AN ACT to amend the New York city charter, the mental hygiene law and the public health law in relation to access to medical and psychiatric records of deceased inmates by the board of correction of the city of New York

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 2 of subdivision c of section 626 of the New York
2 city charter, as amended by a vote of the people of the city of New York
3 at the general election held in November of 1975, is amended to read as 4 follows:

5 2. (i) The inspection of all books, records, documents, and papers of 6 the department; and

7 (ii) The inspection of medical or psychiatric records of any health 8 care provider that treated an inmate when the board has requested such 9 information with respect to the death of such person, provided:

10 (A) records from a federally assisted alcohol or drug abuse program
11 may be disclosed only to the extent permitted by applicable federal law;

12 (B) with respect to records subject to section 33.13 of the mental 13 hygiene law, any limitation on the release thereof imposed by law upon 14 the party furnishing the information, books, records or data shall apply 15 to the board; and

16 (C) any confidential HIV-related information shall only be made avail-17 able to and received and retained by the board to the extent relevant 18 and necessary to accomplish the mandates of the board, and shall be made 19 available in a manner consistent with regulations issued by the state 20 commission on correction to govern the receipt, use, retention and 21 redisclosure of such information by the state commission. The board 22 shall promulgate regulations establishing criteria for determining which
