IN ASSEMBLY

January 11, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. CARROLL, BARNWELL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to establish a commission to study certain battles and events which were part of the Revolutionary War in New York; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. A commission, to be known as the Revolutionary War in New 2 York commission, is hereby created to study all of the different events
3 and battles that occurred in New York during the Revolutionary War period, 4 including, but not limited to the Battle of Brooklyn, the Battles of 5 Saratoga, the capture and siege of Fort Ticonderoga, the occupation of 6 New York by the British and the British Prison ships in New York Harbor.
7 The study will include methods to promote and educate individuals on the 8 historical importance of the Revolutionary War in New York.

9 § 2. The commission shall be composed of thirteen members, appointed 10 as follows: three members shall be appointed by the governor; four 11 members shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly; one member 12 shall be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly; four members 13 shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate; and one 14 member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate.

15 § 3. The commission shall examine and review the historical importance 16 of the Revolutionary War in New York and conduct a study that would 17 analyze how to best foster promotion of this historical event.

18 § 4. The commission shall report its findings, conclusions and recommendations 19 to the governor and the legislature no later than two years
20 after the effective date of this act.

21 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall remain in effect 22 until two years after it shall have become a law when upon such date the 23 provisions of this act shall be deemed repealed.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
