- AN ACT to amend the public health law, the state finance law and part H of chapter 59 of the laws of 2011, amending the public health law and other laws relating to known and projected department of health state fund Medicaid expenditures, in relation to fair pay for home care aides

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 3614-f to read as follows:

3 § 3614-f. Fair pay for home care. 1. For the purpose of this section,
4 "home care aide" shall have the same meaning defined in section thirty-
5 six hundred fourteen-c of this article.

6 2. Beginning January first, two thousand twenty-three, the minimum 7 wage for a home care aide shall be no less than one hundred and fifty 8 percent of the higher of: (a) the otherwise applicable minimum wage 9 under section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law, or (b) any other-

1	wise applicable wage rule or order under article nineteen of the labor
2	law.
3	3. Where any home care aide is paid less than required by this
4	section, the home care aide, or the commissioner of labor acting on 5	behalf of the home care aide, may bring an action under article six or
6	nineteen of the labor law.
7	4. (a) The commissioner shall establish a regional minimum hourly base
8	reimbursement rate for all providers employing workers subject to the 9	minimum wage provisions established in subdivision one of this section.
10	The regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rate shall be based on 11	regions established by the commissioner, provided that for areas subject
12	to section thirty-six hundred fourteen-c of this article, each area with 13	a different prevailing rate of total compensation, as defined in that
14^{13}	section, shall be its own region.
15	(b) For the purposes of this section, "regional minimum hourly base
16	reimbursement rate" means a reimbursement rate that reflects the average
17	combined costs associated with the provision of direct service inclusive
18	of, but not limited to, overtime costs; all benefits; all payroll taxes,
19	including but not limited to federal insurance contributions act, medi-
20	care, federal unemployment tax act, state unemployment insurance, disa-
21	bility insurance, workers' compensation, and the metropolitan transpor-
22	tation authority tax; related increases tied to base wages such as
23	compression; reasonable administrative costs as defined by the commis-
24	sioner; allowances for capital costs; the development of profit or 25	reserves as allowable by law or regulations of the commissioner; and any 26	additional supplemental payments.
27	5. (a) The initial regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rate
28	shall be no less than the following:
29	(i) thirty-eight dollars and fifty cents per hour in the wage parity
30	region, encompassing all counties subject to section thirty-six hundred
31	fourteen of this article; and
32	(ii) thirty-eight dollars and eighteen cents per hour for the counties
33	in the remainder of the state.
34	(b) For consumer directed personal assistance services provided under 35	section three hundred sixty-five-f of the social services law, the 36	initial regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rate shall reflect
37	the rates established in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, provided
38	that the commissioner may reduce such rates by no more than twelve and 39	nine-tenths percent. In the event that such reduction occurs, a per 40	member, per month increase reflective of actual administrative and
41	general costs, adjusted to reflect regional differences as regions are
42	defined in this section, shall be made to fiscal intermediaries adminis-
42 43	tering such programs. If the department or a managed care organization
44 44	chooses not to utilize the per member, per month payment established
45	pursuant to this paragraph, the regional minimum hourly base reimburse-
45 46	ment rate for that region, as defined in paragraph (a) of this subdivi-
40 47	sion, shall apply.
	6. No payment made to a provider who employs home care aides subject 48
49 50	to this section that is less than the regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rate established by the commissioner for a region for services provided under authorization by a local department of social 51 52
52 53	services, a managed care provider under section three hundred sixty-four-j of the social services law, or a managed long-term care provider under section forty-four hundred-f of this chapter shall be deemed
54 55	under section forty-four nundred-f of this chapter shall be deemed adequate.

(a) The commissioner shall submit any and all necessary applications 1 for approvals and/or waivers to the federal centers for medicare and 2 medicaid services to secure approval to establish minimum hourly base 3 4 reimbursement rates and make state-directed payments to providers for 5 the purposes of supporting wage increases. б (b) Directed payments shall be made to such providers of medicaid 7 services through contracts with managed care organizations where appli-8 cable, provided that the commissioner ensures that such directed 9 payments are in accordance with the terms of this section. 10 (c) The commissioner shall ensure that managed care capitation is 11 adjusted to ensure rate adequacy for the managed care organizations. 12 7. Nothing in this section shall preclude providers employing home care aides covered under this section or payers from contracting for 13 services at rates higher than the regional minimum hourly base 14 15 reimbursement rate if the parties agree to such terms. 8. The commissioner shall publish and post regional minimum hourly 16 17 base reimbursement rates annually and shall take all necessary steps to advise commercial and government programs payers of home care services 18 of the regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rates and require 19 20 other state authorized payers to reimburse providers of home care 21 services at the minimum hourly base reimbursement rate. 22 9. Following the initial established regional minimum hourly base 23 reimbursement rate established under this section, the commissioner shall annually adjust the regional hourly base reimbursement rate for 24 25 each region to reflect costs or other increases in wages, benefits, or other requirements. The commissioner shall develop a methodology for 26 27 annual increases, taking into consideration relevant data sources, 28 including but not limited to information from certified cost reports and statistical reports submitted to the department by providers employing 29 30 individuals subject to this section for the prior calendar year, consum-31 er price index increases; subsequent pandemic or other public health 32 emergencies; and other relevant economic factors. Prior to finalizing 33 such methodology, the commissioner shall establish a public workgroup 34 that shall include provider, consumer, managed care organization, and 35 labor representatives from each geographical region in which there is an 36 established regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rate; statewide 37 associations; and other stakeholders to inform the process. The commissioner shall publish and take public input on the proposed methodology 38 39 to be used to update regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rates. 40 10. Annual increases to the regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rates shall be issued and posted by the department by September thirti-41 42 eth of the prior calendar year to when such rates shall take effect. 43 11. For years in which rate adjustments to the regional minimum hourly 44 base reimbursement rate have not been calculated prior to the start of 45 the calendar year, the previous year's rate shall remain in place until 46 the new rate is calculated. If it is determined that retroactive rate 47 adjustments are necessary, payment adjustments will be made as a direct pass through to providers within sixty days of the adjusted rate. 48 49 § 2. Section 3614-d of the public health law, as added by section 49 50 of part B of chapter 57 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as 51 follows: § 3614-d. Universal standards for coding of payment for medical 52 assistance claims for long term care. Claims for payment submitted under 53 54 contracts or agreements with insurers under the medical assistance program for home and community-based long-term care services provided under this article, by fiscal intermediaries operating pursuant to section three hundred sixty-five-f of the social services law, and by 1 2 residential health care facilities operating pursuant to article twenty-eight of this chapter shall have standard billing codes. Such insur-3 4 ers shall include but not be limited to Medicaid managed care plans and 5 managed long term care plans. Such payments shall be based on universal 6 billing codes approved by the department or a nationally accredited 7 organization as approved by the department; provided, however, such 8 coding shall be consistent with any codes developed as part of the 9 uniform assessment system for long term care established by the depart-10 ment and shall include, for any entity operating pursuant to this arti-11 cle or section three hundred sixty-five-f of the social services law 12 that is unable to control the cumulative hours worked by an individual in a given payroll period, a code that is specific to the hourly cost of 13 14 services at an overtime rate. 15 § 3. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 91-h to 16 read as follows: 17 § 91-h. Fair pay for home care fund. 1. There is hereby established in the joint custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance and the 18 comptroller, a special fund to be known as the "fair pay for home care 19 20 fund". 21 2. The fund shall consist of, but not be limited to: 22 a. revenues and federal medical assistance percentage reimbursements in excess of the standard reimbursement received by the department of 23 health pursuant to section thirty-seven of part B of chapter fifty-seven 24 25 of the laws of two thousand fifteen; b. an amount equal to savings from the permanent conversion or decer-26 27 tification of residential health care facility beds, as defined in 28 section twenty-eight hundred one or twenty-eight hundred two of the 29 public health law; 30 c. any unspent monies from the New York works economic development 31 funds or a life sciences initiative created by section one of chapter 32 fifty-four of the laws of two thousand seventeen which were originally 33 appropriated prior to the two thousand nineteen state fiscal year which 34 have not been bound by a contract as of April first two thousand twen-35 ty-one and which are not otherwise legally required to be spent on capi-36 tal projects under bonding requirements through the dormitory authority 37 of New York state or other bonding entity; and d. any grants, gifts or bequests received by the state for the 38 39 purposes of the fund under this section. 3. Monies of the fund shall be distributed to the commissioner of 40 health, or the commissioner's designee, for the purpose of increasing 41 42 medical assistance reimbursements under title eleven of article five of 43 the social services law to entities subject to minimum wage requirements 44 for home care aides under section thirty-six hundred fourteen-f of the public health law, provided that the monies of this fund shall be 45 46 utilized to offset general fund expenses related to implementation and 47 ongoing costs of section thirty-six hundred fourteen-f of the public 48 health law and shall not be the sole source of funds made available to meet the requirements established by such section. 49 § 4. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 92 of part H of chapter 50 51 59 of the laws of 2011 amending the public health law and other laws 52 relating to known and projected department of health state fund Medicaid expenditures, as amended by section 1 of part CCC of chapter 56 of the 53 54 laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows: 55 (c) Projections may be adjusted by the director of the budget to 56 account for any changes in the New York state federal medical assistance
