

STATE OF NEW YORK

10118

IN ASSEMBLY

April 29, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. MEEKS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to direct the department of civil service to conduct a study on competitive examinations for public employment to determine whether the contents of such examinations have a discriminatory effect on minority examinees; and providing for the repeal of such provision upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. For the purposes of this act the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "agency" means any department, board, bureau, commission, division, office, council, committee, public benefit corporation or public authority at least one of whose members is appointed by the governor.

(b) "competitive examination" means competitive examinations for public employment held by the state department of civil service and by municipal commissions, as such term is defined by section two of the civil service law.

§ 2. (a) The department of civil service shall conduct a study on competitive examinations for public employment held by the state department of civil service and by municipal commissions to determine whether the contents of such examinations have a discriminatory effect on minority examinees.

(b) Such study shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) the total number of minority and non-minority competitive examination examinees;

(ii) a comparison of competitive examination results for minority examinees compared to non-minority examinees;

(iii) an agency by agency, and municipality by municipality, breakdown containing the percentage of minority employees hired each year compared to non-minorities;

(iv) an investigation on the questions and other contents of competitive examinations to determine whether any such questions or other contents have or could have a discriminatory effect on minority examinees.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD14457-01-2

1 nees compared to non-minority examinees, and if so, the nature of such
2 discriminatory effect;

3 (v) an investigation of ancillary factors contributing to competitive
4 examinations having a discriminatory effect on minority examinees
5 compared to non-minority examinees, including, but not limited to acces-
6 sibility to competitive examination locations, times competitive exam-
7 inations are held, accessibility to competitive examination preparation
8 courses and study materials, and technological barriers; and

9 (vi) any other information the president of the department of civil 10 service shall deem necessary.

11 § 3. The department of civil service may request, and is authorized to 12 receive, any information from any agency that is relevant and material
13 to the completion of the study under section two of this act. Such 14 information received by the department of civil service shall be subject
15 to the same requirements for confidentiality and limitations on use, if 16 any, as are applicable to such agency's use of such information and may 17 only be utilized by the department and the commissioner of civil service
18 for purposes authorized by this act.

19 § 4. No later than one year after the effective date of this act, the 20 state department of civil service shall deliver a report of its findings
21 of the study conducted pursuant to section two of this act to the gover-
22 nor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly,
23 the minority leader of the senate, and the minority leader of the assem-
24 bly. The contents of such report shall not contain the personally iden-
25 tifiable information of any individual.

26 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be 27 deemed repealed two years after such date.