

STATE OF NEW YORK

7058

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

April 21, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. BICHOTTE HERMELYN, VANEL, BARRON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, the correction law, the criminal procedure law, the executive law and the social services law, in relation to prohibiting discrimination based on a person's arrest record or criminal conviction

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as "The New York
2 State Fair Chance Act".

3 § 2. Subdivisions 10 and 11 of section 8-107 of the administrative 4 code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 4 of the 5 city of New York for the year 2021, are amended to read as follows:

6 10. Employment actions based on pending arrests and criminal accusa-
7 tions, and criminal convictions preceding and during employment. (a)
8 Actions prohibited by state law concerning criminal convictions preced-
9 ing employment. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any 10 employer, employment agency or agent thereof to deny employment to any 11 person or take adverse action against any employee by reason of such 12 person or employee having been convicted of one or more criminal 13 offenses, or by reason of finding the person lacks "good moral charac-14 ter" based on:

15 (i) such person or employee having been convicted of one or more crim-16 inal offenses, when such denial or adverse action is in violation of the 17 provisions of article [23-A] twenty-three-A of the correction law 18 regardless of when such conviction occurred, including if such 19 conviction occurred while such person was employed at the job at issue; 20 or

21 (ii) such person or employee having a final judgment of guilt entered 22 for a felony more than ten years ago and a misdemeanor more than five 23 years ago. These periods of time shall be measured from the date judg-

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD06321-02-1

ment was entered or the release from incarceration, whichever date is later, until the date of the adverse action in question. Criminal acts committed outside the state shall be classified as felonies or misdemeanors committed within the state based on the maximum sentence that could have been imposed for such conviction under the laws of such foreign jurisdiction.

(b) Criminal convictions during employment. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any employer, employment agency or agent thereof to take adverse action against any employee by reason of such person having been convicted during their employment of one or more criminal offenses, or by reason of finding the person lacks "good moral character" based on such person having been convicted during their employment of one or more criminal offenses, unless, after considering the relevant fair chance factors, the employer determines that either:

(i) there is a direct relationship between the criminal conviction and the employment held by the person; or

(ii) the continuation of the employment would involve an unreasonable risk to property, or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public.

(c) Pending arrests and criminal accusations preceding and during employment. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any employer, employment agency or agent thereof to take adverse action against any applicant or employee based on an arrest or criminal accusation that is pending, or by reason of finding the person lacks "good moral character" based on such a pending arrest or criminal accusation, unless, after considering the relevant fair chance factors, the employer determines that either:

(i) there is a direct relationship between the alleged wrongdoing that is the subject of the pending arrest or criminal accusation and the employment sought or held by the person; or

(ii) the granting or continuation of the employment would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public.

(d) For purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, placing an employee on unpaid leave for a reasonable time while the employer takes the steps described in such paragraphs and subdivision ~~[11-a]~~ eleven-a of this section shall not be deemed to be an adverse action.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, an action that has been adjourned in contemplation of dismissal shall not be considered a pending action unless the order to adjourn in contemplation of dismissal is revoked and the case is restored to the calendar for further prosecution.

(f) Paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subdivision shall not apply to an applicant for employment or a current employee employed:

(i) as a police officer or peace officer, as those terms are defined in subdivisions ~~[33-and-34]~~ thirty-three and thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, respectively~~[7]~~; or

(ii) at a law enforcement agency as that term is used in article ~~[23-A]~~ twenty-three-A of the correction law.

(g) Nothing in this section shall prevent an employer from taking adverse action against an applicant or employee who is found to have made intentional misrepresentations regarding their arrest or conviction history, provided that such adverse action is not based on a failure to divulge information that a person may not be required to divulge, as provided in subdivision ~~[16]~~ sixteen of section ~~[296-of-article-15]~~ two hundred ninety-six of the executive law and in subdivision ~~[11]~~ eleven

1 of this section, and provided further that the employer provides the 2 applicant or employee with a copy of the documents that formed the basis
3 of the determination that an intentional misrepresentation was made and 4 gives the person a reasonable time to respond.

5 (h) Paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subdivision shall not apply to 6 public agencies taking adverse action against an employee based upon a 7 pending arrest or criminal accusation that preceded or arose during 8 employment, or convictions that occurred during employment, where the 9 employee is entitled to a disciplinary process as set forth in section
10 ~~[75]~~ seventy-five of the civil service law, or where the public agency
11 follows a disciplinary process set forth in agency rules or as required 12 by law.

13 (i) The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply where a manda-14 tory forfeiture, disability or bar to employment is imposed by law and 15 has not been removed by an executive pardon, certificate of relief from 16 disabilities or certificate of good conduct.

17 (j) The provisions of this subdivision shall be enforceable against 18 public agencies by a proceeding brought pursuant to article ~~[78]~~ seven-19 ty-eight of the civil practice law and rules, and the provisions of this 20 subdivision shall be enforceable against other employers by the commis-
21 sion through the administrative procedure provided for in this chapter 22 or as provided in chapter ~~[5]~~ five of this title.

23 11. Non-pending arrests and criminal accusations, and dispositions of 24 charges that an employer may not consider. (a) Non-pending arrests and 25 criminal accusations; adjournments in contemplation of dismissal; youth-26 ful offender adjudications; convictions sealed pursuant to certain 27 sections of the criminal procedure law. It shall be an unlawful discrim-28 inatory practice, unless specifically required or permitted by any 29 other law, for any person to make any inquiry in writing or otherwise 30 about, or deny employment to, any applicant or act adversely upon any 31 employee by reason of an arrest of or criminal accusation against such 32 applicant or employee when such inquiry, denial or adverse action is in 33 violation of subdivision ~~[16]~~ sixteen of section ~~[296 of article 15]~~ two 34 hundred ninety-six of the executive law.

35 (b) Violations and non-criminal offenses that have not been sealed.
36 (1) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any employer,
37 employment agency or agent thereof to make any inquiry, as defined in 38 subdivision ten of this section, in writing or otherwise about, or deny 39 employment to any person or take adverse action against any employee, 40 based on the applicant or employee having:

41 (i) been convicted of a violation as defined in section 10.00 of the 42 penal law; or

43 (ii) been convicted of a non-criminal offense, as defined by a law of 44 another state.

45 (2) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any employer,
46 employment agency or agent thereof to make any inquiry in writing or 47 otherwise about, or deny employment to any person or take adverse action 48 against any employee based on an arrest or criminal accusation that was 49 followed by an order or conviction described in subparagraph ~~[(1)]~~ one 50 of this paragraph.

51 (3) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to an applicant
52 for employment or a current employee employed:

53 (i) as a police officer or peace officer, as those terms are defined
54 in subdivisions ~~[33 and 34]~~ thirty-three and thirty-four of section 1.20
55 of the criminal procedure law, respectively~~[7]~~; or

(ii) at a law enforcement agency as that term is used in article [23-A] twenty-three-A of the correction law.

(4) The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply where a mandatory forfeiture, disability or bar to employment is imposed by law and has not been removed by an executive pardon, certificate of relief from disabilities or certificate of good conduct.

(5) The provisions of this paragraph [~~(b)~~] shall be enforceable against public agencies by a proceeding brought pursuant to article [78] seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, and the provisions of this subdivision shall be enforceable against other employers by the commission through the administrative procedure provided for in this chapter or as provided in chapter [5] five of this title.

§ 3. Subparagraph 5 of paragraph (b) and paragraph (f) of subdivision 11-a of section 8-107 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 4 of the city of New York for the year 2021, are amended and a new paragraph (i) is added to read as follows:

(5) After giving the applicant the inquiry and analysis in writing, allows the applicant a reasonable time to respond, which shall be no less than [~~five~~] seven business days and during this time, holds the position open for the applicant.

(f) An applicant shall not be required to respond to any inquiry or statement that violates paragraph (a) of this subdivision and any refusal to respond to such inquiry or statement shall not disqualify an applicant from the prospective position. Nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit an applicant from voluntarily disclosing information pertaining to his or her criminal history.

(i) A person who is required to perform a criminal background check pursuant to federal, state or local law may inform the applicant that the prospective license, permit, or employment is subject to a background check and that the person is prohibited by law from licensing, permitting, or employing individuals with certain criminal convictions, though such prohibition may be lifted by a certificate of relief from disabilities or certificate of good conduct under article twenty-three of the correction law.

§ 4. Section 8-102 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new definition in alphabetical order to read as follows:

Criminal offense. The term "criminal offense" means any offense as defined in section 55.10 of the penal law.

§ 5. Subdivisions 2 and 5 of section 750 of the correction law, as added by chapter 931 of the laws of 1976, are amended and a new subdivision 6 is added to read as follows:

(2) "Private employer" means any person, company, corporation, labor organization or association which employs [~~ten~~] four or more persons.

(5) "Employment" means any occupation, vocation or employment, or any form of vocational or educational training. Provided, however, that "employment" shall not, for the purposes of this article, include [~~membership in any law enforcement agency~~] employment as a police officer or a peace officer as defined in section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law.

(6) "Criminal offense" means any offense as defined in section 55.10 of the penal law.

§ 6. Section 751 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 284 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

§ 751. Applicability. The provisions of this article shall apply to any application by any person for a license or employment at any public or private employer, who is currently charged with or who has previously been convicted of one or more criminal offenses in this state or in any other jurisdiction, and to any license or employment held by any person whose pending arrest for or conviction of one or more criminal offenses in this state or in any other jurisdiction preceded such employment or granting of a license, and to any license or employment held by any person whose pending arrest for or conviction of one or more criminal offenses in this state or in any other jurisdiction occurred during the period of such employment or granting of a license, except where a mandatory forfeiture, disability or bar to employment is imposed by law, and has not been removed by an executive pardon, certificate of relief from disabilities or certificate of good conduct. Nothing in this article shall be construed to affect any right an employer may have with respect to an intentional misrepresentation in connection with an application for employment made by a prospective employee or previously made by a current employee.

§ 7. Section 752 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 284 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

§ 752. Unfair discrimination against persons [~~previously~~] charged with or convicted of one or more criminal offenses prohibited. No application for any license or employment, and no employment or license held by an individual, to which the provisions of this article are applicable, shall be denied or acted upon adversely by reason of the individual's having been charged with one or more offenses or having been [~~previously~~] convicted of one or more criminal offenses, or by reason of a finding of lack of "good moral character" when such finding is based upon the fact that the individual has [~~previously~~] been charged with or convicted of one or more criminal offenses, unless:

(1) there is a direct relationship between one or more of the [~~previous~~] criminal offenses and the specific license or employment sought or held by the individual; [~~or~~] and

(2) the issuance or continuation of the license or the granting or continuation of the employment would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public.

§ 8. The article heading of article 23-A of the correction law, as added by chapter 931 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

LICENSURE AND EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS [~~PREVIOUSLY~~]
CONVICTED OF ONE OR MORE CRIMINAL OFFENSES

§ 9. The section heading and subdivision 1 of section 753 of the correction law, as added by chapter 931 of the laws of 1976, paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 284 of the laws of 2007, are amended to read as follows:

Factors to be considered concerning a [~~previous~~] criminal charge or conviction; presumption. 1. In making a determination pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-two of this chapter, the public agency or private employer shall consider the following factors:

(a) The public policy of this state, as expressed in this act, to encourage the licensure and employment of persons [~~previously~~] charged with or convicted of one or more criminal offenses.

(b) The specific duties and responsibilities necessarily related to the license or employment sought or held by the person.

(c) The bearing, if any, the criminal offense or offenses for which the person was ~~previously~~ charged with or convicted will have on his fitness or ability to perform one or more such duties or responsibilities.

(d) The time which has elapsed since the occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses.

(e) The age of the person at the time of occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses.

(f) The seriousness of the offense or offenses.

(g) Any information produced by the person, or produced on his behalf, in regard to his rehabilitation and good conduct.

(h) The legitimate interest of the public agency or private employer in protecting property, and the safety and welfare of specific individuals or the general public.

§ 10. Section 753 of the correction law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. A presumption of rehabilitation in regard to an offense or offenses previously committed shall exist:

(a) with regard to one or more previous felony convictions, when the person so convicted has not been convicted of any additional crimes in the ten years following entry of judgment or release from jail or prison, whichever date is latest; and

(b) with regard to one or more previous misdemeanor convictions, when the person so convicted has not been convicted of any additional crimes in the five years following entry of judgment or release from jail or prison, whichever date is latest.

§ 11. Section 754 of the correction law, as added by chapter 931 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

§ 754. Written statement upon denial of license or employment or has been subject to adverse employment action. At the request of any person ~~previously~~ charged with or convicted of one or more criminal offenses who has been denied a license or employment, a public agency or private employer shall provide, within thirty days of a request, a written statement setting forth the reasons for such denial or adverse employment action.

§ 12. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 755 to read as follows:

§ 755. Arrest and conviction records; employer inquiries. 1. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any employer, employment agency or agent thereof to:

(a) Declare, print or circulate or cause to be declared, printed or circulated any solicitation, advertisement or publication, which expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, or specification in employment based on a person's arrest or criminal conviction; or

(b) Make any inquiry or statement related to the pending arrest or criminal conviction record of any person who is in the process of applying for employment with such employer or agent thereof until after such employer or agent thereof has extended a conditional offer of employment to the applicant.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) with respect to an applicant for temporary employment at a temporary help firm as such term is defined by subdivision five of section nine hundred sixteen of the labor law, an offer to be placed in the temporary help firm's general candidate pool shall constitute a conditional offer of employment;

1 (2) "any inquiry" means any question communicated to an applicant in 2 writing or otherwise, or any searches of publicly available records or 3 consumer reports that are conducted for the purpose of obtaining an 4 applicant's criminal background information; and

5 (3) "any statement" means a statement communicated in writing or 6 otherwise to the applicant for purposes of obtaining an applicant's
7 criminal background information regarding: (i) an arrest record; (ii) a 8 conviction record; or (iii) a criminal background check.

9 2. After extending an applicant a conditional offer of employment, an 10 employer, employment agency or agent thereof may inquire about the 11 applicant's arrest or conviction record if before taking any adverse 12 employment action based on such inquiry, the employer, employment agency
13 or agent thereof:

14 (a) provides a written copy of the inquiry to the applicant in a
15 manner to be determined by the division of criminal justice services,
16 and advises the applicant that he or she may submit any available
17 evidence of rehabilitation or good conduct since the offense in ques-
18 tion, which shall be considered in the analysis performed under this 19 article;

20 (b) performs an analysis of the applicant under this article and 21 provides a written copy of such analysis to the applicant in a manner to 22 be determined by the division of criminal justice services, and advises
23 the applicant that he or she may submit any available evidence of reha-24 bilitation or good conduct since the offense in question, which shall be 25 considered in the analysis performed under this article, which shall 26 include but not be limited to supporting documents that formed the basis 27 for an adverse action based on such analysis and the employer's or 28 employment agency's reasons for taking any adverse action against such 29 applicant; and

30 (c) after giving the applicant the inquiry and analysis in writing 31 pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision, allows the 32 applicant a reasonable time to respond, which shall be no less than 33 seven business days and during this time, holds the position open for 34 the applicant.

35 3. Nothing in this section shall prevent an employer, employment agen-
36 cy or agent thereof from taking adverse action against any employee or 37 denying employment to any applicant for reasons other than such employee 38 or applicant's arrest or criminal conviction record.

39 4. An applicant shall not be required to respond to any inquiry or 40 statement that violates subdivision one of this section and any refusal
41 to respond to such inquiry or statement or any response in the negative
42 to such inquiry shall not disqualify an applicant from the prospective 43 employment.

44 5. This section shall not apply to any actions taken by an employer or 45 agent thereof that are required pursuant to any state, federal or local 46 law that requires criminal background checks for employment purposes or 47 bars employment based on criminal history. For purposes of this para-
48 graph federal law shall include rules or regulations promulgated by a 49 self-regulatory organization as defined in section 3(a)(26) of the secu-
50 rities exchange act of 1934, as amended. A person who is required to 51 perform a criminal background check pursuant to federal, state or local 52 law may inform the applicant that the prospective license, permit, or 53 employment is subject to a background check and that the person is 54 prohibited by law from licensing, permitting, or employing individuals
55 with certain criminal convictions, though such prohibition may be lifted

1 by a certificate of relief from disabilities or certificate of good
2 conduct under article twenty-three of this chapter.

3 6. This section shall not apply to any actions taken by an employer or 4 agent thereof with regard to an applicant for employment:

5 (a) as a police officer or peace officer, as defined in subdivisions
6 thirty-three and thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure 7 law; or

8 (b) in a position that involves law enforcement, is susceptible to 9 bribery or other corruption, as determined by the state police or other 10 agency selected by the governor, or entails the provision of services to 11 or safeguarding of persons who, because of age, disability, infirmity or 12 other condition, are vulnerable to abuse, as determined by the Justice 13 Center for Persons with Special Needs or other agency selected by the 14 governor. If an employer takes adverse action against any applicant for 15 such position based on the applicant's arrest or criminal conviction
16 record, it shall still provide a written copy of such analysis performed
17 under this article to the applicant in a form and manner to be deter-
18 mined by the division.

19 7. The provisions of this section shall be enforceable against public 20 agencies and against private employers by a proceeding brought pursuant 21 to article fifteen of the executive law. For purposes of this subdivi-22 sion only, the terms "public agency" and "private employer" shall have 23 the meaning given such terms in section seven hundred fifty of this 24 article.

25 § 13. Section 755 of the correction law, as added by chapter 931 of 26 the laws of 1976, is renumbered 756 and amended to read as follows:

27 § 756. Enforcement. [~~1. In relation to actions by public agencies, the~~ 28 ~~provisions of this article shall be enforceable by a proceeding brought~~ 29 ~~pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.~~

30 ~~2. In relation to actions by private employers, the]~~ The provisions of 31 this article shall be enforceable by the division of human rights pursu-32 ant to the powers and procedures set forth in article fifteen of the 33 executive law, and, concurrently, by the New York city commission on 34 human rights.

35 § 14. Subdivision 8 of section 170.55 of the criminal procedure law, 36 as added by chapter 134 of the laws of 1982 and renumbered by chapter
37 683 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

38 8. (a) The granting of an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal
39 shall not be deemed to be a conviction or an admission of guilt. No 40 person shall suffer any disability or forfeiture as a result of such an 41 order. Upon the dismissal of the accusatory instrument pursuant to this 42 section, the arrest and prosecution shall be deemed a nullity and the 43 defendant shall be restored, in contemplation of law, to the status he 44 occupied before his arrest and prosecution.

45 (b) For purposes of employment and licensing, the granting of an
46 adjournment in contemplation of dismissal shall be considered a termi-
47 nation of the matter in the defendant's favor and no adverse employment
48 action may be based on a case that has been adjourned in contemplation
49 of dismissal.

50 § 15. Section 170.56 of the criminal procedure law is amended by 51 adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

52 5. For purposes of employment and licensing, the granting of an
53 adjournment in contemplation of dismissal shall be considered a termi-
54 nation of the matter in the defendant's favor and no adverse employment
55 action may be based on a case that has been adjourned in contemplation
56 of dismissal.

§ 16. Subdivision 16 of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by section 2 of subpart 0 of part II of chapter 55 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

16. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice, unless specifically required or permitted by statute, for any person, agency, bureau, corporation or association, including the state and any political subdivision thereof, to make any inquiry about, whether in any form of application or otherwise, or to act upon adversely to the individual involved, any arrest or criminal accusation of such individual not then pending against that individual which was followed by a termination of that criminal action or proceeding in favor of such individual, as defined in subdivision two of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law, or by an order adjourning the criminal action in contemplation of dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55, 170.56, 210.46, 210.47, or 215.10 of the criminal procedure law, or by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the criminal procedure law or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to section 160.59 or 160.58 of the criminal procedure law, in connection with the licensing, housing, employment, including volunteer positions, or providing of credit or insurance to such individual, or by the granting of an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal pursuant to article one hundred seventy of the criminal procedure law; provided, further, that no person shall be required to divulge information pertaining to any arrest or criminal accusation of such individual not then pending against that individual which was followed by a termination of that criminal action or proceeding in favor of such individual, as defined in subdivision two of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law, or by an order adjourning the criminal action in contemplation of dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55 or 170.56, 210.46, 210.47 or 215.10 of the criminal procedure law, or by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law, or by the granting of an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal pursuant to article one hundred seventy of the criminal procedure law.

An individual required or requested to provide information in violation of this subdivision may respond as if the arrest, criminal accusation, or disposition of such arrest or criminal accusation did not occur. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the licensing activities of governmental bodies in relation to the regulation of guns, firearms and other deadly weapons or in relation to an application for employment as a police officer or peace officer as those terms are defined in subdivisions thirty-three and thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law; provided further that the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to an application for employment or membership in any law enforcement agency with respect to any arrest or criminal accusation which was followed by a youthful offender adjudication, as defined in subdivision one of section 720.35 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction for a violation sealed pursuant to section 160.55 of the criminal procedure law, or by a conviction which is sealed pursuant to section 160.58 or 160.59 of the criminal procedure law. For purposes of this subdivision, an action which has been adjourned in contemplation of dismissal, pursuant to section 170.55 or 170.56, 210.46, 210.47 or 215.10 of the criminal procedure law, shall not be

1 considered a pending action, unless the order to adjourn in contem-
2 plation of dismissal is revoked and the case is restored to the calendar
3 for further prosecution, or by the granting of an adjournment in contem-4 plation of dismissal pursuant to article one hundred seventy of the 5 criminal procedure law.

6 (b) Any person subjected to an inquiry concerning any arrest or crimi-
7 nal accusation in violation of the provisions of this section shall be 8 entitled to respond in the negative to such question if responding 9 otherwise would require disclosures relating to a case that has been 10 sealed or otherwise terminated in favor of the person, and such negative 11 response, even if technically false, may not be used as a basis for 12 adverse employment action.

13 § 17. Subdivision 7 of section 390-e of the social services law, as 14 added by chapter 459 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

15 7. Upon the request of any person [~~previously~~] charged with or 16 convicted of one or more criminal offenses who has been denied employ-17 ment pursuant to subdivision six of this section, the mentoring program 18 shall provide, within thirty days of such request, a written statement
19 setting forth the reasons for such denial. Any such person denied
20 employment pursuant to subdivision six of this section shall be afforded 21 the opportunities for enforcement available pursuant to section seven 22 hundred [~~fifty-five~~] fifty-six of the correction law.

23 § 18. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 24 have become a law; provided, however, that if local law number 4 of the 25 city of New York for the year 2021 shall not have taken effect by such 26 date, the amendments to subdivisions 10, 11 and 11-a of section 8-107 of 27 the administrative code of the city of New York made by sections two and 28 three of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the same
29 manner as local law number 4 of the city of New York for the year 2021
30 takes effect. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or 31 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 32 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed 33 on or before such date.