1 such set shall apportion among all such sets the election districts from 2 which such ballots have been received, provided that all such ballots 3 from a single election district shall be assigned to a single set of 4 clerks, and that each such set shall be divided equally between repre-
5 sentatives of the two major political parties. Each such set of clerks 6 shall be deemed a central board of inspectors for purposes of this 7 section.

8 (b) Watchers are entitled to be present at meetings related to examin-

21 subdivisions 4 and 5 to read as follows:

23 review the ballot to determine its validity consistent with section
24 9-112 of this article. In cases where the express intent of the voter 25 is unambiguous, any stray marks or writing shall not be a basis for 26 voiding an absentee ballot. If the absentee ballots are tabulated by an 27 optical scan voting system, then a review of the absentee ballot shall 28 not occur.

29 5. If an affidavit ballot was cast by a voter on any day of early 30 voting or on the day of election who submitted an absentee ballot, such 31 affidavit shall be left aside, unopened.

38 computer generated list of registered voters or the list of special 39 presidential voters, or if there is no name on the envelope, or if the 40 envelope is not sealed, such envelope shall be laid aside unopened;

42 receive notice pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision three of this 43 section.

44 § 4. Clause (B) of subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 45 of section 9-209 of the election law, as amended by chapter 308 of the 46 laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

55 law, as amended by section 6 of part XX of chapter 55 of the laws of 56 2019, is amended to read as follows:

c. The computer generated registration list prepared for each election in each election district shall be prepared in a manner which meets or exceeds standards for clarity and speed of production established by the state board of elections, shall be in a form approved by such board, shall include the names of all voters eligible to vote in such election and shall be in alphabetical order, except that, at a primary election, the names of the voters enrolled in each political party may be placed in a separate part of the list or in a separate list, as the board of elections in its discretion, may determine. Such list shall contain, adjacent to each voter's name, or in a space so designated, at least the following: street address, date of birth, party enrollment, year of registration, a computer reproduced facsimile of the voter's signature or an indication that the voter is unable to sign his name, a place for the voter to sign his name at such election and a place for the inspectors to mark the voting machine number, the public counter number if any, or the number of any paper ballots given the voter. Such list shall also include a notation indicating if such voter was mailed an absentee ballot for the applicable election. The format for such notation shall be promulgated by the state board of elections and used uniformly in computer generated registration lists.

§ 6. Subdivision 1 of section 4-128 of the election law, as amended by section 2 of part XX of chapter 55 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

The board of elections of each county shall provide the requisite number of official and facsimile ballots, two cards of instruction to voters in the form prescribed by the state board of elections, at least one copy of the instruction booklet for inspectors, a sufficient number of maps, street finders or other descriptions of all of the polling places and election districts within the political subdivision in which the polling place is located to enable the election inspectors and poll clerks to determine the correct election district and polling place for each street address within the political subdivision in which the polling place is located, distance markers, tally sheets and return blanks, pens, pencils, or other appropriate marking devices, envelopes for the ballots of voters whose registration poll records are not in the ledger or whose names are not in the computer generated registration list, envelopes for the absentee ballots of voters who have elected to vote by machine to be voided, envelopes for returns, identification buttons, badges or emblems for the inspectors and clerks in the form prescribed by the state board of elections and such other articles of stationery as may be necessary for the proper conduct of elections, except that when a town, city or village holds an election not conducted by the board of elections, the clerk of such town, city or village, shall provide such official and facsimile ballots and the necessary blanks, supplies and stationery for such election.

§ 7. Section 8-302 of the election law is amended by adding two new subdivisions 2-b and 3-d to read as follows:

2-b. If a voter's name appears in the ledger or computer generated registration list with a notation indicating that the voter was mailed an absentee ballot, such voter shall be permitted to cast his or her vote on the voting machine if the voter surrenders his or her absentee ballot to the inspector and such absentee ballot is marked "VOID" and placed by the inspector in an envelope designated for this purpose.

3-d. If a voter's name appears in the ledger or computer generated registration list with a notation indicating that the voter was mailed an absentee ballot and such voter is unable to surrender his or her

1 ballot pursuant to subdivision two-b of this section, such voter shall 2 only be entitled to vote by affidavit ballot unless a court order
3 provides otherwise.

4 § 8. Section 16-106 of the election law is amended by adding a new 5 subdivision 4-a to read as follows:

6 4-a. In order to obtain any order for temporary or preliminary injunc-

10 practice law and rules, the petitioner must show, by clear and convinc-

14 opinion polls show that an election is close is insufficient to show
15 irreparable harm to a petitioner by clear and convincing evidence.

17 subdivision 3-a to read as follows:

18 3-a. In order to obtain any order for temporary or preliminary injunc-

21 chapter, in addition to the criteria in article sixty-three of the civil 22 practice law and rules, the petitioner must show, by clear and convinc-
23 ing evidence, that, because of procedural irregularities or other facts
24 arising during the election, the petitioner will be irreparably harmed
25 absent such relief. For purposes of this section, allegations that 26 opinion polls show that an election is close is insufficient to show
27 irreparable harm to a petitioner by clear and convincing evidence.

28 § 10. Subdivision 5 of section 16-106 of the election law, as amended 29 by chapter 359 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

30 5. A proceeding under subdivisions one and three of this section must 31 be instituted within twenty days and under subdivision two of this 32 section, within thirty days after the election or alleged erroneous 33 statement or determination was made, or the time when the board shall 34 have acted in the particulars as to which it is claimed to have failed 35 to perform its duty, except that such a proceeding with respect to a 36 village election must be instituted within ten days after such election, 37 statement, determination or action; provided, however, that any proceed-38 ing seeking to reverse a determination of a board of elections that 39 results in validating an absentee ballot application shall be instituted 40 within two days of such determination, with the voter in question being 41 named as a necessary party; provided further that any proceeding chal-42 lenging the canvassing of an absentee ballot due to an alleged defect on 43 the affirmation envelope must name the voter as a necessary party.

44 § 11. Subdivision 20 of section 17-130 of the election law is amended 45 to read as follows:

46 20. Intentionally opens an absentee voter's envelope or examines the 47 contents thereof after the receipt of the envelope by the board of 48 elections and before the close of the polls at the election except as 49 provided for in section 9-209 of this chapter; or,

50 § 12. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall
