AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing the office of racial equity and social justice

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new article 15-D to read as follows:

ARTICLE 15-D

OFFICE OF RACIAL EQUITY AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Section 328-e. Definitions.

328-f. Office of racial equity and social justice; director, organization and employees.

328-g. Functions, powers and duties of the office.

§ 328-e. Definitions. As used in this article, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. "Office" means the office of racial equity and social justice.

2. "Director" means the director of the office of racial equity and social justice.

3. "Equity" means fair and just opportunities and outcomes for all individuals.

4. "Social justice" means every individual deserves to benefit from the same economic, political and social rights and opportunities, free from health disparities, regardless of race; socioeconomic status; age;

1 sex, including on the basis of gender identity or orientation; religion;
2 disability; or other characteristics.

3 5. "Race" means a social construct that artificially divides people
4 into distinct groups based on characteristics such as physical appear-
5 ance, including color; ancestral heritage; cultural affiliation;
6 cultural history; ethnic classification; and the social, economic and
7 political needs of a society at a given period.

8 6. "Inequity" means systematic and patterned differences in well-being 9 that disadvantage one group in favor of another caused by past and 10 current decisions, systems of power and privilege, and policies.

11 7. "Individual racism" means explicit or implicit pre-judgment bias or 12 discrimination by an individual based on race.

13 8. "Institutional racism" means policies, practices, and procedures
14 that work better for some members of a community than others based on 15 race.

16 9. "Racial equity and social justice" means changes in policy, prac-
17 tice and allocation of state resources so that race or social justice
18 constructs do not predict an individual's success, while also improving
19 opportunities and outcomes for all people.

20 § 328-f. Office of racial equity and social justice; director, organ-
21 ization and employees. 1. The office of racial equity and social justice
22 is hereby created within the executive department to have and exercise
23 the functions, powers and duties provided by the provisions of this
24 article and any other provision of law.

25 2. The head of the office shall be the director of the office, who 26 shall serve as the chief equity officer for the state of New York and 27 shall be designated as management confidential in the noncompetitive
28 class in accordance with the civil service law. The director shall be
29 the chief executive officer of and in sole charge of the administration
30 of the office. The director shall be entitled to receive reimbursement 31 for expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in the 32 performance of his or her duties.

33 3. The director may, from time to time, create, abolish, transfer and 34 consolidate bureaus and other units within the office not expressly
35 established by law as he or she may determine necessary for the effi-
36 cient operation of the office, subject to the approval of the director
37 of the budget.

38 4. The director may appoint, in accordance with the civil service law,
39 such deputies, assistants, and other officers and employees, committees
40 and consultants as he or she may deem necessary, prescribe their powers
41 and duties, fix their compensation, and provide for reimbursement of 42 their expenses within the amounts appropriated therefor.

43 5. The director may request and receive from any department, division,
44 board, bureau, commission or other agency of the state or any political 45 subdivision thereof or any public authority, staff and other assistance,
46 information, and resources as will enable the office to properly carry
47 out its functions, powers and duties.

48 § 328-g. Functions, powers and duties of the office. The office shall 49 have the following functions, powers and duties:

50 1. To act as the official state planning and coordinating office for 51 changes in policy, practice and allocation of state resources so that 52 race or social justice constructs do not predict an individual's 53 success, while also improving opportunities and outcomes for all people,
54 and performing all necessary and appropriate services required to 55 fulfill these duties.

1 2. To establish, oversee, manage, coordinate and facilitate the plan-
2 ning, design and implementation of the state's racial equity and social
3 justice action plan, such plan shall incorporate and embed racial equity
4 and social justice principles and strategies into operations, programs,
5 service policies and community engagement to eliminate inequity, insti-
6 tutional racism and individual racism in the state, and shall include
7 racial equity and social justice training for all state employees.

8 3. To advise and assist the state agencies in developing policies,
9 plans and programs for eliminating institutional racism and improving
10 racial equity and social justice.

11 4. To perform racial equity and social justice reviews and make recom-
12 mendations for improving management and program effectiveness pertaining 13 to racial equity and social justice, including, but not limited to, an 14 annual racial equity and social justice impact statement which shall 15 accompany the executive budget.

16 5. To establish, oversee, manage a racial equity and social justice
17 advisory committee, the composition and duties of such committee as 18 determined by the director.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect April 1, 2022.
