Introduced by M. of A. SOLAGES, GOTTFRIED, HEVESI, JACOBSON, WALLACE, SIMON, FERNANDEZ, DeSTEFANO, NOLAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, the education law and the penal law, in relation to prohibiting virginity examinations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding two new sections 230-f and 267-a to read as follows:

§ 230-f. Unauthorized virginity examinations. For the purposes of this title, professional misconduct shall include the performance of virginity examinations or supervising the performance of virginity examinations in violation of section two hundred sixty-seven-a of this article.

§ 267-a. Prohibition of virginity examinations. 1. For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Virginity examination" shall mean any practice or procedure used to determine whether a female has previously had sexual intercourse.

(b) "Medical setting" shall mean any location where licensed medical practitioners are authorized to provide health care to individuals, including, but not limited to, hospitals, long-term care facilities, physician's offices, urgent-care centers and outpatient clinics.

2. No licensed medical practitioner shall perform a virginity examination or supervise the performance of a virginity examination on a patient.

3. (a) Any licensed medical practitioner who performs a virginity examination in violation of this section shall be subject to penalties for professional misconduct pursuant to subarticle three of article one hundred thirty of the education law.

(b) Any licensed medical practitioner who performs or supervises the performance of a virginity examination on an individual in a non-medical setting shall be subject to penalties for sexual abuse in the first
