IN ASSEMBLY

February 16, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. SEAWRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to requiring counseling for certain domestic violence offenders

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 65.10 of the penal law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 6 to read as follows:

3 6. Mandatory conditions for domestic violence cases. When imposing a 4 sentence of probation for a crime or offense involving domestic 5 violence, the court shall require, in addition to any other conditions 6 imposed pursuant to this section, the defendant to receive professional 7 counseling from either a private source or a source appointed by the 8 court, but in either case, such counseling shall be conducted by a 9 person who has demonstrated expertise in individual or group domestic 10 violence counseling. The court shall require the defendant to provide 11 documentation of attendance at such professional counseling.

12 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 60.38 to read as 13 follows:

14 § 60.38 Mandatory counseling for domestic violence cases.

15 In any case where the court suspends the imposition of a sentence for 16 a crime or offense involving domestic violence, the court shall require, 17 in addition to any other conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter, 18 the defendant to receive professional counseling from either a private 19 source or a source appointed by the court, but in either case, such 20 counseling shall be conducted by a person who has demonstrated expertise 21 in individual or group domestic violence counseling. The court shall 22 require the defendant to provide documentation of attendance at such 23 professional counseling.

24 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
