All political committees that make an expenditure for a political communication shall be required to disclose the identity of the political committee which made the expenditure for such political communication. The disclosure on printed or digital political communications, including but not limited to brochures, flyers, posters, mailings, or internet advertising shall be printed or typed in an appropriate legible form to read as follows: "Paid for by: " followed by the name of the political committee making the expenditure. The disclosure on non-printed or digital political communications shall clearly and prominently display and/or speak the following statement: "Paid for by: " followed by the name of the political committee making the expenditure. In the case of a political communication that is not visual, such as radio or automated telephone calls, clearly speaking the statement will satisfy the requirements of this section.

- 3. Political communications that are considered promotional items which support a particular candidate, election, ballot measure or issue and limit the content of communication to the name, office and brief message of support, shall be exempt from the provisions of subdivision two of this section. Promotional items shall be items that are of nominal value and are distributed to the general public in an effort to promote a particular candidate, election, ballot measure or issue including but not limited to pens, bumper stickers, yard signs, buttons, shirts, bags or balloons.
- 4. Political communication that is considered digital media which advertises for a particular candidate, election, ballot measure or issue which limits the content of communication to the name, office and brief message shall not be subject to the provisions of subdivision two of this section if such digital media is unable to contain the "paid for by" statement due to its small size and contains a link to another webpage where the "paid for by" statement is prominently displayed.
- 2. Subdivision 2 of section 14-107 of the election law, as amended by section 2 of part A of chapter 286 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:
- 2. Whenever any person makes an independent expenditure that costs one thousand dollars or more in the aggregate, such communication shall, in a manner consistent with section 14-106 of this article, clearly state the name of the person who paid for, or otherwise published or distributed the communication and state, with respect to communications regarding candidates, that the communication was not expressly authorized or requested by any candidate, or by any candidate's political committee or any of its agents.
- § 3. Subdivision 3 of section 14-126 of the election law, as added by section 6 of subpart C of part H of chapter 55 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:
- 3. Any person who falsely identifies or knowingly fails to identify any independent expenditure as required by subdivision two of section 14-107 of this article or any political committee as required in section 14-106 of this article shall be subject to a civil penalty up to one thousand dollars or up to the cost of the communication, whichever is greater, in a special proceeding or civil action [brought by the state board of elections chief enforcement counsel or imposed directly by the state board of elections]. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "person" shall mean a person, group of persons, corporation, unincorpo-54 rated business entity, labor organization or business, trade or professional association or organization or political committee.

S. 6896

1  $\S$  4. The state board of elections shall promulgate all rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this act on or before 3 its effective date.

4 § 5. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-5 ing the date upon which it shall have become a law.
