§ 17. Section 240.25 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 109 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

§ 240.25 Harassment in the first degree.

A person is guilty of harassment in the first degree when he or she intentionally and repeatedly harasses another person by following such person in or about a public place or places or by engaging in a course of conduct or by repeatedly committing acts which places such person in reasonable fear of physical injury. This section shall not apply to activities regulated by the national labor relations act, as amended, the railway labor act, as amended, or the federal employment labor management act, as amended.

Harassment in the first degree is a class [B] A misdemeanor.

§ 18. Section 240.30 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 188 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

§ 240.30 Aggravated harassment in the second degree.

A person is guilty of aggravated harassment in the second degree when:

1. With intent to harass another person, the actor either:

(a) communicates, anonymously or otherwise, by telephone, by computer or any other electronic means, or by mail, or by transmitting or delivering any other form of communication, a threat to cause physical harm to, or unlawful harm to the property of, such person, or a member of such person's same family or household as defined in subdivision one of

1 section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, and the actor knows or 2 reasonably should know that such communication will cause such person to 3 reasonably fear harm to such person's physical safety or property, or to 4 the physical safety or property of a member of such person's same family 5 or household; or

6 (b) causes a communication to be initiated anonymously or otherwise, 7 by telephone, by computer or any other electronic means, or by mail, or 8 by transmitting or delivering any other form of communication, a threat 9 to cause physical harm to, or unlawful harm to the property of, such 10 person, a member of such person's same family or household as defined in 11 subdivision one of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, and the 12 actor knows or reasonably should know that such communication will cause 13 such person to reasonably fear harm to such person's physical safety or 14 property, or to the physical safety or property of a member of such 15 person's same family or household; or

16 2. With intent to harass or threaten another person, he or she makes a 17 telephone call, whether or not a conversation ensues, with no purpose of 18 legitimate communication; or

19 3. With the intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another person,
20 he or she strikes, shoves, kicks, or otherwise subjects another person 21 to physical contact, or attempts or threatens to do the same because of 22 a belief or perception regarding such person's race, color, national 23 origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability
24 or sexual orientation, regardless of whether the belief or perception is 25 correct; or

26 4. With the intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another person, 27 he or she strikes, shoves, kicks or otherwise subjects another person to 28 physical contact thereby causing physical injury to such person or to a 29 family or household member of such person as defined in section 530.11 30 of the criminal procedure law; or

31 5. He or she commits the crime of harassment in the first degree and 32 has previously been convicted of the crime of harassment in the first 33 degree as defined by section 240.25 of this article within the preceding 34 ten years.

35 Aggravated harassment in the second degree is a class [~~A misdemeanor~~]
36 E felony.

37 § 19. Section 240.31 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 49 of the 38 laws of 2006, subdivisions 3 and 4 as amended and subdivision 5 as added
39 by chapter 74 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

40 § 240.31 Aggravated harassment in the first degree.

41 A person is guilty of aggravated harassment in the first degree when 42 with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another person, because 43 of a belief or perception regarding such person's race, color, national 44 origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability
45 or sexual orientation, regardless of whether the belief or perception is 46 correct, he or she:

47 1. Damages premises primarily used for religious purposes, or acquired 48 pursuant to section six of the religious corporation law and maintained
49 for purposes of religious instruction, and the damage to the premises 50 exceeds fifty dollars; or

11 ing or other real property, public or private, owned by any person, firm
12 or corporation or any public agency or instrumentality, without express 13 permission of the owner or operator of such building or real property.

14 Aggravated harassment in the first degree is a class [E] D felony.

15 § 20. Subdivision 1 of section 370.15 of the criminal procedure law is 16 REPEALED and a new subdivision 1 is added to read as follows:

17 1. When a defendant has been charged with assault in the third degree, 18 menacing in the third degree, menacing in the second degree, criminal 19 obstruction of breathing or blood circulation, unlawful imprisonment in 20 the second degree, coercion in the third degree, criminal contempt in 21 the second degree, harassment in the first degree, aggravated harassment 22 in the second degree, or attempt to commit any of the above-listed
23 offenses, the people may, at arraignment or no later than forty-five 24 days after arraignment, serve on the defendant and file with the court a 25 notice alleging that the defendant and the person alleged to be the 26 victim of such crime were members of the same family or household as 27 defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this chapter.

28 § 21. Section 380.97 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a 29 new section 380.97 is added to read as follows:

30 § 380.97 Notification to division of criminal justice services of 31 certain misdemeanor convictions.

32 Upon judgement of conviction of assault in the third degree, menacing
33 in the third degree, menacing in the second degree, criminal obstruction 34 of breathing or blood circulation, unlawful imprisonment in the second 35 degree, coercion in the third degree, criminal contempt in the second 36 degree, harassment in the first degree, or aggravated harassment in the 37 second degree, or attempt to commit any of the above-listed offenses,
38 when the defendant and victim have been determined, pursuant to section 39 370.15 of this part, to be members of the same family or household as 40 defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this chapter, the clerk
41 of the court shall include notification and a copy of the written deter-
42 mination in a report of such conviction to the division of criminal 43 justice services to enable the division to report such determination to 44 the Federal Bureau of Investigation and assist the bureau in identifying 45 persons prohibited from purchasing and possessing a firearm or other 46 weapon due to conviction of an offense specified in paragraph (c) of 47 subdivision seventeen of section 265.00 of the penal law.

48 § 22. This act shall take effect immediately.
