IN SENATE

January 24, 2020

Introduced by Sen. SEPULVEDA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to the "juvenile offender second chance act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 4, 5, and 6 of section 720.10 of the criminal procedure law, as renumbered by chapter 481 of the laws of 1978, are renumbered subdivisions 5, 6 and 7 respectively and two new subdivisions 4 and 8 are added to read as follows:

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two or three of this section, a youth seeking relief pursuant to subdivision two of section 720.20 of this article, is an eligible youth if they meet the following criteria:

(a) the youth was convicted or sentenced as a juvenile offender as defined in subdivision forty-two of section 1.20 of this chapter;

(b) the youth is at least twenty-six years old;

(c) the youth has not been convicted or sentenced for another felony;

(d) the youth has not been convicted or sentenced for more than one other misdemeanor;

(e) the youth is not registered as a level three sex offender pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-l of the correction law; and

(f) the youth is not currently under strict intensive supervisions or civil commitment pursuant to article ten of the mental hygiene law.

8. "Eligible youth petitioner" means a youth eligible pursuant to subdivision four of this section, who petitions the court for a youthful offender finding.

§ 2. Subdivisions 2, 3 and 4 of section 720.20 of the criminal procedure law are renumbered subdivisions 3, 4 and 5 respectively and a new subdivision 2 is added to read as follows:

2. Upon petition by an eligible youth petitioner, the court must order a finding of fact in accordance with the criteria set forth in subdivision four of section 720.10 of this article. After receipt of evidence in support and contradiction to said criteria, the court must determine

1 whether the youth meets the criteria. If the court determines the youth
2 meets the criteria set forth in subdivision four of section 720.10 of
3 this article, the court must find the eligible youth petitioner is a
4 youthful offender.

5 § 3. Section 720.25 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter
6 402 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

7 § 720.25 Youthful offender adjudication; certain exemptions.

8 Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law:

9 1. where the court is required to find that a person is a youthful
10 offender pursuant to section 170.80 of this chapter, the fact that such
11 person has previously been convicted of a crime or adjudicated a youth-
12 ful offender shall not prevent such person from being adjudicated a
13 youthful offender as required by such section; ~~and~~

14 2. a youthful offender adjudication pursuant to section 170.80 of this 15 chapter shall not be considered in determining whether a person is an 16 eligible youth, or in determining whether to find a person a youthful 17 offender, in any subsequent youthful offender adjudication; and

18 3. where the court is required to find that a person is a youthful
19 offender pursuant to sections 720.10 and 720.20 of this chapter, the 20 person shall have a youthful offender sentence imposed if they have not 21 completed their sentence for the conviction that is the subject of their
22 petition, and the person shall receive all other provisions and benefits
23 of the youthful offender adjudication wherever such provisions can
24 reasonably be so applied.

25 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeed-
26 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
