AN ACT to amend the election law, the criminal procedure law and the correction law, in relation to voting by people released on parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 5-106 of the election law, as 1 2 amended by chapter 373 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as 3 follows: 4 2. No person who has been convicted of a felony and sentenced to a 5 period of imprisonment for such felony pursuant to the laws of this 6 state, shall have the right to register for or vote at any election 7 [unless he shall have been pardoned or restored to the rights of citi-8 zenship by the governor, or his maximum sentence of imprisonment has expired, or he has been discharged from parole. The governor, however, 9 10 may attach as a condition to any such pardon a provision that any such 11 person shall not have the right of suffrage until it shall have been 12 separately restored to him] while he or she is incarcerated for such 13 felony. 14 § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 5-106 of the election law is amended to 15 read as follows: 3. No person who has been convicted in a federal court, of a felony, 16 17 or a crime or offense which would constitute a felony under the laws of 18 this state, and sentenced to a period of imprisonment for such felony, 19 shall have the right to register for or vote at any election [unless he 20 shall have been pardoned or restored to the rights of citizenship by the 21 president of the United States, or his maximum sentence of imprisonment has expired, or he has been discharged from parole] while he or she is 1 2 incarcerated for such felony. 3 § 3. Subdivision 4 of section 5-106 of the election law is amended to 4 read as follows: 5 4. No person who has been convicted in another state for a crime or б offense which would constitute a felony under the laws of this state and 7 sentenced to a period of imprisonment for such felony, shall have the 8 right to register for or vote at any election in this state [unless he 9 shall have been pardoned or restored to the rights of citizenship by the governor or other appropriate authority of such other state, or his 10 maximum sentence has expired, or he has been discharged from parole] 11 while he or she is incarcerated for such felony. 12 13 § 4. Section 220.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding 14 a new subdivision 8 to read as follows: 15 8. Prior to accepting a defendant's plea of guilty to a count or 16 counts of an indictment or a superior court information charging a felony offense, the court must advise the defendant on the record that 17 conviction will result in loss of the right to vote while the defendant 18 19 is serving a felony sentence in a correctional facility and that the 20 right to vote will be restored upon the defendant's release. 21 § 5. Section 380.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding 22 a new subdivision 7 to read as follows: 7. Before imposing a sentence of incarceration for a felony 23 conviction, the court must advise the defendant on the record that 24 conviction will result in the loss of the right to vote while the indi-25 26 vidual is serving a felony sentence in a correctional facility and that 27 the right to vote will be restored upon the defendant's release. § 6. Section 75 of the correction law, as amended by section 18 of 28 29 subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to 30 read as follows: 31 § 75. Notice of voting rights. [Upon] Prior to the [discharge] release 32 from a correctional facility of any person [whose maximum sentence of imprisonment has expired or upon a person's discharge from community 33 supervision,] the department shall notify such person [of his or her 34 right to vote] verbally and in writing, that his or her voting rights 35 will be restored upon release and provide such person with a form of 36 application for voter registration [together with] and a declination 37 form, offer such person assistance in filling out the appropriate form, 38 39 and provide such person written information distributed by the board of elections on the importance and the mechanics of voting. Unless such 40 41 person refuses, the department shall transmit the completed application 42 upon such person's release to the state board or local board where such 43 person resides. 44 § 7. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 510 to read 45 as follows: 46 § 510. Voting upon release. Prior to the release from a local correc-47 tional facility of any person convicted of a felony the chief adminis-48 trative officer shall notify such person verbally and in writing that 49 his or her voting rights will be restored upon release and provide such 50 person with a form of application for voter registration and a declina-51 tion form, offer such person assistance in filling out the appropriate form, and provide such person written information distributed by the 52 board of elections on the importance and the mechanics of voting. Unless 53 54 such person refuses, the chief administrative officer shall transmit the 55 completed application upon such person's release to the state board or 56 local board where such person resides.

1	§ 8. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 209 to read
2	as follows:
3	§ 209. Notice of voting rights. The department shall notify each
4	person serving a period of community supervision of his or her right to
5	vote and provide such person with a form of application for voter regis-
6	tration and a declination form, offer such person assistance in filling
7	out the appropriate form, and provide such person written information
8	distributed by the board of elections on the importance and the mechan-
9	ics of voting. Unless such person refuses, the department shall transmit
10	the completed application to the state board or local board where such
11	person resides.
12	§ 9. Section 3-102 of the election law is amended by adding a new
13	subdivision 16-b to read as follows:
14	16-b. Develop and implement a program to educate attorneys, judges,
15	election officials, corrections officials, including parole and
16	probation officers, and members of the public regarding the requirements
17	of the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-one which added this
18	subdivision.
19	§ 10. This act shall take effect immediately, provided, however, that 20	sections four, five, six, seven, eight and nine of this act shall take
21	effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a
22	law.
