 types of investment instrument.

48 4. The comptroller may select more than one financial organization for 49 the program.

50 5. A management contract shall include, at a minimum, terms requiring 51 the financial organization to:

52 (a) take any action required to keep the program in compliance with 53 requirements of section twelve hundred fifty-five of this article and 54 any actions not contrary to its contract to manage the program to quali-55 fy as a "first home savings account" under paragraph forty-two of 56 subsection (c) of section six hundred twelve of the tax law;

1 (b) keep adequate records of each account, keep each account segre-
2 gated from each other account, and provide the comptroller with the 3 information necessary to prepare the statements required by section
4 twelve hundred fifty-five of this article;

5 (c) compile and total information contained in statements required to 6 be prepared under section twelve hundred fifty-five of this article and 7 provide such compilations to the comptroller;

8 (d) if there is more than one program manager, provide the comptroller
9 with such information necessary to determine compliance with section
10 twelve hundred fifty-five of this article;

11 (e) provide the comptroller or his designee access to the books and 12 records of the program manager to the extent needed to determine compli-13 ance with the contract;

14 (f) hold all accounts for the benefit of the account owner;

15 (g) be audited at least annually by a firm of certified public 16 accountants selected by the program manager and that the results of such 17 audit be provided to the comptroller;

18 (h) provide the comptroller with copies of all regulatory filings and 19 reports made by it during the term of the management contract or while 20 it is holding any accounts, other than confidential filings or reports
21 that will not become part of the program. The program manager shall make 22 available for review by the comptroller the results of any periodic 23 examination of such manager by any state or federal banking, insurance 24 or securities commission, except to the extent that such report or 25 reports may not be disclosed under applicable law or the rules of such 26 commission; and

27 (i) ensure that any description of the program, whether in writing or 28 through the use of any media, is consistent with the marketing plan as 29 developed pursuant to the provisions of section twelve hundred fifty-30 three of this article.

31 6. The comptroller may provide that an audit shall be conducted of the 32 operations and financial position of the program depository and manager 33 at any time if the comptroller has any reason to be concerned about the 34 financial position, the recordkeeping practices, or the status of 35 accounts of such program depository and manager.

36 7. During the term of any contract with a program manager, the comp-37 troller shall conduct an examination of such manager and its handling of 38 accounts. Such examination shall be conducted at least biennially if 39 such manager is not otherwise subject to periodic examination by the 40 superintendent of financial services, the federal deposit insurance
41 corporation or other similar entity.

42 8. (a) If selection of a financial organization as a program manager
43 or depository is not renewed, after the end of its term:

44 (i) accounts previously established and held in investment instruments
45 at such financial organization may be terminated;

46 (ii) additional contributions may be made to such accounts;

47 (iii) no new accounts may be placed with such financial organization; 48 and

49 (iv) existing accounts held by such depository shall remain subject to 50 all oversight and reporting requirements established by the comptroller.

51 (b) If the comptroller terminates a financial organization as a
52 program manager or depository, he or she shall take custody of accounts
53 held by such financial organization and shall seek to promptly transfer 54 such accounts to another financial organization that is selected as a 55 program manager or depository and into investment instruments as similar 56 to the original instruments as possible.

1     9. The comptroller may enter into such contracts as it deems necessary
2 and proper for the implementation of the program.

3     § 1255. Program requirements; first home savings account. 1. First 4 home savings accounts established pursuant to the provisions of this 5 article shall be governed by the provisions of this section.

6     2. A first home savings account may be opened by any person who 7 desires to save money for the payment of the qualified first home
8 purchase expenses of the account owner or designated beneficiary. An 9 account owner may designate another person as successor owner of the 10 account in the event of the death of the original account owner. Such 11 person who opens an account or any successor owner shall be considered
12 the account owner.

13     (a) An application for such account shall be in the form prescribed by 14 the program and contain the following:

15     (i) the name, address and social security number or employer identifi-16 cation number of the account owner;

17     (ii) the designation of a designated beneficiary;

18     (iii) the name, address, and social security number of the designated 19 beneficiary; and

20     (iv) such other information as the program may require.

21     (b) The comptroller and the corporation may establish a nominal fee 22 for such application.

23     3. Any person, including the account owner, may make contributions to 24 the account after the account is opened.

25     4. Contributions to accounts may be made only in cash.

26     5. An account owner may withdraw all or part of the balance from an 27 account as authorized under rules governing the program. Such rules 28 shall include provisions that will generally enable the determination as 29 to whether a withdrawal is a nonqualified withdrawal or a qualified 30 withdrawal.

31     6. (a) An account owner may change the designated beneficiary of an 32 account in accordance with procedures established by the memorandum of 33 understating pursuant to the provisions of section twelve hundred 34 fifty-three of this article.

35     (b) An account owner may transfer all or a portion of an account to 36 another first home savings account.

37     (c) Changes in designated beneficiaries and transfers under this 38 subdivision shall not be permitted to the extent that they would cause 39 all accounts for the same beneficiary to exceed the permitted aggregate 40 maximum account balance.

41     7. The program shall provide separate accounting for each designated 42 beneficiary.

43     8. No account owner or designated beneficiary of any account shall be 44 permitted to direct the investment of any contributions to an account or 45 the earnings thereon more than two times in any calendar year.

46     9. Neither an account owner nor a designated beneficiary may use an 47 interest in an account as security for a loan. Any pledge of an interest 48 in an account shall be of no force and effect.

49     10. The comptroller shall promulgate rules or regulations to prevent 50 contributions on behalf of a designated beneficiary in excess of an 51 amount that would cause the aggregate account balance for all accounts 52 for a designated beneficiary to exceed a maximum account balance, as 53 established from time to time by the comptroller.

54     11. Contributions to a first home savings account shall be limited to 55 one hundred thousand dollars per account. This amount shall not take

1 into consideration any gain or loss to the principal investment into the 2 account.

3 12. In the event that an individual makes a "nonqualified withdrawal"
4 of monies from the first home savings account such individual shall have 5 the entire account taxed, including any interest, as though it was 6 income at the account owner's federal tax rate in the tax years the 7 monies were withdrawn, and incur an additional ten percent state penalty
8 on the amount of earnings. In the event account owners or designated 9 beneficiary does not use the qualified residential housing as a primary 10 residence for a period of not less than two years after the purchase of 11 such housing, the account owner shall have the entire account taxed,
12 including any interest, as though it was ordinary income at the account 13 owner's federal tax rate in the tax years the monies were withdrawn and 14 incur an additional ten percent state penalty on the amount of earnings.
15 For purposes of this article, the two year period shall begin at the 16 time title is transferred to the first time home buyer. The penalty 17 shall be in addition to any taxes due pursuant to a non-qualified with-18 drawal from a first home savings account.

19 13. Penalties may be waived by the commissioner if the individual can 20 show proof that the reason the individual did not use the qualified 21 residential housing as a primary residence for a period of two years or 22 more after the purchase or construction was due to either:

23 (a) an employment relocation outside the state and such relocation
24 required the individual to become a resident of another state;

25 (b) an unforeseeable emergency;

26 (c) an absence due to qualifying military service; or 27 (d) death.

28 For purposes of this subdivision, an "unforeseeable emergency" shall 29 mean a severe financial hardship resulting from illness, accident or 30 property loss to the account owner, or his or her dependents resulting 31 in circumstances beyond their control. The circumstances that constitute 32 an unforeseeable financial emergency will depend on the facts of each 33 case, however, withdrawal of account funds may not be made, without 34 penalty, to the extent that such hardship is or may be relieved by 35 either:

36 (i) reimbursement or compensation by insurance or otherwise; or

37 (ii) liquidation of the individual's assets to the extent the liqui-
38 dation of such assets would not itself cause severe financial hardship.

39 14. The commissioner and the comptroller are directed to promulgate
40 all rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this 41 subsection and are hereby directed to establish, supervise and regulate 42 first home savings accounts authorized to be created by this section.

43 15. (a) If there is any distribution from a first home savings account
44 to any individual or for the benefit of any individual during a calendar
45 year, such distribution shall be reported to the Internal Revenue
46 Service and the account owner, the designated beneficiary, or the 47 distributee to the extent required by federal law or regulation.

48 (b) Statements shall be provided to each account owner at least once 49 each year within sixty days after the end of the twelve month period to 50 which they relate. The statement shall identify the contributions made 51 during a preceding twelve month period, the total contributions made to 52 the account through the end of the period, the value of the account at 53 the end of such period, distributions made during such period and any 54 other information that the comptroller shall require to be reported to
55 the account owner.

(c) Statements and information relating to accounts shall be prepared and filed to the extent required by federal and state tax laws.

16. An annual fee may be imposed upon the account owner for the maintenance of the account.

17. The program shall disclose the following information in writing to each account owner of a first home savings account:

(a) the terms and conditions for establishing a first home savings account;

(b) any restrictions on the substitution of beneficiaries;

(c) the person or entity entitled to terminate the first home savings agreement;

(d) the period of time during which a beneficiary may receive benefits under the first home savings agreement;

(e) the terms and conditions under which money may be wholly or partially withdrawn from the program, including, but not limited to, any reasonable charges and fees that may be imposed for withdrawal;

(f) the probable tax consequences associated with contributions to and distributions from accounts; and

(g) all other rights and obligations pursuant to first home savings agreements, and any other terms, conditions, and provisions deemed necessary and appropriate by the terms of the memorandum of understanding entered into pursuant to section twelve hundred fifty-three of this article.

18. First home savings agreements shall be subject to section fourteen-c of the banking law and the "truth-in-savings" regulations promulgated thereunder.

19. Nothing in this article or in any first home savings agreement entered into pursuant to this article shall be construed as a guarantee by the state that the account owner or designated beneficiary will qualify for the purchase of a home.

20. To establish that an account owner or designated beneficiary is a first time home buyer, the individual shall complete a form promulgated by the comptroller certifying, under the penalties of perjury, that such individual is a first time home buyer.

21. An individual must not intend to use any portion of the real property purchased using the first home savings account funds in a trade or business, or as a vacation home or as an investment, except as an owner occupied multiple dwelling with no more than two rental units.

22. Monies withdrawn from first home savings accounts and any interest which has accrued shall not be considered as taxable income to the account owner for state personal income taxation purposes, so long as the monies are applied for the purchase or construction of a qualified first home purchase by the account owner or designated beneficiary of the account.

§ 1256. Program limitations; first home savings account. 1. Nothing in this article shall be construed to:

(a) give any designated beneficiary any rights or legal interest with respect to an account unless the designated beneficiary is the account owner;

(b) guarantee that the account owner or designated beneficiary will be financially qualified to purchase a home;

(c) create state residency for an individual merely because the individual is a designated beneficiary; or

(d) guarantee that amounts saved pursuant to the program will be sufficient to cover the down payment or closing costs pursuant to the purchase of a qualified first home.

2. (a) Nothing in this article shall create or be construed to create any obligation of the comptroller, the state, or any agency or instrumentality of the state to guarantee for the benefit of the account owner or designated beneficiary with respect to:

(i) the rate of interest or other return on any account; and

(ii) the payment of interest or other return on any account.

(b) The comptroller by rule or regulation shall provide that every contract, application, deposit slip or other similar document that may be used in connection with a contribution to an account clearly indicate that the account is not insured by the state and neither the principal deposited nor the investment return is guaranteed by the state.

§ 2. Subsection (b) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding a new paragraph 42 to read as follows:

(42) (A) Excess distributions received during the taxable year by a distributee of a first home savings account established under the New York state first home savings program provided for under article twenty-eight of the private housing finance law, to the extent such excess distributions are deemed attributable to the deductible contributions under paragraph forty-two of subsection (c) of this section.

(B) (i) The term "excess distributions" means distributions which are not:

(I) qualified withdrawals within the meaning of subdivision ten of section twelve hundred fifty-two of the private housing finance law;

(II) withdrawals made as a result of the death or disability of the designated beneficiary within the meaning of subdivision eleven of section twelve hundred fifty-two of such law; or

(III) transfers described in paragraph (b) of subdivision six of section twelve hundred fifty-five of such law.

(ii) Excess distributions shall be deemed attributable to deductible contributions to the extent the amount of any such excess distribution, when added to all previous excess distributions from the account, exceeds the aggregate of all nondeductible contributions to the account.

§ 3. Subsection (c) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding two new paragraphs 42 and 43 to read as follows:

(42) Contributions made during the taxable year by an account owner to a first home savings account established under the New York state first home savings program provided for under article twenty-eight of the private housing finance law, to the extent not deductible or eligible for credit for federal income tax purposes, provided, however, the exclusion provided for in this paragraph shall not exceed five thousand dollars for an individual or head of household, and for married couples who file joint tax returns, shall not exceed ten thousand dollars; provided, further that such exclusion shall be available only to the account owner and not to any other person.

(43) Distributions from a first home savings account established under the New York state first home savings program provided for under article twenty-eight of the private housing finance law, to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes.

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law, and shall apply to taxable years commencing on or after the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become law; provided, however, that effective immediately, the commissioner of taxation and finance and the comptroller are authorized and directed to promulgate any rules or regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this act on its effective date on or before such date.
