Introduced by M. of A. BARNWELL, COLTON, COOK, FERNANDEZ, MONTESANO, PHEFFER AMATO, SEAWRIGHT, STECK, TAYLOR, VANEL, WILLIAMS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to mandatory training and qualifications of persons engaged in the construction and demolition of buildings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- $1\,$ Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 819-a to 2 read as follows:
- § 819-a. Apprenticeship training and qualifications. 1. For purposes of this section:
- 5 (a) "apprentice" shall mean a worker who is employed and registered to 6 learn a skilled trade through a department or United States department
 7 of labor registered apprenticeship program;
- 8 (b) "apprenticeship program" shall mean a plan containing all terms
 9 and conditions for the qualification, recruitment, selection, employment
 10 and training of apprentices, and registered with the department or the 11 United States department of labor; and
- (c) "bona fide construction site safety training program" shall mean a training program authorized and approved by the commissioner for the trade or craft for which a person is employed that provides a minimum number of required hours for completion in safety related instruction and a minimum number of required hours of on the job training commensurate with, at least, one year of apprenticeship training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations.
- 2. (a) All workers before working at or on, a building site, or demolition site, four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, must complete a bona fide construction site safety training

- (b) All workers employed at a building site, or demolition site, four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, must have successfully completed, within the previous five calendar years, a course that is at least ten hours in length and approved by the United States department of labor occupational safety and health administration (OSHA) in construction industry safety and health, or by the commissioner covering substantially the same material. However, a worker need not take a subsequent course that is at least ten hours in length and approved by OSHA in construction industry safety and health, or a subsequent course approved by the commissioner covering substantially the same material, provided the worker has, within the previous five calendar years, accumulated at least five safety education units (SEU) for construction safety and health through training courses offered by a safety training program conducted by a department approved training provider registered apprenticeship program. A worker shall be credited one SEU for every four hours of construction safety and health related training completed, with a maximum of two SEUs assigned for any single course. Such SEU courses shall be conducted by, or under the supervision of OSHA authorized construction safety trainers. Instructors who are not OSHA authorized construction trainers must be experienced in presenting the related course subject matter, and use a curriculum approved by their supervising OSHA authorized construction safety trainer.
- 31 (c) Each worker who works at a building site, or at a demolition site, 32 that is four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in 33 height, and/or a site that satisfies other criteria as the commissioner 34 may establish by rule, must be:
 - (i) a registered apprentice as defined in this article or a graduate of an apprenticeship program as defined in this article, registered by the department or United States department of labor in the trade for which such worker is employed, or
 - (ii) an experienced, trained, and skilled person that has received training commensurate with that required for registered apprentices including related instruction and on the job training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations.
- (d) If at any time, any individual, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, limited liability company (LLC), limited liability partnership (LLP), partnership, corporation, or any other legal entity employs and/or hires any worker on a building site, demolition site, or any project site, which is four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, and such worker is not a registered apprentice, or 51 has not completed an apprenticeship program, or is not an experienced, trained, and skilled person that has received training commensurate with that required for registered apprentices including related instruction 54 and on the job training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of 55 subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, er who has completed an apprenticeship program as defined in this article, or who was not an experienced, trained, and skilled person that has received training commensurate with that required for registered apprentices including related instruction and on the job training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations, and who had not completed a bona fide construction site safety training program or its equivalent approved by the commissioner pursuant to this article.

(h) At no time after a building, or demolition project begins in which the site is four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, shall a person, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity have an individual as manager, member, director, stockholder, or anyone authorized by such person, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity who has ever been knowingly or intentionally hired, or allowed such an individual worker to work on, any project in which the site was four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, when such worker did not have the proper qualifications and training pursuant to this article. If such an individual becomes a manager, member, director, stockholder or collects financial resources or any other financial benefit from such contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity, the project shall immediately be terminated and all permits, rights, applications, licenses, contracts, and any other legal or non-legal documents allowing the construction, modification, project, and/or demolition, shall be terminated.

(i) Upon completion of a bona fide construction site safety training program, and an apprenticeship program as required by the commissioner pursuant to the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations, the worker shall receive and must be provided paperwork from the commissioner proving completion of such programs and requirements. The commissioner must provide documentation to an apprentice, proving such apprentice is a worker who is employed and registered to learn a skilled trade through a department or United States department of labor registered apprenticeship program. The commissioner must also provide documentation to other qualifying individuals, proving that such an individual is an experienced, trained, and skilled person that has received training commensurate with that required for registered apprentices including related instruction and on the job training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations.

(j) Before the hiring of any worker on projects which the site is four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, the person, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity, responsible for the hiring of such individual worker must request from such worker, and be provided paperwork from such worker, proving such worker completed a bona fide construction site safety training program, and is either a registered apprentice, or completed an apprenticeship program, or, is an experienced, trained, and skilled person that has received training commensurate with that required for registered apprentices including related instruction and on the job training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations. Only the documentation provided to the worker by the commissioner shall be sufficient for proof of completion of the requirements and qualifications of this article. If a worker does not provide this documentary proof, the individual worker shall not be hired.

(k) On projects which the site is four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, any individual person, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity, who knowingly or intentionally hires a worker, or allows a worker, who has not completed a bona fide construction site safety training program and who is not a registered apprentice, or who has not completed an apprenticeship program, or who is not an experienced, trained, and skilled person that has received training commensurate with that required for registered apprentices including related instruction and on the job training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations, to work on such a project, such individual, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity shall be fined by the commissioner twenty-five thousand dollars per violation of hiring such a worker who has not completed the requirements or qualifications in this article. The individual, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity, responsible for the hiring and/or supervision of the workers on the project shall be fined fifty thousand dollars, per day, per worker, if such worker is allowed to work on a project four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, who has not completed a bona fide construction site safety training program and who is not a registered apprentice, or who has not completed an apprenticeship program, or who is not an experienced, trained, and skilled person that has received training commensurate with that required for registered apprentices including related instruction and on the job training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations.

(1) On projects which the site is four or more stories, or forty or more feet (12 192 mm) in height, it shall not be a defense for any individual person, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity, responsible for hiring, or supervising workers, to maintain they did not know such worker did not complete a bona fide construction site safety training program, and that the worker was not a registered apprentice; that the worker had not completed an apprenticeship program; or that the worker did not have the experience, training, and skill as a person that has received training commensurate with that required for registered apprentices including related instruction and on the job training in accordance with the standards set forth in section eight hundred fifteen of this article and paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) of section 601.5 of title 12 of the New York codes, rules and regulations, because the individual or entity in charge of hiring and/or supervision did not ask, or was not provided such proof of completion of such requirements and qualifications by the worker. intentionally hiring an individual worker, or allowing such worker to work on such project, without being provided proof of the requirements and qualifications of this article.

- (m) Nothing in this article, shall prevent additional fines or prosecution of any individual person, contractor, sub-contractor, developer, LLC, LLP, corporation, partnership, or any other legal entity, for any violation of this section, or any other section under this article.
- § 2. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, the judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act directly involved in the controversy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.
- 18 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
