AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to increases of rent in manufactured home parks

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 233-b of the real property law, as added by section 12 of part 0 of chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, is amended by adding two new subdivisions 9 and 10 to read as follows:

9. When a manufactured home park owner notifies the manufactured home-owners in the park of a rent or fee increase and the increase is in excess of three percent above the current rent, the manufactured home park owner shall provide a written justification for the increase that complies with this section and make available to any resident, by request, documentation, including official accounting documents, that show the costs and completion of work that justify the rent increase pursuant to this section.

10. Increases in costs that justify a rent increase above three percent pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subdivision two of this section shall be shown to be above and beyond costs incurred for ordinary maintenance, including preventive maintenance, or repair of the roads, infrastructure, or other community property or services to meet the community owner's warranty of habitability obligations under subdivision m of section two hundred thirty-three of this article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
