IN ASSEMBLY

February 16, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. QUART -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to judgments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 5011 of the civil practice law and rules, as 2 amended by section 52 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws
3 of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

4 § 5011. Definition and content of judgment. A judgment is the determi-
5 nation of the rights of the parties in an action or special proceeding
6 and may be either interlocutory or final. A judgment shall refer to, and 7 state the result of, the verdict or decision, or recite the default upon 8 which it is based. A judgment may direct that property be paid into 9 court when the party would not have the benefit or use or control of 10 such property or where special circumstances make it desirable that 11 payment or delivery to the party entitled to it should be withheld.

12 Estimations, measures, or calculations of past, present, or future 13 damages for lost earnings or impaired earning capacity resulting from 14 personal injury or wrongful death shall not be reduced based on race, 15 creed, color, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender 16 identity or expression, military status, sex, familial status, marital 17 status, or status as a victim of domestic violence. In any case where

18 damages are awarded to an inmate serving a sentence of imprisonment with 19 the state department of corrections and community supervision or to a 20 prisoner confined at a local correctional facility, the court shall give 21 prompt written notice to the office of victim services, and at the same 22 time shall direct that no payment be made to such inmate or prisoner for 23 a period of thirty days following the date of entry of the order
24 containing such direction.

25 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
