AN ACT to amend the real property actions and proceedings law, in relation to grounds where no landlord-tenant relationships exist in cooperative apartments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding a new section 713-b to read as follows:

§ 713-b. Grounds where no landlord tenant relationships exist in cooperative apartments. 1. A person shall not be considered a tenant for the purposes of section 7-108 of the general obligations law and sections two hundred twenty-seven-f, two hundred twenty-six-c and two hundred thirty-eight-a of the real property law, where such person:

(a) is a dwelling unit owner of a cooperative apartment or a shareholder of the ownership entity;

(b) has exclusive occupancy of such dwelling unit; and

(c) has established and delimited rights under a proprietary lease.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section seven hundred two of this article, maintenance fees, special assessments, and administrative fees collected from a unit owner by the cooperative apartment under a proprietary lease shall not be considered rent as defined in section seven hundred two of this article and may be sought in addition to rent in a summary proceeding pursuant to this article.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two hundred thirty-four of the real property law, attorney's fees may be awarded to either party in the event of default judgment if recovery of attorney's fees is provided for in a proprietary lease.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
