IN SENATE

June 1, 2017

Introduced by Sen. LITTLE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the private housing finance law, in relation to the assets and supervision of housing development fund corporations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The private housing finance law is amended by adding a new 1 2 section 573-a to read as follows: 3 § 573-a. Assets and supervision of housing development fund corpo-4 rations. 1. Except as may be specifically authorized in writing by the commissioner or the supervising agency, as the case may be, (a) a hous-5 ing development fund corporation shall not cause or permit any vacant б 7 dwelling unit to be leased to, or occupied by, anyone other than fami-8 lies and persons of low income, (b) a housing development fund corpo-9 ration organized pursuant to the not-for-profit corporation law shall 10 not cause or permit any dwelling unit to be leased or occupied at a rent that is not affordable to families and persons of low income, as deter-11 12 mined in accordance with standards established by the commissioner or 13 the supervising agency, as the case may be and (c) a housing development 14 fund corporation organized pursuant to the business corporation law 15 shall not cause or permit the sale, transfer, assignment or issuance of any shares allocated to any dwelling unit to anyone other than families 16 and persons of low income, or cause or permit the sale, transfer, 17 assignment or issuance of any shares allocated to any dwelling unit for 18 19 a price that is not affordable to families and persons of low income, as 20 determined in accordance with standards established by the commissioner 21 or the supervising agency. Where the ownership of shares allocated to any dwelling unit is transferred by operation of law, without the 22 consent of the housing development fund corporation, to parties who are 23 24 not families and persons of low income, the corporation shall not cause or permit the occupancy of the dwelling unit to which such shares are 1 allocated until the shares have been sold or otherwise transferred to a 2 3 family or person of low income that will occupy such dwelling unit; 4 provided, however, that the corporation shall not be required to remove 5 any member of the prior shareholder's household who has continuously б occupied the dwelling unit to which such shares are allocated as his or 7 her sole residence for a period commencing not less than two years prior 8 to the event which resulted in such transfer, even if the actual trans-9 fer occurred at a later date. 2. A housing development fund corporation shall not sell, transfer or 10 11 assign all or substantially all of its assets, or any of its real property, without the prior written approval of the commissioner or the 12 13 supervising agency. A housing development fund corporation shall either 14 deposit the proceeds if any such sale, transfer or assignment with the 15 commissioner or the supervising agency, or devote such proceeds to a 16 housing project for families and persons of low income, or for related affordable housing activities, in a manner approved in writing by the 17 18 commissioner or the supervising agency. 19 3. A housing development fund corporation shall not lease any of its 20 real property, other than a lease of a single dwelling unit or a commer-21 cial unit for a term not exceeding two years, without the prior written approval of the commissioner or the supervising agency. 22 4. The certificate of incorporation of a housing development fund 23 corporation shall not be altered or amended, and the corporation shall 24 25 not be dissolved, without (a) the prior written approval of the commis-26 sioner or the supervising agency and (b) the prior written approval of 27 any governmental entity which holds a mortgage or other lien on any assets of the corporation or to which any indebtedness of the corpo-28 29 ration is outstanding. 30 5. Violations by a housing development fund corporation. (a) If the 31 commissioner or the supervising agency determines that the housing 32 development fund corporation has violated any of the provisions of this 33 article or its certificate of incorporation or has violated or failed to fulfill any agreement with or obligation to a governmental entity, the 34 35 commissioner or the supervising agency may (i) appoint to the board of directors of the corporation a number of new directors sufficient to 36 constitute a majority of such board, notwithstanding any other provision 37 38 of the certificate, the by-laws of the corporation or any agreement entered into by the corporation, (ii) revoke or suspend all or part of 39 any exemption from local real property taxation pursuant to section five 40 hundred seventy-seven of this article or (iii) exercise any other reme-41 42 dies available under applicable law or pursuant to any agreement with 43 the corporation. (b) Unless the commissioner or the supervising agency determines that 44 45 a cure of any such violation or failure is impossible, prior to exercis-46 ing any of the powers provided in subdivision (a) of this section, the commissioner or the supervising agency shall either (i) provide the 47 corporation with thirty days notice and opportunity to cure such 48 49 violation, (ii) provide the corporation with such notice and opportunity to cure such violation as may be provided in any agreement between a 50 51 governmental entity and the corporation or (iii) only with respect to 52 the revocation of a tax exemption pursuant to section five hundred 53 seventy-seven of this article, provide the corporation with such notice 54 and opportunity to cure such violation as may be provided in a resolution of the local legislative body. 55
