AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to labeling and sale of cloned animals and food products from cloned animals or the progeny of such animals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new section 210-b to read as follows:

§ 210-b. Labeling of food products derived from cloned animals. 1.
Any person who manufactures or processes food products, including fresh or frozen meat, meat preparations, meat by-products, poultry, eggs or other dairy food or dairy food products for human consumption shall indicate on the label of such food products when packaged, or by a sign when not packaged, as the case may be, that such food contains the product of a cloned animal or its progeny.

2. An importer of food products from out-of-state manufacturers or processors of food for human consumption that contains any product from a cloned animal or its progeny shall label the food to indicate that the food includes the product of a cloned animal or its progeny if the importer has reasonable knowledge that the food contains such product.

3. Any person who purchases or otherwise obtains any food product for human consumption which is labeled so as to disclose that the food contains a product from a cloned animal or its progeny, and who resells such food product to another person shall ensure that the food is labeled to disclose that the food contains a product from a cloned animal or its progeny.

4. The information on the label required pursuant to this section shall be displayed in a conspicuous and easily legible boldface print or type that is in clear contrast to other matter on the package. The label

1 shall comply with the type size specifications in Section 101.105 of 2 Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

3 5. For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall 4 apply:

5 (1) "Cloned animal" means an animal that arises directly from a somat-6 ic cell nuclear transfer event.

7 (2) "Livestock producer" means a person who engages in the business of 8 animal production, which includes, but is not limited to, the birth, 9 raising, feeding, weaning, and identification of a live animal, and who 10 generally does not engage in the business of preparing any animal food 11 that is derived in whole or in part from an animal carcass or its 12 products.

13 (3) "Progeny of a cloned animal" means an animal derived from the 14 sexual reproduction of a cloned animal with another cloned animal or an 15 animal that is not cloned.

16 (4) "Reasonable knowledge" means the importer knows about or has 17 possession of any document or advertisement in any medium that indicates 18 that the product was derived from a cloned animal or its progeny.

19 § 2. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new 20 section 358-b to read as follows:

21 § 358-b. Disclosure of cloned animals upon sale. 1. Every livestock 22 producer who sells or transfers any cloned animal or its progeny shall 23 disclose to the buyer or transferee that the animal is cloned or is the 24 progeny of a cloned animal.

25 2. For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall 26 apply:

27 (a) "Cloned animal" means an animal that arises directly from a somat-28 ic cell nuclear transfer event.

29 (b) "Livestock producer" means a person who engages in the business of 30 animal production, which includes, but is not limited to, the birth, 31 raising, feeding, weaning, and identification of a live animal, and who 32 generally does not engage in the business of preparing any animal food 33 that is derived in whole or in part from an animal carcass or its 34 products.

35 (c) "Progeny of a cloned animal" means an animal derived from the 36 sexual reproduction of a cloned animal with another cloned animal or an 37 animal that is not cloned.

38 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 39 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-40 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-41 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 42 completed on or before such effective date.
