- AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to pendency placements in a school district in a city having a population of one million or more

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 4404 of the education law is amended by adding a 1 2 new subdivision 1-b to read as follows: 3 1-b. a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule or requ-4 lation to the contrary, in a school district in a city having a popu-5 lation of one million or more, the parent or person in parental 6 relation shall be entitled to the presumption that the school identified 7 in a settlement agreement entered on or after the effective date of this 8 subdivision is the student's operative placement for the purposes of 9 pendency until there is an intervening, pendency-changing event (that 10 is, an actual agreement of the parties; an unappealed decision by an 11 impartial hearing officer; a decision of the state review officer that agrees with the parents as to the appropriateness of their proposed 12 change in placement; or a determination by a court on appeal from the 13 decision of a state review officer) or a program offered by the school 14 15 district and not challenged by the parent. Each child's IEP shall be 16 reviewed periodically, but not less frequently than annually, as 17 required by 20 U.S.C. 1414(d)(4)(A)(i). Pendency payments for tuition 18 shall be at the tuition cost of the previous year's payments unless a 19 new IEP was performed, and shall be made prospectively and shall be made 20 for amounts not less than two months' worth of tuition or the remaining 21 balance on the contract, whichever is smaller, provided that the initial

1	tuition payment may include retroactive payments. Pendency payments, as
2	provided for in subdivision four of this section, shall continue unin-
3	terrupted while the appeal is pending.
4	b. Where a claim for tuition for a school year commencing in two thou-
5	sand twenty or earlier has been filed pursuant to this section on or б	before June thirtieth, two thousand twenty-one and remains pending and 7	timely, the local educational agency of a city having a population of
8	over one million shall, on or before January first, two thousand twen-
9	ty-three, make all reasonable efforts to finalize a settlement or inform
10	the parent or person in parental relation, or their representative, that 11	it has not been able to settle the claim. Nothing in this act shall
12	preclude parties from reaching a settlement after January first, two 13	thousand twenty-three. Any settlements for tuition, including those 14	already settled, shall include a schedule for payments, the first of
15	which shall begin no later than sixty days after the latter of the date
16	the settlement is fully executed or receipt of documentation necessary
17	for payment, and the remainder of which shall be completed within sixty
18	days of receipt of any documentation necessary for payment.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect September 1, 2022.
