~~(iii) the person has been given a reasonable opportunity to make their verifiable identity and a method of contact known, and has been unable or unwilling to do so, so that a custodial arrest is necessary to subject the individual to the jurisdiction of the court. For the purposes of this section, an officer may rely on various factors to determine a person's identity, including but not limited to personal knowledge of such person, such person's self-identification, or photographic identification. There is no requirement that a person present photographic identification in order to be issued an appearance ticket in lieu of arrest where the person's identity is otherwise verifiable; however, if offered by such person, an officer shall accept as evidence of identity the following: a valid driver's license or non-driver identification card issued by the commissioner of motor vehicles, the federal government, any United States territory, commonwealth or possession, the District of Columbia, a state government or municipal government within the United States or a provincial government of the dominion of Canada; a valid passport issued by the United States government or any other country; an identification card issued by the armed forces of the United States; a public benefit card, as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 158.00 of the penal law;~~

~~(vii) the person is charged with a crime for which the court may suspend or revoke his or her driver license;~~

~~(viii) it reasonably appears to the officer, based on the observed behavior of the individual in the present contact with the officer and facts regarding the person's condition that indicates a sign of distress to such a degree that the person would face harm without immediate medical or mental health care, that bringing the person before the court would be in such person's interest in addressing that need; provided, however, that before making the arrest, the officer shall make all reasonable efforts to assist the person in securing appropriate services.]~~

§ 3. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 150.30 to read as follows:

§ 150.30 Appearance ticket; issuance and service thereof after arrest upon posting of pre-arraignment bail.

1. Issuance and service of an appearance ticket by a police officer following an arrest without a warrant, as prescribed in subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article, may be made conditional upon the posting of a sum of money, known as pre-arraignment bail. In such case, the bail becomes forfeit upon failure of such person to comply with the directions of the appearance ticket. The person posting such bail must complete and sign a form which states (a) the name, residential address and occupation of each person posting cash bail; and (b) the title of the criminal action or proceeding involved; and (c) the offense or offenses which are the subjects of the action or proceeding involved, and the status of such action or proceeding; and (d) the name of the principal and the nature of his or her involvement in or connection with

1 such action or proceeding; and (e) the date of the principal's next
2 appearance in court; and (f) an acknowledgement that the cash bail will 3 be forfeited if the principal does not comply with the directions of the 4 appearance ticket; and (g) the amount of money posted as cash bail. Such 5 pre-arraignment bail may be posted as provided in subdivision two or 6 three of this section.

7 2. A desk officer in charge at a police station, county jail, or 8 police headquarters, or any of his or her superior officers, may in such 9 place, fix pre-arraignment bail, in an amount prescribed in this subdi-
10 vision, and upon the posting thereof must issue and serve an appearance 11 ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail, and 12 release such person from custody. Such pre-arraignment bail may be fixed 13 in the following amounts:

14 (a) If the arrest was for a class E felony, any amount not exceeding 15 seven hundred fifty dollars.

16 (b) If the arrest was for a class A misdemeanor, any amount not 17 exceeding five hundred dollars.

18 (c) If the arrest was for a class B misdemeanor or an unclassified
19 misdemeanor, any amount not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars.

20 (d) If the arrest was for a petty offense, any amount not exceeding 21 one hundred dollars.

22 3. A police officer, who has arrested a person without a warrant
23 pursuant to subdivision two of section 150.20 of this article for a 24 traffic infraction, may, where he or she reasonably believes that such 25 arrested person is not licensed to operate a motor vehicle by this state 26 or any state covered by a reciprocal compact guaranteeing appearance as 27 is provided in section five hundred seventeen of the vehicle and traffic
28 law, fix pre-arraignment bail in the amount of fifty dollars; provided, 29 however, such bail shall be posted by means of a credit card or similar 30 device. Upon the posting thereof, said officer must issue and serve an 31 appearance ticket upon the arrested person, give a receipt for the bail,
32 and release such person from custody.

33 4. The chief administrator of the courts shall establish a system for 34 the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of credit card or similar 35 device, as is provided by section two hundred twelve of the judiciary
36 law. The head of each police department or police force and of any state
37 department, agency, board, commission or public authority having police 38 officers who fix pre-arraignment bail as provided herein may elect to 39 use the system established by the chief administrator or may establish 40 such other system for the posting of pre-arraignment bail by means of 41 credit card or similar device as he or she may deem appropriate.

42 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 150.40 of the criminal procedure law, as 43 amended by section 8 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is 44 amended to read as follows:

45 1. An appearance ticket must be made returnable [~~at a date as soon as~~ 46 ~~possible, but in no event later than twenty days from the date of issu-~~
47 ~~ance, or at the next scheduled session of the appropriate local criminal~~ 48 ~~court if such session is scheduled to occur more than twenty days from~~
49 ~~the date of issuance; or at a later date, with the court's permission~~
50 ~~due to enrollment in a pre-arraignment diversion program. The appearance~~ 51 ~~ticket shall be made returnable] in a local criminal court designated in 52 section 100.55 of this title as one with which an information for the 53 offense in question may be filed.~~

54 § 5. Section 150.80 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

55 § 6. Subdivision 2 of section 245.30 of the criminal procedure law is 56 REPEALED.

§ 7. Subdivision 9 of section 440.10 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

§ 8. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (i) and paragraph (j) of subdivision 1 of section 440.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 131 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

(ii) official documentation of the defendant's status as a victim of trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons at the time of the offense from a federal, state or local government agency shall create a presumption that the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of sex trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons, but shall not be required for granting a motion under this paragraph[~~†~~]

~~(j) The judgment is a conviction for a class A or unclassified misdemeanor entered prior to the effective date of this paragraph and satisfies the ground prescribed in paragraph (h) of this subdivision. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that a conviction by plea to such an offense was not knowing, voluntary and intelligent, based on ongoing collateral consequences, including potential or actual immigration consequences, and there shall be a rebuttable presumption that a conviction by verdict constitutes cruel and unusual punishment under section five of article one of the state constitution based on such consequences~~; or § 9. Subdivisions 3-a, 3-b, 21 and 22 of section 500.10 of the criminal procedure law are REPEALED.

5. "Securing order" means an order of a court committing a principal to the custody of the sheriff, or fixing bail, ~~[where authorized,]~~ or releasing the principal on the principal's own recognizance ~~[or releasing the principal under non-monetary conditions]~~.

6. "Order of recognizance or bail" means a securing order releasing a principal on the principal's own recognizance or ~~[under non-monetary conditions or, where authorized,]~~ fixing bail.

7. "Application for recognizance or bail" means an application by a principal that the court, instead of committing the principal to or retaining the principal in the custody of the sheriff, either release the principal on the principal's own recognizance~~[, release under non-monetary conditions, or, where authorized,]~~ or fix bail.

9. "Bail" means cash bail~~[,]~~ or a bail bond ~~[or money paid with a credit card]~~.

§ 11. Section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 2 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 and subdivision 4 as amended by section 2 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.10 Securing order; when required~~[, alternatives available, standard to be applied]~~.

~~[1.]~~ When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the control of a court, such court shall~~[, in accordance with this title,]~~ by a securing order, either release the principal on the principal's own recognizance, ~~[release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or, where authorized,]~~ fix bail or commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. ~~[In all such cases, except where another type of securing order is shown to be required by law, the court shall release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance, unless it is~~

~~demonstrated and the court makes an individualized determination that the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution. If such a finding is made, the court must select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of release, release with conditions, bail or remand on the record or in writing.~~

~~2. A principal is entitled to representation by counsel under this chapter in preparing an application for release, when a securing order is being considered and when a securing order is being reviewed for modification, revocation or termination. If the principal is financially unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the principal.~~

~~3. In cases other than as described in subdivision four of this section the court shall release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance, unless the court finds on the record or in writing that release on the principal's own recognizance will not reasonably assure the principal's return to court. In such instances, the court shall release the principal under non-monetary conditions, selecting the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in writing.~~

~~4. Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under non-monetary conditions, fix bail, or, where the defendant is charged with a qualifying offense which is a felony, the court may commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. A principal stands charged with a qualifying offense for the purposes of this subdivision when he or she stands charged with:~~

~~(a) a felony enumerated in section 70.02 of the penal law, other than robbery in the second degree as defined in subdivision one of section 160.10 of the penal law, provided, however, that burglary in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 140.25 of the penal law shall be a qualifying offense only where the defendant is charged with entering the living area of the dwelling;~~

~~(b) a crime involving witness intimidation under section 215.15 of the penal law;~~

~~(h) criminal contempt in the second degree as defined in subdivision three of section 215.50 of the penal law, criminal contempt in the first degree as defined in subdivision (b), (c) or (d) of section 215.51 of the penal law or aggravated criminal contempt as defined in section 215.52 of the penal law, and the underlying allegation of such charge of criminal contempt in the second degree, criminal contempt in the first degree or aggravated criminal contempt is that the defendant violated a duly served order of protection where the protected party is a member of the defendant's same family or household as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title;~~

~~(i) facilitating a sexual performance by a child with a controlled substance or alcohol as defined in section 263.30 of the penal law, use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law or luring a child as defined in subdivision one of section 120.70 of the penal law, promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child as defined in section 263.10 of the penal law or promoting a sexual performance by a child as defined in section 263.15 of the penal law;~~

~~(m) assault in the third degree as defined in section 120.00 of the penal law or arson in the third degree as defined in section 150.10 of the penal law, when such crime is charged as a hate crime as defined in section 485.05 of the penal law;~~

~~(o) grand larceny in the first degree as defined in section 155.42 of the penal law, enterprise corruption as defined in section 460.20 of the penal law, or money laundering in the first degree as defined in section 470.20 of the penal law;~~

~~(p) failure to register as a sex offender pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight t of the correction law or endangering the welfare of a child as defined in subdivision one of section 260.10 of the penal law, where the defendant is required to maintain registration under article six C of the correction law and designated a level three offender pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred sixty-eight l of the correction law;~~

~~(q) a crime involving bail jumping under section 215.55, 215.56 or 215.57 of the penal law, or a crime involving escaping from custody under section 205.05, 205.10 or 205.15 of the penal law;~~

~~(s) a felony, where the defendant qualifies for sentencing on such charge as a persistent felony offender pursuant to section 70.10 of the penal law; or~~

~~(t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance or released under conditions for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision.~~

~~5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions three and four of this section, with respect to any charge for which bail or remand is not ordered, and for which the court would not or could not otherwise require bail or remand, a defendant may, at any time, request that the court set bail in a nominal amount requested by the defendant in the form specified in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 520.10 of this title, if the court is satisfied that the request is voluntary, the court shall set such bail in such amount.~~

~~6.]~~ When a securing order is revoked or otherwise terminated in the course of an uncompleted action or proceeding but the principal's future court attendance still is or may be required and the principal is still under the control of a court, a new securing order must be issued. When the court revokes or otherwise terminates a securing order which committed the principal to the custody of the sheriff, the court shall give written notification to the sheriff of such revocation or termination of the securing order.

§ 12. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 3 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.20 Application for [~~a change in securing order~~] recognizance or bail; making and determination thereof in general.

1. Upon any occasion when a court [~~has issued~~] is required to issue a securing order with respect to a principal [~~and the~~], or at any time when a principal is confined in the custody of the sheriff as a result of [~~the securing order or~~] a previously issued securing order, the principal may make an application for recognizance[, ~~release under non-monetary conditions~~] or bail.

2. [~~(a) The principal is entitled to representation by counsel in the making and presentation of such application. If the principal is financially unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the principal.~~

~~(b)]~~ Upon such application, the principal must be accorded an opportunity to be heard[, ~~present evidence~~] and to contend that an order of recognizance[, ~~release under non-monetary conditions~~] or[, ~~where authorized,~~] bail must or should issue, that the court should release the principal on the principal's own recognizance [~~or under non-monetary conditions~~] rather than fix bail, and that if bail is [~~authorized and~~] fixed it should be in a suggested amount and form.

§ 13. Section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 5 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.30 Application for ~~[securing order]~~ recognizance or bail; rules of law and criteria controlling determination.

1. Determinations of applications for recognizance or bail are not in all cases discretionary but are subject to rules, prescribed in article five hundred thirty of this title and other provisions of law relating to specific kinds of criminal actions and proceedings, providing (a) that in some circumstances such an application must as a matter of law be granted, (b) that in others it must as a matter of law be denied and the principal committed to or retained in the custody of the sheriff, and (c) that in others the granting or denial thereof is a matter of judicial discretion.

2. To the extent that the issuance of an order of recognizance or bail and the terms thereof are matters of discretion rather than of law, an application is determined on the basis of the following factors and criteria:

(a) With respect to any principal, the court ~~[in all cases, unless otherwise provided by law,]~~ must ~~[impose the least restrictive]~~ consider the kind and degree of control or restriction that is necessary to secure the principal's ~~[return to]~~ court attendance when required. In determining that matter, the court must, on the basis of available information, consider and take into account:

(i) The principal's character, reputation, habits and mental condition;

(ii) The principal's employment and financial resources;

(iii) The principal's family ties and the length of his or her residence if any in the community;

~~(iv) [information about the principal that is relevant to the principal's return to court, including:~~

~~(a) The principal's activities and history;~~

~~(b) If the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal;~~

~~(c) The principal's criminal [conviction] record if any;~~

~~(d) (v) The principal's record of previous adjudication as a juvenile delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family court act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant to section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any;~~

~~(e) (vi) The principal's previous record if any in responding to court appearances when required or~~ with respect to flight to avoid criminal prosecution;

~~(f) If monetary bail is authorized, according to the restrictions set forth in this title, the principal's individual financial circumstances, and, in cases where bail is authorized, the principal's ability to post bail without posing undue hardship, as well as his or her ability to obtain a secured, unsecured, or partially secured bond;~~

~~(g) (vii) Where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes against a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the following factors:~~

~~(i) (A) any violation by the principal of an order of protection issued by any court for the protection of a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, whether or not such order of protection is currently in effect; and~~

~~(ii) (B) the principal's history of use or possession of a firearm;~~ and

~~(h) (viii) If the principal is a defendant, the weight of the evidence against him or her in the pending criminal action and any other~~

1 factor indicating probability or improbability of conviction; or, in the
2 case of an application for [~~a securing order~~] bail or recognizance pend-
3 ing appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal; and

4 (ix) If he or she is a defendant, the sentence which may be or has 5 been imposed upon conviction.

6 [~~2-~~] (b) Where the principal is a defendant-appellant in a pending
7 appeal from a judgment of conviction, the court must also consider the 8 likelihood of ultimate reversal of the judgment. A determination that 9 the appeal is palpably without merit alone justifies, but does not 10 require, a denial of the application, regardless of any determination
11 made with respect to the factors specified in paragraph (a) of this 12 subdivision [~~one of this section~~].

13 3. When bail or recognizance is ordered, the court shall inform the 14 principal, if the principal is a defendant charged with the commission
15 of a felony, that the release is conditional and that the court may 16 revoke the order of release and [~~may be authorized~~] to commit the prin-17 cipal to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with the provisions of 18 subdivision two of section 530.60 of this [~~chapter~~] title if the princi-
19 pal commits a subsequent felony while at liberty upon such order.

20 § 14. Section 510.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 21 section 6 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019 and paragraph 22 (c) of subdivision 4 as amended by section 7 of part UU of chapter 56 of 23 the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

24 § 510.40 [~~Court notification to principal of conditions of release and~~
25 ~~of alleged violations of conditions of release~~] Application
26 for recognizance or bail; determination thereof, form of 27 securing order and execution thereof.

28 1. An application for recognizance or bail must be determined by a
29 securing order which either:

30 (a) Grants the application and releases the principal on his or her
31 own recognizance; or

32 (b) Grants the application and fixes bail; or

33 (c) Denies the application and commits the principal to, or retains 34 him or her in, the custody of the sheriff.

35 2. Upon ordering that a principal be released on the principal's own
36 recognizance, [~~or released under non monetary conditions, or, if bail~~ 37 ~~has been fixed, upon the posting of bail,~~] the court must direct the 38 principal to appear in the criminal action or proceeding involved when-
39 ever the principal's attendance may be required and to be at all times
40 amenable to the orders and processes of the court. If such principal is 41 in the custody of the sheriff or at liberty upon bail at the time of the 42 order, the court must direct that the principal be discharged from such 43 custody or, as the case may be, that the principal's bail be exonerated.

44 [~~2-~~] 3. Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail[~~, where authorized,~~]
45 and upon the posting thereof, the court must examine the bail to deter-
46 mine whether it complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in 47 the absence of some factor or circumstance which in law requires or 48 authorizes disapproval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a 49 certificate of release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and,
50 if the principal is in the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing 51 the sheriff to discharge the principal therefrom. If the bail fixed is 52 not posted, or is not approved after being posted, the court must order
53 that the principal be committed to the custody of the sheriff. [~~In the~~ 54 ~~event of any such non-approval, the court shall explain promptly in~~ 55 ~~writing the reasons therefor.~~

~~3. Non-monetary conditions of release shall be individualized and established in writing by the court. At future court appearances, the court shall consider a lessening of conditions or modification of conditions to a less burdensome form based on the principal's compliance with such conditions of release. In the event of alleged non-compliance with the conditions of release in an important respect, pursuant to this subdivision, additional conditions may be imposed by the court, on the record or in writing, only after notice of the facts and circumstances of such alleged non-compliance, reasonable under the circumstances, affording the principal and the principal's attorney and the people an opportunity to present relevant, admissible evidence, relevant witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses, and a finding by clear and convincing evidence that the principal violated a condition of release in an important respect. Following such a finding, in determining whether to impose additional conditions for non-compliance, the court shall consider and may select conditions consistent with the court's obligation to impose the least restrictive condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain on the record or in writing the reasons for its determination and for any changes to the conditions imposed.~~

~~4. (a) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be ordered only if the court finds, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and an individualized determination explained on the record or in writing, that the defendant qualifies for electronic monitoring in accordance with subdivision twenty-one of section 500.10 of this title, and no other realistic non-monetary condition or set of non-monetary conditions will suffice to reasonably assure a principal's return to court.~~

~~(b) The specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive procedure and method that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent practicable.~~

~~(c) Electronic monitoring of the location of a principal may be conducted only by a public entity under the supervision and control of a county or municipality or a non-profit entity under contract to the county, municipality or the state. A county or municipality shall be authorized to enter into a contract with another county or municipality in the state to monitor principals under non-monetary conditions of release in its county, but counties, municipalities and the state shall not contract with any private for-profit entity for such purposes. Counties, municipalities and the state may contract with a private for-profit entity to supply electronic monitoring devices or other items, provided that any interaction with persons under electronic monitoring or the data produced by such monitoring shall be conducted solely by employees of a county, municipality, the state, or a non-profit entity under contract with such county, municipality or the state.~~

~~(d) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be for a maximum period of sixty days, and may be renewed for such period, after notice, an opportunity to be heard and a de novo, individualized determination in accordance with this subdivision, which shall be explained on the record or in writing.~~

~~A defendant subject to electronic location monitoring under this subdivision shall be considered held or confined in custody for purposes of section 180.80 of this chapter and shall be considered committed to the custody of the sheriff for purposes of section 170.70 of the chapter, as applicable.~~

~~5. If a principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the court shall, on the record and in an individualized written document provided to the principal, notify the principal, in plain language and a manner sufficiently clear and specific:~~

~~(a) of any conditions to which the principal is subject, to serve as a guide for the principal's conduct; and~~

~~(b) that the possible consequences for violation of such a condition may include revocation of the securing order and the ordering of a more restrictive securing order.]~~

§ 510.50 Enforcement of securing order.

[~~1.~~] When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the sheriff to produce the principal at such time and place. If the principal is at liberty on the principal's own recognizance [~~or non-monetary conditions~~] or on bail, the principal's attendance may be achieved or compelled by various methods, including notification and the issuance of a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters with respect to the particular kind of action or proceeding involved.

~~[2. Except when the principal is charged with a new crime while at liberty, absent relevant, credible evidence demonstrating that a principal's failure to appear for a scheduled court appearance was willful, the court, prior to issuing a bench warrant for a failure to appear for a scheduled court appearance, shall provide at least forty-eight hours notice to the principal or the principal's counsel that the principal is required to appear, in order to give the principal an opportunity to appear voluntarily.]~~

§ 17. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 520.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 10 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The court [~~shall~~] may direct that the bail be posted in any one of [~~three~~] two or more of the forms specified in subdivision one of this section, designated in the alternative, and may designate different amounts varying with the forms[~~, except that one of the forms shall be either an unsecured or partially secured surety bond, as selected by the court~~].

§ 19. Subdivision 4 of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 12 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

4. When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is returnable pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. 11. If a defendant is brought before the court for failure to obey any lawful order issued under this section, or an order of protection issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction, and if, after hearing, the court is satisfied by competent proof that the defendant has willfully failed to obey any such order, the court may:

(a) revoke an order of recognizance [~~or release under non-monetary conditions~~] or revoke an order of bail or order forfeiture of such bail and commit the defendant to custody; or

6 § 22. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 530.13 of the criminal

11 § 23. Section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a 12 new section 530.20 is added to read as follows:

13 § 530.20 Order of recognizance or bail; by local criminal court when 14 action is pending therein.

15 When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, such 16 court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance
17 or bail as follows:

18 1. When the defendant is charged, by information, simplified informa-
19 tion, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint, with an offense
20 or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recog-
21 nizance or bail.

22 2. When the defendant is charged, by felony complaint, with a felony, 23 the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail except as 24 otherwise provided in this subdivision:

25 (a) A city court, a town court or a village court may not order recog-
26 nizance or bail when (i) the defendant is charged with a class A felony,
27 or (ii) it appears that the defendant has two previous felony
28 convictions;

29 (b) No local criminal court may order recognizance or bail with 30 respect to a defendant charged with a felony unless and until:

31 (i) The district attorney has been heard in the matter or, after know-
32 ledge or notice of the application and reasonable opportunity to be 33 heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived 34 his or her right to do so; and

35 (ii) The court has been furnished with a report of the division of 36 criminal justice services concerning the defendant's criminal record if 37 any or with a police department report with respect to the defendant's 38 prior arrest record. If neither report is available, the court, with the 39 consent of the district attorney, may dispense with this requirement;
40 provided, however, that in an emergency, including but not limited to a
41 substantial impairment in the ability of such division or police depart-
42 ment to timely furnish such report, such consent shall not be required
43 if, for reasons stated on the record, the court deems it unnecessary.
44 When the court has been furnished with any such report or record, it 45 shall furnish a copy thereof to counsel for the defendant or, if the 46 defendant is not represented by counsel, to the defendant.

47 § 24. The section heading and subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 530.30
48 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 17 of part JJJ of 49 chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

50 Order of recognizance[~~, release under non-monetary conditions~~] or bail;
51 by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court.

52 1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other
53 than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge
54 of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon applica-
55 tion of a defendant, may order recognizance[~~, release under non-monetary~~
56 ~~conditions~~] or[~~, where authorized,~~] bail when such local criminal court:

(a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to [~~the relevant provisions~~] paragraph a of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article; or

(b) Has denied an application for recognizance[~~, release under non-monetary conditions~~] or bail; or

(c) Has fixed bail[~~, where authorized,~~] which is excessive[~~, or~~

~~(d) Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably assure the defendant's return to court~~].

In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such local criminal court and release the defendant on his or her own recognizance [~~or under non-monetary conditions,~~] or [~~where authorized,~~] fix bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form[~~, whichever are the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in writing~~].

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a superior court judge may not order recognizance[~~, release under non-monetary conditions~~] or[~~, where authorized,~~] bail unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such judge [~~and counsel for the defendant have~~] has been furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article.

§ 25. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a new section 530.40 is added to read as follows:

§ 530.40 Order of recognizance or bail; by superior court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance or bail as follows:

1. When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must order recognizance or bail.

2. When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, in its discretion, order recognizance or bail. In any such case in which an indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a local criminal court holding the defendant for the action of the grand jury, or (b) was filed at a time when a felony complaint charging the same conduct was pending in a local criminal court, and in which such local criminal court or a superior court judge has issued an order of recognizance or bail which is still effective, the superior court's order may be in the form of a direction continuing the effectiveness of the previous order.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section, a superior court may not order recognizance or bail, or permit a defendant to remain at liberty pursuant to an existing order, after the defendant has been convicted of either: (a) a class A felony or (b) any class B or class C felony as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age. In either case the court must commit or remand the defendant to the custody of the sheriff.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two of this section, a superior court may not order recognizance or bail when the defendant is charged with a felony unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such court has been furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article.

§ 26. Subdivision 1 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 19 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action as a result of a prior order of recognizance~~[, release under non-monetary conditions]~~ or bail and the court revokes such order and then~~[, where authorized,]~~ either fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater amount or in a more burdensome form than was previously fixed and remands or commits defendant to the custody of the sheriff, ~~[or issues a more restrictive securing order,]~~ a judge designated in subdivision two of this section, upon application of the defendant following conviction of an offense other than a class A felony or a class B or class C felony offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age, and before sentencing, may issue a securing order and either release the defendant on the defendant's own recognizance, ~~[release the defendant under non-monetary conditions,]~~ or~~[, where authorized,]~~ fix bail or fix bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form~~[, or issue a less restrictive securing order,]~~ than fixed by the court in which the conviction was entered.

§ 27. Subdivision 2-a of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

§ 28. Section 530.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, subdivision 1 as designated and subdivision 2 as added by section 10 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.50 Order of recognizance or bail; during pendency of appeal.

~~[1.]~~ A judge who is otherwise authorized pursuant to section 460.50 or ~~[section]~~ 460.60 of this chapter to issue an order of recognizance or bail pending the determination of an appeal, may do so unless the defendant received a class A felony sentence or a sentence for any class B or class C felony offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age.

~~[2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision four of section 510.10, paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 530.20 and subdivision four of section 530.40 of this title, when a defendant charged with an offense that is not such a qualifying offense applies, pending determination of an appeal, for an order of recognizance or release on non-monetary conditions, where authorized, or fixing bail, a judge identified in subdivision two of section 460.50 or paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 460.60 of this chapter may, in accordance with law, and except as otherwise provided by law, issue a securing order: releasing the defendant on the defendant's own recognizance or under non-monetary conditions where authorized, fixing bail, or remanding the defendant to the custody of the sheriff where authorized.]~~

§ 29. Section 530.60 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 20 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.60 ~~[Certain modifications of a securing order]~~ Order of recognizance or bail; revocation thereof.

1. Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance~~[, release~~

6 require the defendant to appear before the court. Upon such appearance,
7 the court, for good cause shown, may revoke the order of recognizance[~~,~~
8 ~~release under non-monetary conditions,~~] or bail. If the defendant is 9 entitled to recognizance[~~,~~ ~~release under non-monetary conditions,~~] or 10 bail as a matter of right, the court must issue another such order. If 11 the defendant is not, the court may either issue such an order or commit
12 the defendant to the custody of the sheriff [~~in accordance with this~~ 13 ~~section~~].

14 Where the defendant is committed to the custody of the sheriff and is 15 held on a felony complaint, a new period as provided in section 180.80
16 of this chapter shall commence to run from the time of the defendant's 17 commitment under this subdivision.

18 2. (a) Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a
19 defendant charged with the commission of a felony is at liberty as a
20 result of an order of recognizance, [~~release under non-monetary condi-~~

22 revoking such order that the court finds reasonable cause to believe the 23 defendant committed one or more specified class A or violent felony
24 offenses or intimidated a victim or witness in violation of section
25 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law while at liberty.

26 [~~(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any~~ 27 ~~other law, whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a~~
28 ~~defendant charged with the commission of an offense is at liberty as a~~
29 ~~result of an order of recognizance, release under non-monetary condi-~~

31 ~~revoking such order and fixing bail in such criminal action or proceed-~~

33 ~~defendant:~~

34 ~~(i) persistently and willfully failed to appear after notice of sched-~~
35 ~~uled appearances in the case before the court; or~~

36 ~~(ii) violated an order of protection in the manner prohibited by~~ 37 ~~subdivision (b), (c) or (d) of section 215.51 of the penal law while at~~

48 hold a hearing and shall receive any relevant, admissible evidence not 49 legally privileged. The defendant may cross-examine witnesses and may 50 present relevant, admissible evidence on his own behalf. Such hearing
51 may be consolidated with, and conducted at the same time as, a felony
52 hearing conducted pursuant to article one hundred eighty of this chap-
53 ter. A transcript of testimony taken before the grand jury upon presen-54 tation of the subsequent offense shall be admissible as evidence during 55 the hearing. The district attorney may move to introduce grand jury

1 testimony of a witness in lieu of that witness' appearance at the hear-
2 ing.

3 ~~[(d)]~~ (b) Revocation of an order of recognizance~~[, release under non-~~ 4 ~~monetary conditions]~~ or bail and ~~[a new securing order fixing bail or]~~
5 commitment~~[, as specified in this paragraph and]~~ pursuant to this subdi-
6 vision shall be for the following periods, either:

7 ~~[(i) Under paragraph (a) of this subdivision, revocation of the order~~

15 charges the defendant with commission of a felony; or

16 ~~[(C)]~~ (iii) Until reduction or dismissal of the charges contained 17 within the accusatory instrument charging the subsequent offense such 18 that no count remains which charges the defendant with commission of a
19 class A or violent felony offense.

20 Upon expiration of any of the three periods specified within this 21 ~~[subparagraph]~~ paragraph, whichever is shortest, the court may grant or 22 deny release upon an order of bail or recognizance in accordance with 23 the provisions of this article. Upon conviction to an offense the 24 provisions of this article ~~[five hundred thirty of this chapter]~~ shall 25 apply~~[, and]~~.

26 ~~[(ii) Under paragraph (b) of this subdivision, revocation of the order~~
27 ~~of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or, as the case~~
28 ~~may be, bail shall result in the issuance of a new securing order which~~ 29 ~~may, if otherwise authorized by law, permit the principal's release on~~ 30 ~~recognizance or release under non-monetary conditions, but shall also~~
31 ~~render the defendant eligible for an order fixing bail provided, howev-~~
32 ~~er, that in accordance with the principles in this title the court must~~
33 ~~select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions~~
34 ~~that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. Nothing in~~ 35 ~~this subparagraph shall be interpreted as shortening the period of~~ 36 ~~detention, or requiring or authorizing any less restrictive form of a~~
37 ~~securing order, which may be imposed pursuant to any other law.~~

38 ~~(e)]~~ (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) ~~[or (b)]~~ of 39 this subdivision a defendant, against whom a felony complaint has been 40 filed which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or 41 violent felony offense ~~[or violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17~~
42 ~~of the penal law]~~ committed while he or she was at liberty as specified
43 therein, may be committed to the custody of the sheriff pending a revo-
44 cation hearing for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours. An addi-45 tional period not to exceed seventy-two hours may be granted by the 46 court upon application of the district attorney upon a showing of good 47 cause or where the failure to commence the hearing was due to the 48 defendant's request or occurred with his or her consent. Such good cause
49 must consist of some compelling fact or circumstance which precluded
50 conducting the hearing within the initial prescribed period.

51 § 30. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 9 of section 216.05 of the criminal

53 laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

54 (a) If at any time during the defendant's participation in the judi-
55 cial diversion program, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that 56 the defendant has violated a release condition ~~[in an important respect]~~

1 or has [~~willfully~~] failed to appear before the court as requested, the 2 court [~~except as provided in subdivision two of section 510.50 of this~~
3 ~~chapter regarding a failure to appear,~~] shall direct the defendant to 4 appear or issue a bench warrant to a police officer or an appropriate
5 peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custody
6 and bring the defendant before the court without unnecessary delay;
7 provided, however, that under no circumstances shall a defendant who 8 requires treatment for opioid abuse or dependence be deemed to have 9 violated a release condition on the basis of his or her participation in 10 medically prescribed drug treatments under the care of a health care
11 professional licensed or certified under title eight of the education
12 law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice. The [~~relevant~~] 13 provisions of subdivision one of section 530.60 of this chapter relating 14 to [~~issuance of securing orders~~] revocation of recognizance or bail 15 shall apply to such proceedings under this subdivision.
