Introduced by M. of A. EICHENSTEIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to pendency placements in a school district in a city having a population of one million or more

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 4404 of the education law is amended by adding a 2 new subdivision 1-a to read as follows:

3 1-a. a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule or regu-
4 lation to the contrary, in a school district in a city having a popu-
5 lation of one million or more, the parent or person in parental
6 relation shall be entitled to the presumption that the school identified 7 in a settlement agreement entered on or after the effective date of this 8 subdivision is the student's operative placement for the purposes of 9 pendency until there is an intervening, pendency-changing event (that 10 is, an actual agreement of the parties; an unappealed decision by an 11 impartial hearing officer; a decision of the state review officer that 12 agrees with the parents as to the appropriateness of their proposed 13 change in placement; or a determination by a court on appeal from the 14 decision of a state review officer) or a program offered by the school 15 district and not challenged by the parent. Each child's IEP shall be 16 reviewed periodically, but not less frequently than annually, as 17 required by 20 U.S.C. 1414(d)(4)(A)(i). Pendency payments for tuition 18 shall be made prospectively and shall be made for amounts not less than 19 two months' worth of tuition or the remaining balance on the contract, 20 whichever is smaller, provided that the initial tuition payment may 21 include retroactive payments. Pendency payments, as provided for in 22 subdivision four of this section, shall continue uninterrupted while the 23 appeal is pending. If the child is moved into a program offered by the 24 school district during the school year, or the child is no longer enti-

1 tled to receive all the services that the child had been receiving from 2 the non-public school, the child's parents shall not be required to 3 repay any of the tuition reimbursement received prior to such change, 4 provided the cost of services that would have been provided by the 5 school district had the child been attending public school is the same 6 or greater than the cost of the services that were actually provided to 7 the student by the non-public school.

8 b. Where a claim for tuition for a school year commencing in two thou-9 sand nineteen or earlier has been filed pursuant to this section on or 10 before June thirtieth, two thousand twenty and remains pending and time-11 ly, the local educational agency of a city having a population of over 12 one million shall, on or before September first, two thousand twenty-13 two, make all reasonable efforts to finalize a settlement or inform the 14 parent or person in parental relation, or their representative, that it 15 has not been able to settle the claim. Nothing in this act shall 16 preclude parties from reaching a settlement after September first, two 17 thousand twenty-two. Any settlements for tuition, including those 18 already settled, shall include a schedule for payments, the first of 19 which shall begin no later than sixty days after the latter of the date
20 the settlement is fully executed or receipt of documentation necessary 21 for payment, and the remainder of which shall be completed within sixty 22 days of receipt of any documentation necessary for payment.

23 § 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2022.
