~~(viii) it reasonably appears to the officer, based on the observed behavior of the individual in the present contact with the officer and facts regarding the person's condition that indicates a sign of distress to such a degree that the person would face harm without immediate medical or mental health care, that bringing the person before the court would be in such person's interest in addressing that need, provided, however, that before making the arrest, the officer shall make all reasonable efforts to assist the person in securing appropriate services.]~~

§ 4. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 150.30 to read as follows:

§ 150.30 Appearance ticket; issuance and service thereof after arrest upon posting of pre-arraignment bail.

1. Issuance and service of an appearance ticket by a police officer following an arrest without a warrant, as prescribed in subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article, may be made conditional upon the posting of a sum of money, known as pre-arraignment bail. In such case, the bail becomes forfeit upon failure of such person to comply with the directions of the appearance ticket. The person posting such bail must complete and sign a form which states (a) the name, residential address and occupation of each person posting cash bail; and (b) the title of the criminal action or proceeding involved; and (c) the offense or offenses which are the subjects of the action or proceeding involved, and the status of such action or proceeding; and (d) the name of the principal and the nature of his or her involvement in or connection with such action or proceeding; and (e) the date of the principal's next appearance in court; and (f) an acknowledgement that the cash bail will be forfeited if the principal does not comply with the directions of the appearance ticket; and (g) the amount of money posted as cash bail. Such pre-arraignment bail may be posted as provided in subdivision two or three of this section.

2. A desk officer in charge at a police station, county jail, or police headquarters, or any of his or her superior officers, may in such place, fix pre-arraignment bail, in an amount prescribed in this subdivision, and upon the posting thereof must issue and serve an appearance ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail, and release such person from custody. Such pre-arraignment bail may be fixed in the following amounts:

(a) If the arrest was for a class E felony, any amount not exceeding seven hundred fifty dollars.

(b) If the arrest was for a class A misdemeanor, any amount not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(c) If the arrest was for a class B misdemeanor or an unclassified misdemeanor, any amount not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars.

(d) If the arrest was for a petty offense, any amount not exceeding one hundred dollars.

3. A police officer, who has arrested a person without a warrant pursuant to subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article for a traffic infraction, may, where he or she reasonably believes that such arrested person is not licensed to operate a motor vehicle by this state or any state covered by a reciprocal compact guaranteeing appearance as is provided in section five hundred seventeen of the vehicle and traffic law, fix pre-arraignment bail in the amount of fifty dollars; provided, however, such bail shall be posted by means of a credit card or similar

1 device. Upon the posting thereof, said officer must issue and serve an
2 appearance ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail,
3 and release such person from custody.

4 4. The chief administrator of the courts shall establish a system for 5 the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of credit card or similar
6 device, as is provided by section two hundred twelve of the judiciary
7 law. The head of each police department or police force and of any state
8 department, agency, board, commission or public authority having police 9 officers who fix pre-arraignment bail as provided herein may elect to 10 use the system established by the chief administrator or may establish 11 such other system for the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of 12 credit card or similar device as he or she may deem appropriate.

13 § 5. Subdivision 1 of section 150.40 of the criminal procedure law, as 14 amended by section 8 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is 15 amended to read as follows:

16 1. An appearance ticket must be made returnable [~~at a date as soon as~~ 17 ~~possible, but in no event later than twenty days from the date of issu-~~
18 ~~ance, or at the next scheduled session of the appropriate local criminal~~ 19 ~~court if such session is scheduled to occur more than twenty days from~~
20 ~~the date of issuance, or at a later date, with the court's permission~~
21 ~~due to enrollment in a pre-arraignment diversion program. The appearance~~ 22 ~~ticket shall be made returnable]~~ in a local criminal court designated in 23 section 100.55 of this title as one with which an information for the 24 offense in question may be filed.

25 § 6. Subdivision 1 of section 150.50 of the criminal procedure law, as 26 amended by chapter 450 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 27 follows:

28 1. A police officer or other public servant who has issued and served
29 an appearance ticket must, at or before the time such appearance ticket
30 is returnable, file or cause to be filed with the local criminal court
31 in which it is returnable a local criminal court accusatory instrument
32 charging the person named in such appearance ticket with the offense
33 specified therein[~~, provided, however, that no separate accusatory~~
34 ~~instrument shall be required to be filed for an appearance ticket issued~~ 35 ~~for a parking infraction which conforms to the requirements set forth in~~
36 ~~paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 1.20 of this chapter]. Noth-~~

42 § 9. Subdivisions 5, 6, 7 and 9 of section 500.10 of the criminal 43 procedure law, as amended by section 1-e of part JJJ of chapter 59 of 44 the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

45 5. "Securing order" means an order of a court committing a principal 46 to the custody of the sheriff or fixing bail, [~~where authorized,~~] or

49 6. "Order of recognizance or bail" means a securing order releasing a
50 principal on the principal's own recognizance or [~~under non-monetary~~
51 ~~conditions or, where authorized,~~] fixing bail.

52 7. "Application for recognizance or bail" means an application by a 53 principal that the court, instead of committing the principal to or

9. "Bail" means cash bail~~[,]~~ or a bail bond ~~[or money paid with a credit card]~~.

§ 510.10 Securing order; when required~~[, alternatives available, stand-~~

1. When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the control of a court, such court shall~~[, in accordance with this title,]~~ by a securing order, either release the principal on the principal's own recognizance, ~~[release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or, where authorized,]~~ fix bail or commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. ~~[In all such cases, except where another type of securing order is shown to be required by law, the court shall release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance, unless it is demonstrated and the court makes an individualized determination that the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution. If such a finding is made, the court must select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of release, release with conditions, bail or remand on the record or in writing.]~~

2. ~~A principal is entitled to representation by counsel under this chapter in preparing an application for release, when a securing order is being considered and when a securing order is being reviewed for modification, revocation or termination. If the principal is financially unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the principal.~~

3. ~~In cases other than as described in subdivision four of this section the court shall release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance, unless the court finds on the record or in writing that release on the principal's own recognizance will not reasonably assure the principal's return to court. In such instances, the court shall release the principal under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in writing.~~

4. ~~Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under non-monetary conditions, fix bail, or, where the defendant is charged with a qualifying offense which is a felony, the court may commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. A principal stands charged with a qualifying offense for the purposes of this subdivision when he or she stands charged with:~~

~~(b) a crime involving witness intimidation under section 215.15 of the penal law;~~

~~(c) a crime involving witness tampering under section 215.11, 215.12 or 215.13 of the penal law;~~

~~(d) a class A felony defined in the penal law, provided that for class A felonies under article two hundred twenty of the penal law, only class A-I felonies shall be a qualifying offense;~~

~~(q) a crime involving bail jumping under section 215.55, 215.56 or 215.57 of the penal law, or a crime involving escaping from custody under section 205.05, 205.10 or 205.15 of the penal law,~~

~~(r) any felony offense committed by the principal while serving a sentence of probation or while released to post release supervision,~~

~~(s) a felony, where the defendant qualifies for sentencing on such charge as a persistent felony offender pursuant to section 70.10 of the penal law, or~~

~~(t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance or released under conditions for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision.~~

~~5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions three and four of this section, with respect to any charge for which bail or remand is not ordered, and for which the court would not or could not otherwise require bail or remand, a defendant may, at any time, request that the court set bail in a nominal amount requested by the defendant in the form specified in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 520.10 of this title, if the court is satisfied that the request is voluntary, the court shall set such bail in such amount.~~

~~6.] When a securing order is revoked or otherwise terminated in the course of an uncompleted action or proceeding but the principal's future court attendance still is or may be required and the principal is still under the control of a court, a new securing order must be issued. When the court revokes or otherwise terminates a securing order which committed the principal to the custody of the sheriff, the court shall give written notification to the sheriff of such revocation or termination of the securing order.~~

2. The court shall release the principal on personal recognizance or on bail unless the court makes an individualized determination that: (a) the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution; (b) the principal poses a risk of failing to appear in court based on the principal's record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior court proceedings; or (c) the principal poses a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the community. If the court finds that the principal poses a risk of flight or a risk of failure to appear but does not pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the community, the court shall release the principal subject to the lowest reasonable bail and/or the least restrictive further condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the principal considering the nature and circumstances of the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of the principal, and the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the principal's release. If the court determines that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the principal and the safety of any other person of the community, the court shall order detention without bail.

3. If the principal is arrested during the interim period while awaiting a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise terminate the securing order and issue a new securing order taking into account the subsequent arrest.

4. (a) All securing orders issued under this section where the principal is incarcerated solely because of said order shall be reviewed and re-evaluated by the court no later than:

(i) every four weeks thereafter where a class A misdemeanor is the highest grade offense;

(ii) every six weeks thereafter where a class E felony is the highest grade offense;

(iii) every eight weeks thereafter where a class D felony is the highest grade offense;

(iv) every ten weeks thereafter where a class C felony is the highest grade offense; or

(v) every twelve weeks thereafter where a class B felony is the highest grade offense.

(b) Upon such review or re-evaluation, the court shall reconsider whether the principal should be released on personal recognizance or upon posting reduced bail in the interests of justice after considering the length of time the principal has already been incarcerated, the likely sentence that would be imposed if the principal were found guilty or plead guilty to the charged offense, the nature and circumstances of the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of the principal, the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the principal's release, and whether the principal should be released subject to a further condition, or combination of conditions, that reasonably justifies the release of the principal on personal recognizance or reduced bail, and such other factors in the interests of justice as reasonably determined by the court based on an individualized determination as to whether and to what extent that the principal continues to pose a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, continues to pose a risk of failing to appear in court based on the principal's record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior court proceedings, or continues to pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the community. If the court determines that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the appearance of the principal and the safety of any other person of the community, the court shall continue to detain the principal without bail or without a reduction in the amount of the bail.

§ 11. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 3 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.20 Application for ~~[a change in securing order]~~ recognizance or bail; making and determination thereof in general.

1. Upon any occasion when a court ~~[has issued]~~ is required to issue a securing order with respect to a principal ~~[and the]~~, or at any time

1 ~~when a~~ principal is confined in the custody of the sheriff as a result
2 of the securing order or a previously issued securing order, the princi-
3 pal may make an application for recognizance[~~, release under non-mone-~~
4 ~~tary conditions~~] or bail.

5 2. [~~(a) The principal is entitled to representation by counsel in the~~ 6 ~~making and presentation of such application. If the principal is finan-~~
7 ~~cially unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the prin-~~
8 ~~cipal.~~

9 ~~(b)]~~ Upon such application, the principal must be accorded an opportu-
10 nity to be heard[~~, present evidence~~] and to contend that an order of 11 recognizance[~~, release under non-monetary conditions~~] or[~~, where author-~~ 12 ~~ized,~~] bail must or should issue, that the court should release the
13 principal on the principal's own recognizance [~~or under non-monetary~~
14 ~~conditions~~] rather than fix bail, and that if bail is [~~authorized and~~ 15 fixed it should be in a suggested amount and form.

16 § 12. Section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
17 section 5 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to
18 read as follows:

19 § 510.30 Application for [~~securing order~~] recognizance or bail; rules of 20 law and criteria controlling determination.

21 1. Determinations of applications for recognizance or bail are not in 22 all cases discretionary but are subject to rules, prescribed in article 23 five hundred thirty of this title and other provisions of law relating 24 to specific kinds of criminal actions and proceedings, providing (a)
25 that in some circumstances such an application must as a matter of law
26 be granted, (b) that in others it must as a matter of law be denied and 27 the principal committed to or retained in the custody of the sheriff, 28 and (c) that in others the granting or denial thereof is a matter of 29 judicial discretion.

30 2. To the extent that the issuance of an order of recognizance or bail 31 and the terms thereof are matters of discretion rather than of law, an 32 application is determined on the basis of the following factors and 33 criteria:

34 (a) With respect to any principal, the court [in all cases, unless 35 otherwise provided by law,] must [impose the least restrictive] consider 36 the kind and degree of control or restriction that is necessary to 37 secure the principal's return to court when required. In determining 38 that matter, the court must, on the basis of available information,
39 consider and take into account:

40 (i) The principal's character, reputation, habits and mental condi-
41 tion;

42 (ii) The principal's employment and financial resources;

43 (iii) The principal's family ties and the length of his or her resi-
44 dence if any in the community;

45 (iv) [information about the principal that is relevant to the princi-
46 pal's return to court, including:

47 (a) The principal's activities and history;

48 (b) If the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal;

49 (c) The principal's criminal [conviction] record if any;

50 (d) (v) The principal's record of previous adjudication as a juve-
51 nile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family 52 court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant 53 to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any;

54 (e) (vi) The principal's previous record if any in responding to 55 court appearances when required or with respect to flight to avoid crim-
56 inal prosecution;

~~[(f) If monetary bail is authorized, according to the restrictions set forth in this title, the principal's individual financial circumstances, and, in cases where bail is authorized, the principal's ability to post bail without posing undue hardship, as well as his or her ability to obtain a secured, unsecured, or partially secured bond;~~

~~(g)]~~ (vii) Where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes against a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the following factors:

~~[(i)]~~ (A) any violation by the principal of an order of protection issued by any court for the protection of a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, whether or not such order of protection is currently in effect; and

~~[(ii)]~~ (B) the principal's history of use or possession of a firearm; ~~and~~

~~(h)]~~ (viii) If the principal is a defendant, the weight of the evidence against him or her in the pending criminal action and any other factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction; or, in the case of an application for ~~[a securing order]~~ bail or recognizance pending appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal; and

(ix) If he or she is a defendant, the sentence which may be or has been imposed upon conviction.

~~[2-]~~ (b) Where the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending appeal from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the likelihood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that the appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not require, a denial of the application, regardless of any determination made with respect to the factors specified in paragraph (a) of this subdivision ~~[one of this section]~~.

3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the principal, if the principal is a defendant charged with the commission of a felony, that the release is conditional and that the court may revoke the order of release and ~~[may be authorized]~~ to commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of section 530.60 of this ~~[chapter]~~ title if the principal commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon such order.

§ 13. Section 510.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 6 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 and paragraph (c) of subdivision 4 as amended by section 7 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.40 ~~[Court notification to principal of conditions of release and of alleged violations of conditions of release]~~ Application for recognizance or bail; determination thereof, form of securing order and execution thereof.

1. An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a securing order which either:

(a) Grants the application and releases the principal on his or her own recognizance; or

(b) Grants the application and fixes bail; or

(c) Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains him or her in, the custody of the sheriff.

2. Upon ordering that a principal be released on the principal's own recognizance, ~~[or released under non-monetary conditions, or, if bail has been fixed, upon the posting of bail,]~~ the court must direct the principal to appear in the criminal action or proceeding involved when-

1 ever the principal's attendance may be required and to [~~be~~] render the 2 principal at all times amenable to the orders and processes of the 3 court. If such principal is in the custody of the sheriff or at liberty
4 upon bail at the time of the order, the court must direct that the prin-
5 cipal be discharged from such custody or, as the case may be, that the 6 principal's bail be exonerated.

7 [~~2-~~] 3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail[~~, where authorized,~~]
8 and upon the posting thereof, the court must examine the bail to deter-
9 mine whether it complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in 10 the absence of some factor or circumstance which in law requires or 11 authorizes disapproval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a 12 certificate of release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and,
13 if the principal is in the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing 14 the sheriff to discharge the principal therefrom. If the bail fixed is 15 not posted, or is not approved after being posted, the court must order
16 that the principal be committed to the custody of the sheriff. [~~In the~~ 17 ~~event of any such non-approval, the court shall explain promptly in~~ 18 ~~writing the reasons therefor.~~

19 ~~3. Non-monetary conditions of release shall be individualized and~~ 20 ~~established in writing by the court. At future court appearances, the~~ 21 ~~court shall consider a lessening of conditions or modification of condi-~~
22 ~~tions to a less burdensome form based on the principal's compliance with~~ 23 ~~such conditions of release. In the event of alleged non-compliance with~~ 24 ~~the conditions of release in an important respect, pursuant to this~~ 25 ~~subdivision, additional conditions may be imposed by the court, on the~~ 26 ~~record or in writing, only after notice of the facts and circumstances~~
27 ~~of such alleged non-compliance, reasonable under the circumstances,~~
28 ~~affording the principal and the principal's attorney and the people an~~
29 ~~opportunity to present relevant, admissible evidence, relevant witnesses~~
30 ~~and to cross-examine witnesses, and a finding by clear and convincing~~
31 ~~evidence that the principal violated a condition of release in an impor-~~
32 ~~tant respect. Following such a finding, in determining whether to impose~~ 33 ~~additional conditions for non-compliance, the court shall consider and~~
34 ~~may select conditions consistent with the court's obligation to impose~~
35 ~~the least restrictive condition or conditions that will reasonably~~
36 ~~assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain on the~~ 37 ~~record or in writing the reasons for its determination and for any~~ 38 ~~changes to the conditions imposed.~~

39 ~~4. (a) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be ordered~~ 40 ~~only if the court finds, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and an~~ 41 ~~individualized determination explained on the record or in writing, that~~ 42 ~~the defendant qualifies for electronic monitoring in accordance with~~ 43 ~~subdivision twenty one of section 500.10 of this title, and no other~~ 44 ~~realistic non-monetary condition or set of non-monetary conditions will~~
45 ~~suffice to reasonably assure a principal's return to court.~~

46 ~~(b) The specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's~~
47 ~~location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive~~
48 ~~procedure and method that will reasonably assure the principal's return~~
49 ~~to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent practicable.~~

50 ~~(c) Electronic monitoring of the location of a principal may be~~
51 ~~conducted only by a public entity under the supervision and control of a~~ 52 ~~county or municipality or a non profit entity under contract to the~~ 53 ~~county, municipality or the state. A county or municipality shall be~~
54 ~~authorized to enter into a contract with another county or municipality~~
55 ~~in the state to monitor principals under non-monetary conditions of~~ 56 ~~release in its county, but counties, municipalities and the state shall~~

~~not contract with any private for profit entity for such purposes. Counties, municipalities and the state may contract with a private for profit entity to supply electronic monitoring devices or other items, provided that any interaction with persons under electronic monitoring or the data produced by such monitoring shall be conducted solely by employees of a county, municipality, the state, or a non profit entity under contract with such county, municipality or the state.~~

~~(d) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be for a maximum period of sixty days, and may be renewed for such period, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and a de novo, individualized determination in accordance with this subdivision, which shall be explained on the record or in writing.~~

~~A defendant subject to electronic location monitoring under this subdivision shall be considered held or confined in custody for purposes of section 180.80 of this chapter and shall be considered committed to the custody of the sheriff for purposes of section 170.70 of the chapter, as applicable.~~

~~5. If a principal is released under non monetary conditions, the court shall, on the record and in an individualized written document provided to the principal, notify the principal, in plain language and a manner sufficiently clear and specific:~~

~~(a) of any conditions to which the principal is subject, to serve as a guide for the principal's conduct, and~~

~~(b) that the possible consequences for violation of such a condition may include revocation of the securing order and the ordering of a more restrictive securing order.]~~

§ 14. Sections 510.43 and 510.45 of the criminal procedure law are REPEALED.

§ 15. Section 510.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 9 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.50 Enforcement of securing order.

[~~1.~~] When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the sheriff to produce the principal at such time and place. If the principal is at liberty on the principal's own recognizance [~~or non monetary conditions~~] or on bail, the principal's attendance may be achieved or compelled by various methods, including notification and the issuance of a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters with respect to the particular kind of action or proceeding involved.

~~[2. Except when the principal is charged with a new crime while at liberty, absent relevant, credible evidence demonstrating that a principal's failure to appear for a scheduled court appearance was willful, the court, prior to issuing a bench warrant for a failure to appear for a scheduled court appearance, shall provide at least forty eight hours notice to the principal or the principal's counsel that the principal is required to appear, in order to give the principal an opportunity to appear voluntarily.]~~

§ 16. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 520.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 10 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The court [~~shall~~] may direct that the bail be posted in any one of [~~three~~] two or more of the forms specified in subdivision one of this section, designated in the alternative, and may designate different amounts varying with the forms[~~, except that one of the forms shall be~~

1 ~~either an unsecured or partially secured surety bond, as selected by the~~
2 ~~court~~].

3 § 17. Section 530.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by
4 section 11 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to
5 read as follows:

6 § 530.10 Order of recognizance [~~release under non-monetary conditions~~]
7 or bail; in general.

8 Under circumstances prescribed in this article, a court, upon applica-
9 tion of a defendant charged with or convicted of an offense, is required
10 [~~to issue a securing order~~] or authorized to order bail or recognizance 11 for the release or prospective release of such defendant during the 12 pendency of either:

13 1. A criminal action based upon such charge; or

14 2. An appeal taken by the defendant from a judgment of conviction or a 15 sentence or from an order of an intermediate appellate court affirming
16 or modifying a judgment of conviction or a sentence.

17 § 18. Subdivision 4 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law,
18 as amended by section 12 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019,
19 is amended to read as follows:

20 4. When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an 21 alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of 22 protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or 23 family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in 24 session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in 25 the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is return-
26 able pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. Such local 27 criminal court may issue any order authorized under subdivision eleven 28 of section 530.12 of this article, section one hundred fifty-four-d or 29 one hundred fifty-five of the family court act or subdivision three-b of 30 section two hundred forty or subdivision two-a of section two hundred 31 fifty-two of the domestic relations law, in addition to discharging
32 other arraignment responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. In 33 making such order, the local criminal court shall consider [~~de novo~~] the 34 bail recommendation [~~and securing order~~], if any, made by the supreme or 35 family court as indicated on the warrant or certificate of warrant.
36 Unless the petitioner or complainant requests otherwise, the court, in 37 addition to scheduling further criminal proceedings, if any, regarding 38 such alleged family offense or violation allegation, shall make such 39 matter returnable in the supreme or family court, as applicable, on the 40 next day such court is in session.

41 § 19. Subdivision 11 of section 530.12 of the criminal procedure law,
42 as amended by section 15 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019,
43 is amended to read as follows:

44 11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any 45 lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued 46 by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or 47 tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by 48 competent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such 49 order, the court may:

50 (a) revoke an order of recognizance [~~or release under non-monetary~~
51 ~~conditions~~] or revoke an order of bail or order forfeiture of such bail 52 and commit the defendant to custody; or

53 (b) restore the case to the calendar when there has been an adjourn-
54 ment in contemplation of dismissal and commit the defendant to custody;
55 or

(c) revoke a conditional discharge in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose probation supervision or impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction; or

(d) revoke probation in accordance with section 410.70 of this chapter and impose a sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the penal law based on the original conviction. In addition, if the act which constitutes the violation of the order of protection or temporary order of protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with and tried for that crime or violation.

§ 20. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.13 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 14 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

When any criminal action is pending, and the court has not issued a temporary order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this article, the court, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by this chapter, may for good cause shown issue a temporary order of protection in conjunction with any securing order committing the defendant to the custody of the sheriff or as a condition of a pre-trial release, or as a condition of release on bail or an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal. In addition to any other conditions, such an order may require that the defendant:

§ 21. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 13 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

(a) revoke an order of recognizance~~[, —release under non-monetary conditions]~~ or bail and commit the defendant to custody; or

§ 22. Section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a new section 530.20 is added to read as follows:

§ 530.20 Order of recognizance or bail; by local criminal court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance or bail as follows:

1. When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified information, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.

2. When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as otherwise provided in this subdivision:

(a) A city court, a town court or a village court may not order recognizance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony, or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony convictions;

(b) No local criminal court may order recognizance or bail with respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and until:

(i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after knowledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived his or her right to do so; and

(ii) The court has been furnished with a report of the division of criminal justice services concerning the defendant's criminal record if any or with a police department report with respect to the defendant's prior arrest record. If neither report is available, the court, with the consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this requirement;

1 provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not limited to a
2 substantial impairment in the ability of such division or police depart-
3 ment to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not be required
4 if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it unnecessary.
5 When the court has been furnished with any such report or record, it
6 shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or, if the 7 defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant.

8 3. The court shall make an individualized determination if: (a) the
9 defendant poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution; (b) the defendant
10 poses a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's
11 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior
12 court proceedings; or (c) the defendant poses a risk of endangering the 13 safety of any other person or the community. If the court finds that the 14 defendant poses a risk of flight or a risk of failure to appear but does
15 not pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the
16 community, the court shall release the defendant subject to the lowest
17 reasonable bail and/or the least restrictive further condition or combi-
18 nation of conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the
19 defendant considering the nature and circumstances of the charged
20 offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of 21 the defendant, and the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the
22 defendant's release. If the court determines that no condition or combi-
23 nation of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the 24 defendant and the safety of any other person of the community, the court
25 shall order detention without bail.

26 4. If the defendant is arrested during the interim period while await-
27 ing a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise
28 terminate the previous order and issue a new order taking into account
29 the subsequent arrest.

30 5. (a) All orders issued under this section where the defendant is
31 incarcerated solely because of said order shall be reviewed and re-eval-
32 uated by the court no later than:

33 (i) every four weeks thereafter where a class A misdemeanor is the
34 highest grade offense;

35 (ii) every six weeks thereafter where a class E felony is the highest
36 grade offense;

37 (iii) every eight weeks thereafter where a class D felony is the high-
38 est grade offense;

39 (iv) every ten weeks thereafter where a class C felony is the highest
40 grade offense; or

41 (v) every twelve weeks thereafter where a class B felony is the high-
42 est grade offense.

43 (b) Upon such review or re-evaluation, the court shall reconsider
44 whether the defendant should be released on personal recognizance or
45 upon posting reduced bail in the interests of justice after considering 46 the length of time the defendant has already been incarcerated, the
47 likely sentence that would be imposed if the defendant were found guilty
48 or pled guilty to the charged offense, the nature and circumstances of
49 the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and charac-
50 teristics of the defendant, the nature and seriousness of the danger
51 posed by the defendant's release, and whether the principal should be
52 released subject to a further condition, or combination of conditions,
53 that reasonably justifies the release of the defendant on personal
54 recognizance or reduced bail, and such other factors in the interests of
55 justice as reasonably determined by the court based on an individualized
56 determination as to whether and to what extent that the defendant

continues to pose a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, continues to pose a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior court proceedings, or continues to pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the community. If the court determines that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the appearance of the defendant and the safety of any other person of the community, the court shall continue to detain the defendant without bail or without a reduction in the amount of the bail.

§ 23. The section heading and subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 530.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 17 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

Order of recognizance[~~, release under non-monetary conditions~~] or bail; by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court.

1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon application of a defendant, may order recognizance[~~, release under non-monetary conditions~~] or[~~, where authorized,~~] bail when such local criminal court:

(a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to the relevant provisions of section 530.20 of this article; or

(b) Has denied an application for recognizance[~~, release under non-monetary conditions~~] or bail; or

(c) Has fixed bail[~~, where authorized,~~] which is excessive[~~, or~~

~~(d) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably assure the defendant's return to court~~].

In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such local criminal court and release the defendant on his or her own recognizance [~~or under non-monetary conditions,~~] or [~~where authorized,~~] fix bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form[~~, whichever are the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in writing~~].

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a superior court judge may not order recognizance, [~~release under non-monetary conditions~~] or[~~, where authorized,~~] bail unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such judge [~~and counsel for the defendant have~~] has been furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article.

§ 24. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a new section 530.40 is added to read as follows:

§ 530.40 Order of recognizance or bail; by superior court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance or bail as follows:

1. When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.

2. When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending

1 in a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a
2 superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which
3 is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a
4 direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order.

5 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section,
6 a superior court may not order recognizance or bail, or permit a defend-
7 ant to remain at liberty pursuant to an existing order, after the 8 defendant has been convicted of either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any 9 class B or class C felony defined in article one hundred thirty of the 10 penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen
11 years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age.
12 In either case the court must commit or remand the defendant to the 13 custody of the sheriff.

14 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section,
15 a superior court may not order recognizance or bail when the defendant
16 is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had 17 an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such court has been 18 furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph 19 (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article.

20 5. The court shall make an individualized determination if: (a) the
21 defendant poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution; (b) the defendant
22 poses a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's
23 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior
24 court proceedings; or (c) the defendant poses a risk of endangering the
25 safety of any other person or the community. If the court finds that the
26 defendant poses a risk of flight or a risk of failure to appear but does
27 not pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the
28 community, the court shall release the defendant subject to the lowest
29 reasonable bail and/or the least restrictive further condition or combi-
30 nation of conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the
31 defendant considering the nature and circumstances of the charged
32 offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of
33 the defendant, and the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the
34 defendant's release. If the court determines that no condition or combi-
35 nation of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the
36 defendant and the safety of any other person of the community, the court
37 shall order detention without bail.

38 6. If the defendant is arrested during the interim period while await-
39 ing a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise
40 terminate the previous order and issue a new order taking into account
41 the subsequent arrest.

42 7. (a) All orders issued under this section where the defendant is
43 incarcerated solely because of said order shall be reviewed and re-eval-
44 uated by the court no later than:

45 (i) every four weeks thereafter where a class A misdemeanor is the
46 highest grade offense;

47 (ii) every six weeks thereafter where a class E felony is the highest
48 grade offense;

49 (iii) every eight weeks thereafter where a class D felony is the high-
50 est grade offense;

51 (iv) every ten weeks thereafter where a class C felony is the highest
52 grade offense; or

53 (v) every twelve weeks thereafter where a class B felony is the high-
54 est grade offense.

55 (b) Upon such review or re-evaluation, the court shall reconsider
56 whether the defendant should be released on personal recognizance or

1 upon posting reduced bail in the interests of justice after considering
2 the length of time the defendant has already been incarcerated, the
3 likely sentence that would be imposed if the defendant were found guilty
4 or pled guilty to the charged offense, the nature and circumstances of
5 the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and charac-
6 teristics of the defendant, the nature and seriousness of the danger
7 posed by the defendant's release, and whether the principal should be
8 released subject to a further condition, or combination of conditions,
9 that reasonably justifies the release of the defendant on personal
10 recognizance or reduced bail, and such other factors in the interests of
11 justice as reasonably determined by the court based on an individualized
12 determination as to whether and to what extent that the defendant
13 continues to pose a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, continues to 14 pose a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's
15 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior
16 court proceedings, or continues to pose a risk of endangering the safety
17 of any other person or the community. If the court determines that no 18 condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the 19 appearance of the defendant and the safety of any other person of the 20 community, the court shall continue to detain the defendant without bail
21 or without a reduction in the amount of the bail.

22 § 25. Subdivision 1 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law,
23 as amended by section 19 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019,
24 is amended to read as follows:

25 1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action
26 as a result of a prior order of recognizance[~~, release under non-mone-~~
27 ~~tary conditions~~] or bail and the court revokes such order and then[~~,~~
28 ~~where authorized,~~] either fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater 29 amount or in a more burdensome form than was previously fixed and 30 remands or commits defendant to the custody of the sheriff, [~~or issues a~~
31 ~~more restrictive securing order,~~] a judge designated in subdivision two 32 of this section, upon application of the defendant following conviction
33 of an offense other than a class A felony or a class B or class C felony
34 offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law

If the defendant is entitled to recognizance~~[, release under non-monetary conditions,]~~ or bail as a matter of right, the court must issue another such order. Where the defendant is committed to the custody of the sheriff and is held on a felony complaint, a new period as provided in section 180.80 of this chapter shall commence to run from the time of the defendant's commitment under this subdivision.

2. (a) Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant charged with the commission of a felony is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance, ~~[release under non-monetary conditions]~~ or bail issued pursuant to this article it shall be grounds for revoking such order that the court finds reasonable cause to believe the defendant committed one or more specified class A or violent felony offenses or intimidated a victim or witness in violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law while at liberty.

~~[(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any other law, whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant charged with the commission of an offense is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or bail issued pursuant to this article it shall be grounds for revoking such order and fixing bail in such criminal action or proceeding when the court has found, by clear and convincing evidence, that the defendant:~~

~~(i) persistently and willfully failed to appear after notice of scheduled appearances in the case before the court; or~~

Such hearing may be consolidated with, and conducted at the same time as, a felony hearing conducted pursuant to article one hundred eighty of this chapter. A transcript of testimony taken before the grand jury upon presentation of the subsequent offense shall be admissible as evidence during the hearing. The district attorney may move to introduce grand jury testimony of a witness in lieu of that witness' appearance at the hearing.~~

Nothing in this subparagraph shall be interpreted as shortening the period of~~

~~detention, or requiring or authorizing any less restrictive form of a securing order, which may be imposed pursuant to any other law.~~

~~(e)~~ (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) ~~[or (b)]~~ of this subdivision a defendant, against whom a felony complaint has been filed which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or violent felony offense ~~[or violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law]~~ committed while he or she was at liberty as specified therein, may be committed to the custody of the sheriff pending a revocation hearing for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours. 44 its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section
45 or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judg-
46 ment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of 47 the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such
