AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to establishing a program for elderly inmates who are under community supervision or who will be released from a state correctional facility

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 210
2 to read as follows:

3 § 210. Reentry for the elderly program. 1. The department shall estab-
4 lish a reentry for the elderly program for adults over fifty years of 5 age who are under community supervision or who will be released from a 6 state correctional facility.

7 2. The commissioner, in consultation with the office of minority
8 health, the commissioner of the city of New York department of health
9 and mental hygiene, the commissioner of the city of New York department
10 of homeless services and the commissioner of the city of New York
11 department of social services and local stakeholders such as senior 12 centers and service providers, shall be responsible for the implementa-
13 tion and coordination of program services provided for in this section 14 for participants who are on community supervision or will be released
15 from a state correctional facility to the city of New York.

16 3. The commissioner, in consultation with county departments of 17 health, mental health and social services, and with local stakeholders
18 such as county senior centers and service providers, shall be responsi-
19 ble for the implementation and coordination of program services provided 20 for in this section for participants who are on community supervision or 21 will be released from a state correctional facility to a county outside 22 the city of New York.
