Subdivision 1 of section 150.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 12 13 amended by section 1-a of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: 14 15 1. $\left[\frac{1}{2}\right]$ Whenever a police officer is authorized pursuant to section 16 140.10 of this title to arrest a person without a warrant for an offense other than a class A, B, C or D felony or a violation of section 130.25, 17 18 130.40, 205.10, 205.17, 205.19 or 215.56 of the penal law, he [shall, 19 except as set out in paragraph (b) of this subdivision] or she may, 20 subject to the provisions of subdivisions three and four of section 21 150.40 of this [title] article, instead issue to and serve upon such 22 person an appearance ticket. [(b) An officer is not required to issue an appearance ticket if: 23 (i) the person has one or more outstanding local griminal gourt 24 25 superior court warrants; 26 (ii) the person has failed to appear in court proceedings in the last 27 two years; (iii) the person has been given a reasonable opportunity to make their 28 verifiable identity and a method of contact known, and has been unable 29 30 or unwilling to do so, so that a custodial arrest is necessary to 31 subject the individual to the jurisdiction of the court. For the 32 purposes of this section, an officer may rely on various factors to 33 determine a person's identity, including but not limited to personal 34 knowledge of such person, such person's self-identification, or photo-35 graphic identification. There is no requirement that a person present photographic identification in order to be issued an appearance ticket 36 in lieu of arrest where the person's identity is otherwise verifiable; 37 however, if offered by such person, an officer shall accept as evidence 38 of identity the following: a valid driver's lisense or non-driver iden-39 tification card issued by the commissioner of motor vehicles, the feder-40 al government, any United States territory, commonwealth or possession, 41 42 the District of Columbia, a state government or municipal government within the United States or a provincial government of the dominion of 43 44 Canada; a valid passport issued by the United States government or any 45 other country; an identification card issued by the armed forces of the 46 United States; a public benefit card, as defined in paragraph (a) of 47 subdivision one of section 158.00 of the penal law; 48 (iv) the person is charged with a crime between members of the same 49 family or household, as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this chapter; 50 51 (v) the person is charged with a crime defined in article 130 of the 52 penal law; 53 (vi) it reasonably appears the person should be brought before the 54 court for consideration of issuance of an order of protection, pursuant 55 to section 530.13 of this chapter, based on the facts of the crime or offense that the officer has reasonable cause to believe occurred; 56

1	(vii) the person is charged with a crime for which the court may
2	suspend or revoke his or her driver license;
3	(viii) it reasonably appears to the officer, based on the observed
4	behavior of the individual in the present contact with the officer and
5	facts regarding the person's condition that indicates a sign of distress
6	to such a degree that the person would face harm without immediate
7	medical or mental health care, that bringing the person before the court
8	would be in such person's interest in addressing that need; provided,
9	however, that before making the arrest, the officer shall make all
10	reasonable efforts to assist the person in securing appropriate services.
11
12	§ 4. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
13	150.30 to read as follows:
14	§ 150.30 Appearance ticket; issuance and service thereof after arrest
15	upon posting of pre-arraignment bail. 1. Issuance and service of an appearance ticket by a police officer
16 17
18	following an arrest without a warrant, as prescribed in subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article, may be made conditional upon the
19	posting of a sum of money, known as pre-arraignment bail. In such case,
20	the bail becomes forfeit upon failure of such person to comply with the
20	directions of the appearance ticket. The person posting such bail must
22	complete and sign a form which states (a) the name, residential address
23	and occupation of each person posting cash bail; and (b) the title of
24	the criminal action or proceeding involved; and (c) the offense or
25	offenses which are the subjects of the action or proceeding involved,
26	and the status of such action or proceeding; and (d) the name of the
27	principal and the nature of his or her involvement in or connection with
28	such action or proceeding; and (e) the date of the principal's next
29	appearance in court; and (f) an acknowledgement that the cash bail will
30	be forfeited if the principal does not comply with the directions of the
31	appearance ticket; and (q) the amount of money posted as cash bail. Such
32	pre-arraignment bail may be posted as provided in subdivision two or
33	three of this section.
34	2. A desk officer in charge at a police station, county jail, or
35	police headquarters, or any of his or her superior officers, may in such
36	place, fix pre-arraignment bail, in an amount prescribed in this subdi-
37	vision, and upon the posting thereof must issue and serve an appearance
38	ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail, and
39	release such person from custody. Such pre-arraignment bail may be fixed
40	in the following amounts:
41	(a) If the arrest was for a class E felony, any amount not exceeding
42	seven hundred fifty dollars.
43	(b) If the arrest was for a class A misdemeanor, any amount not
44	exceeding five hundred dollars.
45	(c) If the arrest was for a class B misdemeanor or an unclassified
46	misdemeanor, any amount not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars.
47	(d) If the arrest was for a petty offense, any amount not exceeding
48	one hundred dollars.
49	3. A police officer, who has arrested a person without a warrant
50	pursuant to subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article for a
51	traffic infraction, may, where he or she reasonably believes that such
52	arrested person is not licensed to operate a motor vehicle by this state
53	or any state covered by a reciprocal compact guaranteeing appearance as
54	is provided in section five hundred seventeen of the vehicle and traffic
55	law, fix pre-arraignment bail in the amount of fifty dollars; provided,
56	however, such bail shall be posted by means of a credit card or similar

Upon the posting thereof, said officer must issue and serve an 1 device. 2 appearance ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail, 3 and release such person from custody. 4 4. The chief administrator of the courts shall establish a system for 5 the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of credit card or similar б device, as is provided by section two hundred twelve of the judiciary 7 law. The head of each police department or police force and of any state 8 department, agency, board, commission or public authority having police 9 officers who fix pre-arraignment bail as provided herein may elect to use the system established by the chief administrator or may establish 10 11 such other system for the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of credit card or similar device as he or she may deem appropriate. 12 § 5. Subdivision 1 of section 150.40 of the criminal procedure law, as 13 14 amended by section 8 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is 15 amended to read as follows: 16 1. An appearance ticket must be made returnable [at a date as soon as 17 possible, but in no event later than twenty days from the date of issuance; or at the next scheduled session of the appropriate local criminal 18 court if such session is scheduled to occur more than twenty days from 19 20 the date of issuance; or at a later date, with the court's permission 21 due to enrollment in a pre-arraignment diversion program. The appearance ticket shall be made returnable] in a local criminal court designated in 22 section 100.55 of this title as one with which an information for the 23 24 offense in question may be filed. 25 § 6. Subdivision 1 of section 150.50 of the criminal procedure law, as 26 amended by chapter 450 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 27 follows: 28 1. A police officer or other public servant who has issued and served 29 an appearance ticket must, at or before the time such appearance ticket 30 is returnable, file or cause to be filed with the local criminal court 31 in which it is returnable a local criminal court accusatory instrument 32 charging the person named in such appearance ticket with the offense specified therein[; provided, however, that no separate accusatory 33 instrument shall be required to be filed for an appearance ticket issued 34 35 for a parking infraction which conforms to the requirements set forth in 36 paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 1.20 of this chapter]. Noth-37 ing herein contained shall authorize the use of a simplified information 38 when not authorized by law. 39 § 7. Section 150.80 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED. 40 § 8. Subdivisions 3-a, 3-b, 21 and 22 of section 500.10 of the crimi-41 nal procedure law are REPEALED. 42 § 9. Subdivisions 5, 6, 7 and 9 of section 500.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 1-e of part JJJ of chapter 59 of 43 44 the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows: 45 5. "Securing order" means an order of a court committing a principal 46 to the custody of the sheriff or fixing bail, [where authorized,] or 47 releasing the principal on the principal's own recognizance [or releasing the principal under non-monetary conditions]. 48 6. "Order of recognizance or bail" means a securing order releasing a 49 50 principal on the principal's own recognizance or [under non-monetary 51 conditions or, where authorized,] fixing bail. 7. "Application for recognizance or bail" means an application by a 52 53 principal that the court, instead of committing the principal to or 54 retaining the principal in the custody of the sheriff, either release 55 the principal on the principal's own recognizance [7 release under non-56 monetary conditions, or, where authorized,] or fix bail.

"Bail" means cash bail[7] or a bail bond [or money paid with a 1 9. 2 eredit card]. § 10. Section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 3 section 2 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 and subdivision 4 5 4 as amended by section 2 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows: б 7 § 510.10 Securing order; when required[+ alternatives available; stand-8 ard to be applied]. 9 1. When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal 10 action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the control of a court, such court shall[, in accordance with this title,] 11 by a securing order, either release the principal on the principal's own 12 13 recognizance, [release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or, 14 where authorized,] fix bail or commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. [In all such cases, except where another type of securing 15 16 order is shown to be required by law, the court shall release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance, unless it is 17 demonstrated and the court makes an individualized determination that 18 the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution. If such a 19 20 finding is made, the court must select the least restrictive alternative 21 and condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of release, release 22 with conditions, bail or remand on the record or in writing. 23 2. A principal is entitled to representation by counsel under this 24 chapter in preparing an application for release, when a securing order 25 26 is being considered and when a securing order is being reviewed for 27 modification, revocation or termination. If the principal is financially unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the principal. 28 3. In cases other than as described in subdivision four of this 29 30 section the court shall release the principal pending trial on the prin-31 cipal's own recognigance, unless the court finds on the record or in writing that release on the principal's own recognizance will not reasonably assure the principal's return to court. In such instances, 32 33 the court shall release the principal under non-monetary conditions, 34 35 selecting the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall 36 37 explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in 38 writing. 39 4. Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release 40 41 the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under 42 non-monetary conditions, fix bail, or, where the defendant is charged 43 with a qualifying offense which is a felony, the court may commit the 44 principal to the custody of the sheriff. 6	principal's release. If the court determines that no condition or combi-
7	nation of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the prin-
8	cipal and the safety of any other person of the community, the court
9	shall order detention without bail.
10	3. If the principal is arrested during the interim period while await-
11	ing a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise
12	terminate the securing order and issue a new securing order taking into
13	account the subsequent arrest.

31 3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the 32 principal, if the principal is a defendant charged with the commission of a felony, that the release is conditional and that the court may 33 34 revoke the order of release and [may be authorized] to commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with the provisions of 35 36 subdivision two of section 530.60 of this [chapter] title if the princi-37 pal commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon such order.

38 § 13. Section 510.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 6 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 and paragraph 39 (c) of subdivision 4 as amended by section 7 of part UU of chapter 56 of 40 41 the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

42 § 510.40 [Court notification to principal of conditions of release and of alleged violations of conditions of release] Application 43 for recognizance or bail; determination thereof, form of 44 45 securing order and execution thereof.

46 1. An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a 47 securing order which either:

48 (a) Grants the application and releases the principal on his or her 49 own recognizance; or

50 (b) Grants the application and fixes bail; or

51 (c) Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains 52 him or her in, the custody of the sheriff.

53 2. Upon ordering that a principal be released on the principal's own 54 recognizance, [or released under non-monetary conditions, or, if bail 55 has been fixed, upon the posting of bail,] the court must direct the 56 principal to appear in the criminal action or proceeding involved when1 ever the principal's attendance may be required and to [be] render the 2 principal at all times amenable to the orders and processes of the 3 court. If such principal is in the custody of the sheriff or at liberty 4 upon bail at the time of the order, the court must direct that the prin-5 cipal be discharged from such custody or, as the case may be, that the 6 principal's bail be exonerated.

7 [2.] 3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail $[\frac{1}{7}$ where authorized, 8 and upon the posting thereof, the court must examine the bail to deter-9 mine whether it complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in 10 the absence of some factor or circumstance which in law requires or authorizes disapproval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a 11 certificate of release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and, 12 13 if the principal is in the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing 14 the sheriff to discharge the principal therefrom. If the bail fixed is 15 not posted, or is not approved after being posted, the court must order 16 that the principal be committed to the custody of the sheriff. [In the 17 event of any such non-approval, the court shall explain promptly in writing the reasons therefor. 18

3. Non-monetary conditions of release shall be individualized and 19 20 established in writing by the court. At future court appearances, the 21 court shall consider a lessening of conditions or modification of conditions to a less burdensome form based on the principal's compliance with 22 such conditions of release. In the event of alleged non-compliance with 23 the conditions of release in an important respect, pursuant to this 24 subdivision, additional conditions may be imposed by the court, on the 25 26 record or in writing, only after notice of the facts and circumstances of such alleged non-compliance, reasonable under the circumstances, affording the principal and the principal's attorney and the people an 27 28 29 opportunity to present relevant, admissible evidence, relevant witnesses 30 and to cross-examine witnesses, and a finding by clear and convincing 31 evidence that the principal violated a condition of release in an impor-32 tant respect. Following such a finding, in determining whether to impose 33 additional conditions for non-compliance, the court shall consider and may select conditions consistent with the court's obligation to impose 34 35 the least restrictive condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain on the 36 record or in writing the reasons for its determination and for any 37 38 changes to the conditions imposed. 39

39 4. (a) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be ordered 40 only if the court finds, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and an 41 individualized determination explained on the record or in writing, that 42 the defendant qualifies for electronic monitoring in accordance with 43 subdivision twenty-one of section 500.10 of this title, and no other 44 realistic non-monetary condition or set of non-monetary conditions will 45 suffice to reasonably assure a principal's return to court.

(b) The specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive procedure and method that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent practicable.

50 (c) Electronic monitoring of the location of a principal may be 51 conducted only by a public entity under the supervision and control of a 52 county or municipality or a non-profit entity under contract to the 53 county, municipality or the state. A county or municipality shall be 54 authorized to enter into a contract with another county or municipality 55 in the state to monitor principals under non-monetary conditions of 56 release in its county, but counties, municipalities and the state shall not contract with any private for profit entity for such purposes. 1 2 Counties, municipalities and the state may contract with a private for-3 profit entity to supply electronic monitoring devices or other items, 4 provided that any interaction with persons under electronic monitoring or the data produced by such monitoring shall be conducted solely by 5 б employees of a county, municipality, the state, or a non-profit entity 7 under contract with such county, municipality or the state. 8 (d) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be for a maxi-9 mum period of sixty days, and may be renewed for such period, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and a de novo, individualized deter-10 mination in accordance with this subdivision, which shall be explained 11 on the record or in writing. 12 A defendant subject to electronic location monitoring under this 13 subdivision shall be considered held or confined in custody for purposes 14 of section 180.80 of this chapter and shall be considered committed to 15 16 the custody of the sheriff for purposes of section 170.70 of the chapter, as applicable. 17 5. If a principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the court 18 shall, on the record and in an individualized written document provided 19 to the principal, notify the principal, in plain language and a manner 20 21 sufficiently clear and specific: (a) of any conditions to which the principal is subject, to serve as a 22 23 guide for the principal's conduct; and (b) that the possible consequences for violation of such a condition 24 25 may include revocation of the securing order and the ordering of a more 26 restrictive securing order.] 27 § 14. Sections 510.43 and 510.45 of the criminal procedure law are 28 REPEALED. § 15. Section 510.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 29 30 section 9 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 31 read as follows: § 510.50 Enforcement of securing order. 32 33 [1-] When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the 34 sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular 35 time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the sheriff to produce the principal at such time and place. If the princi-36 pal is at liberty on the principal's own recognizance [or non-monetary 37 conditions] or on bail, the principal's attendance may be achieved or 38 39 compelled by various methods, including notification and the issuance of 40 a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters 41 with respect to the particular kind of action or proceeding involved. 42 [2. Except when the principal is charged with a new crime while at liberty, absent relevant, credible evidence demonstrating that a princi-43 44 pal's failure to appear for a scheduled court appearance was willful, 45 the court, prior to issuing a bench warrant for a failure to appear for 46 a scheduled court appearance, shall provide at least forty-eight hours notice to the principal or the principal's counsel that the principal is 47 required to appear, in order to give the principal an opportunity to 48 49 appear voluntarily.] 50 § 16. In addition, if the act which consti-8 tutes the violation of the order of protection or temporary order of 9 protection is a crime or a violation the defendant may be charged with 10 and tried for that crime or violation. 11 20. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 530.13 of the § criminal procedure law, as amended by section 14 of part JJJ of chapter 12 13 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: 14 When any criminal action is pending, and the court has not issued a temporary order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this arti-15 16 cle, the court, in addition to the other powers conferred upon it by 17 this chapter, may for good cause shown issue a temporary order of protection in conjunction with any securing order committing the defend-18 19 ant to the custody of the sheriff or as a condition of a pre-trial 20 release, or as a condition of release on bail or an adjournment in 21 contemplation of dismissal. In addition to any other conditions, such an 22 order may require that the defendant: § 21. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal 23 procedure law, as amended by section 13 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the 24 25 laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: 26 (a) revoke an order of recognizance [7 release under non-monetary conditions] or bail and commit the defendant to custody; or 27 § 22. Section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a 28 29 new section 530.20 is added to read as follows: 30 § 530.20 Order of recognizance or bail; by local criminal court when 31 action is pending therein. 32 When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance 33 or bail as follows: 34 35 1. When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified informa-36 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense 37 or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recog-38 nizance or bail. 39 2. When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as 40 41 otherwise provided in this subdivision: 42 (a) A city court, a town court or a village court may not order recog-43 nizance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony, 44 or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony 45 convictions; 46 (b) No local criminal court may order recognizance or bail with 47 respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and until: (i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after know-48 ledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be 49 heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived 50 his or her right to do so; and 51 52 (ii) The court has been furnished with a report of the division of 53 criminal justice services concerning the defendant's criminal record if 54 any or with a police department report with respect to the defendant's prior arrest record. If neither report is available, the court, with the 55 consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this requirement; 56 provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not limited to a 1 substantial impairment in the ability of such division or police depart-2 3 ment to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not be required if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it unnecessary. 4 5 When the court has been furnished with any such report or record, it б shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or, if the 7 defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant. 8 3. The court shall make an individualized determination if: (a) the 9 defendant poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution; (b) the defendant 10 poses a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's 11 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior court proceedings; or (c) the defendant poses a risk of endangering the 12 13 safety of any other person or the community. If the court finds that the 14 defendant poses a risk of flight or a risk of failure to appear but does not pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the 15 16 community, the court shall release the defendant subject to the lowest 17 reasonable bail and/or the least restrictive further condition or combi-18 nation of conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the 19 defendant considering the nature and circumstances of the charged 20 offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of 21 the defendant, and the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the defendant's release. If the court determines that no condition or combi-22 nation of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the 23 defendant and the safety of any other person of the community, the court 24 25 shall order detention without bail. 26 4. If the defendant is arrested during the interim period while await-27 ing a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise terminate the previous order and issue a new order taking into account 28 29 the subsequent arrest. 30 5. (a) All orders issued under this section where the defendant is 31 incarcerated solely because of said order shall be reviewed and re-eval-32 uated by the court no later than: 33 (i) every four weeks thereafter where a class A misdemeanor is the 34 highest grade offense; 35 (ii) every six weeks thereafter where a class E felony is the highest 36 grade offense; 37 (iii) every eight weeks thereafter where a class D felony is the high-38 est grade offense; 39 (iv) every ten weeks thereafter where a class C felony is the highest 40 grade offense; or 41 (v) every twelve weeks thereafter where a class B felony is the high-42 est grade offense. 43 (b) Upon such review or re-evaluation, the court shall reconsider 44 whether the defendant should be released on personal recognizance or 45 upon posting reduced bail in the interests of justice after considering 46 the length of time the defendant has already been incarcerated, the likely sentence that would be imposed if the defendant were found quilty 47 48 or pled guilty to the charged offense, the nature and circumstances of the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and charac-49 teristics of the defendant, the nature and seriousness of the danger 50 51 posed by the defendant's release, and whether the principal should be released subject to a further condition, or combination of conditions, 52 53 that reasonably justifies the release of the defendant on personal 54 recognizance or reduced bail, and such other factors in the interests of 55 justice as reasonably determined by the court based on an individualized 56 determination as to whether and to what extent that the defendant continues to pose a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, continues to 1 pose a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's 2 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior 3 4 court proceedings, or continues to pose a risk of endangering the safety 5 of any other person or the community. If the court determines that no б condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the appearance of the defendant and the safety of any other person of the 7 8 community, the court shall continue to detain the defendant without bail 9 or without a reduction in the amount of the bail. 10 § 23. The section heading and subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 530.30 11 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 17 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows: 12 13 Order of recognizance[, release under non-monetary conditions] or bail; 14 by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court. 15 1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other 16 than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge 17 of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon application of a defendant, may order recognizance[, release under non-monetary 18 conditions] or[, where authorized,] bail when such local criminal court: 19 20 (a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to the relevant 21 provisions of section 530.20 of this article; or 22 (b) Has denied an application for recognizance [7 release under non-23 monetary conditions] or bail; or (c) Has fixed bail[, where authorized,] which is excessive[; or 24 25 (d) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions 26 which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably assure the 27 defendant's return to court]. In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such 28 29 local criminal court and release the defendant on his or her own recog-30 nizance [or under non-monetary conditions,] or [where authorized,] fix 31 bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form[, whichever are the 32 least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure 33 the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in writing]. 34 35 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, 36 when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a superior court judge may not order recognizance, [release under non mon-37 etary conditions] or[, where authorized,] bail unless and until the 38 39 district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such judge [and counsel for the defendant have] has been furnished with 40 41 a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivi-42 sion two of section 530.20 of this article. 24. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a 43 § new section 530.40 is added to read as follows: 44 45 § 530.40 Order of recognizance or bail; by superior court when action is 46 pending therein. 47 When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, 48 upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance or bail 49 as follows: 50 1. When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less 51 than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail. 52 2. When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its 53 discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an 54 indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed 55 56 at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a 1 in 2 superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which 3 is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a 4 direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order. 5 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section, б a superior court may not order recognizance or bail, or permit a defendant to remain at liberty pursuant to an existing order, after the 7 8 defendant has been convicted of either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any 9 class B or class C felony defined in article one hundred thirty of the 10 penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen 11 years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age. In either case the court must commit or remand the defendant to the 12 custody of the sheriff. 13 14 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section, 15 a superior court may not order recognizance or bail when the defendant 16 is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had 17 an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such court has been furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph 18 19 (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article. 20 5. The court shall make an individualized determination if: (a) the 21 defendant poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution; (b) the defendant poses a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's 22 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior 23 court proceedings; or (c) the defendant poses a risk of endangering the 24 25 safety of any other person or the community. If the court finds that the 26 defendant poses a risk of flight or a risk of failure to appear but does 27 not pose a risk of endangering the safety of any other person or the community, the court shall release the defendant subject to the lowest 28 29 reasonable bail and/or the least restrictive further condition or combi-30 nation of conditions that will reasonably ensure the appearance of the 31 defendant considering the nature and circumstances of the charged 32 offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characteristics of 33 the defendant, and the nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the 34 defendant's release. If the court determines that no condition or combi-35 nation of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the 36 defendant and the safety of any other person of the community, the court 37 shall order detention without bail. 38 6. If the defendant is arrested during the interim period while awaiting a preliminary hearing or trial, the court shall revoke or otherwise 39 terminate the previous order and issue a new order taking into account 40 41 the subsequent arrest. 42 7. (a) All orders issued under this section where the defendant is 43 incarcerated solely because of said order shall be reviewed and re-eval-44 uated by the court no later than: 45 (i) every four weeks thereafter where a class A misdemeanor is the 46 highest grade offense; 47 (ii) every six weeks thereafter where a class E felony is the highest 48 grade offense; 49 (iii) every eight weeks thereafter where a class D felony is the high-50 est grade offense; 51 (iv) every ten weeks thereafter where a class C felony is the highest 52 grade offense; or 53 (v) every twelve weeks thereafter where a class B felony is the high-54 est grade offense. (b) Upon such review or re-evaluation, the court shall reconsider 55 56 whether the defendant should be released on personal recognizance or upon posting reduced bail in the interests of justice after considering 1 the length of time the defendant has already been incarcerated, the 2 likely sentence that would be imposed if the defendant were found guilty 3 4 or pled guilty to the charged offense, the nature and circumstances of 5 the charged offense, the weight of the evidence, the history and characб teristics of the defendant, the nature and seriousness of the danger 7 posed by the defendant's release, and whether the principal should be 8 released subject to a further condition, or combination of conditions, 9 that reasonably justifies the release of the defendant on personal 10 recognizance or reduced bail, and such other factors in the interests of 11 justice as reasonably determined by the court based on an individualized determination as to whether and to what extent that the defendant 12 continues to pose a risk of flight to avoid prosecution, continues to 13 14 pose a risk of failing to appear in court based on the defendant's 15 record of a prior criminal conviction or failure to appear in prior 16 court proceedings, or continues to pose a risk of endangering the safety 17 of any other person or the community. If the court determines that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably ensure the 18 19 appearance of the defendant and the safety of any other person of the 20 community, the court shall continue to detain the defendant without bail 21 or without a reduction in the amount of the bail. 22 § 25. Subdivision 1 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law, 23 as amended by section 19 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, 24 is amended to read as follows: 1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action 25 26 as a result of a prior order of recognizance [, release under non-mone-27 tary conditions] or bail and the court revokes such order and then[τ where authorized,] either fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater 28 amount or in a more burdensome form than was previously fixed and 29 30 remands or commits defendant to the custody of the sheriff, [or issues a 31 more restrictive securing order,] a judge designated in subdivision two 32 of this section, upon application of the defendant following conviction 33 of an offense other than a class A felony or a class B or class C felony offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law 34 35 committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age 36 or older against a person less than eighteen years of age, and before 37 sentencing, may issue a securing order and either release the defendant on the defendant's own recognizance, [release the defendant under non-38 monetary conditions,] or [, where authorized,] fix bail or fix bail in a 39 lesser amount or in a less burdensome form[, or issue a less restrictive 40 41 securing order,] than fixed by the court in which the conviction was 42 entered. 26. Subdivision 2-a of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law 43 8 44 is REPEALED. 45 § 27. Section 530.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 46 chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, subdivision 1 as designated and subdi-47 vision 2 as added by section 10 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows: 48 49 § 530.50 Order of recognizance or bail; during pendency of appeal. 50 [1-] A judge who is otherwise authorized pursuant to section 460.50 or 51 [section] 460.60 of this chapter to issue an order of recognizance or 52 bail pending the determination of an appeal, may do so unless the 53 defendant received a class A felony sentence or a sentence for any class 54 B or class C felony offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the 55 penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen 56 years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age.

[2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision four of section 1 510.10, paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 530.20 and subdivi-2 sion four of section 530.40 of this title, when a defendant charged with 3 an offense that is not such a qualifying offense applies, pending deter-4 5 mination of an appeal, for an order of recognizance or release on non-6 monetary conditions, where authorized, or fixing bail, a judge identified in subdivision two of section 460.50 or paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 460.60 of this shapter may, in accordance 7 8 9 with law, and except as otherwise provided by law, issue a securing order: releasing the defendant on the defendant's own recognizance or 10 11 under non-monetary conditions where authorized, fixing bail, or remanding the defendant to the custody of the sheriff where authorized.] 12

§ 28. Section 530.60 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 13 14 section 20 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 15 read as follows:

§ 530.60 [Certain modifications of a securing order] Order of recogni-16 17 zance or bail; revocation thereof.

18 1. Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance[, release 19 20 under non-monetary conditions] or bail issued pursuant to this chapter, 21 and the court considers it necessary to review such order, [whether due to a motion by the people or otherwise,] the court may, and [except as 22 provided in subdivision two of section 510.50 of this title concerning a 23 failure to appear in court] by a bench warrant if necessary, require 24 25 the defendant to appear before the court. Upon such appearance, the 26 court, for good cause shown, may revoke the order of recognizance $[\tau]$ 27 release under non-monetary conditions,] or bail. If the defendant is 28 entitled to recognizance[, release under non-monetary conditions,] or bail as a matter of right, the court must issue another such order. If 29 30 the defendant is not, the court may either issue such an order or commit 31 the defendant to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with this 32 section.

33 Where the defendant is committed to the custody of the sheriff and is 34 held on a felony complaint, a new period as provided in section 180.80 35 of this chapter shall commence to run from the time of the defendant's 36 commitment under this subdivision.

37 2. (a) Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a 38 defendant charged with the commission of a felony is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance, [release under non-monetary condi-39 tions] or bail issued pursuant to this article it shall be grounds for 40 41 revoking such order that the court finds reasonable cause to believe the 42 defendant committed one or more specified class A or violent felony offenses or intimidated a victim or witness in violation of section 43 44 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law while at liberty.

45 [(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any 46 other law, whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant charged with the commission of an offense is at liberty as a 47 result of an order of recognizance, release under non-monetary condi-48 tions or bail issued pursuant to this article it shall be grounds for 49 revoking such order and fixing bail in such criminal action or proceed-50 51 ing when the court has found, by clear and convincing evidence, that the 52 defendant: (i) persistently and willfully failed to appear after notice of sched-

The defendant may cross-examine witnesses and may 14 present relevant, admissible evidence on his own behalf. Such hearing 15 16 may be consolidated with, and conducted at the same time as, a felony 17 hearing conducted pursuant to article one hundred eighty of this chap-18 ter. A transcript of testimony taken before the grand jury upon presentation of the subsequent offense shall be admissible as evidence during 19 20 the hearing. The district attorney may move to introduce grand jury 21 testimony of a witness in lieu of that witness' appearance at the hear-22 ing. [(d)] (b) Revocation of an order of recognizance[, release under non-23 24 monetary conditions] or bail and [a new securing order fixing bail or] 25 commitment[, as specified in this paragraph and] pursuant to this subdi-26 vision shall be for the following periods, either: [(i) Under paragraph (a) of this subdivision, revocation of the order 27 of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or, as the case 28 may be, bail, and a new securing order fixing bail or committing the 29 30 defendant to the custody of the sheriff shall be as follows: 31 (Λ)] (i) For a period not to exceed ninety days exclusive of any peri-32 ods of adjournment requested by the defendant; or 33 [(B)] (ii) Until the charges contained within the accusatory instru-34 ment have been reduced or dismissed such that no count remains which charges the defendant with commission of a felony; or 35 36 [(C)] (iii) Until reduction or dismissal of the charges contained 37 within the accusatory instrument charging the subsequent offense such that no count remains which charges the defendant with commission of a 38 39 class A or violent felony offense. Upon expiration of any of the three periods specified within this 40 41 [subparagraph] paragraph, whichever is shortest, the court may grant or 42 deny release upon an order of bail or recognizance in accordance with 43 the provisions of this article. Upon conviction to an offense the 44 provisions of this article [five hundred thirty of this chapter] shall 45 apply[; and]. 46 [(ii) Under paragraph (b) of this subdivision, revocation of the order 47 of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or, as the case may be, bail shall result in the issuance of a new securing order which 48 may, if otherwise authorized by law, permit the principal's release on 49 recognizance or release under non-monetary conditions, but shall also 50 51 render the defendant eligible for an order fixing bail provided, howev-52 er, that in accordance with the principles in this title the court must 53 select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions 54 that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. Nothing in 55 this subparagraph shall be interpreted as shortening the period of detention, or requiring or authorizing any less restrictive form of a securing order, which may be imposed pursuant to any other law.

3 (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) [or (b)] of 4 this subdivision a defendant, against whom a felony complaint has been 5 filed which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or б violent felony offense [or violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 7 of the penal law] committed while he or she was at liberty as specified 8 therein, may be committed to the custody of the sheriff pending a revo-9 cation hearing for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours. An addi-10 tional period not to exceed seventy-two hours may be granted by the 11 court upon application of the district attorney upon a showing of good cause or where the failure to commence the hearing was due to the 12 defendant's request or occurred with his or her consent. Such good cause 13 14 must consist of some compelling fact or circumstance which precluded 15 conducting the hearing within the initial prescribed period.

16 § 29. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 9 of section 216.05 of the criminal 17 procedure law, as amended by section 21 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the 18 laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:
