AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to prohibiting certain surcharges on credit or debit card transactions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 11-105 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by chapter 309 of the laws of 1996, is amended and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as follows:

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary except for subdivision four of this section, any agency or department of the city which, pursuant to an agreement entered into under this section, accepts credit cards as a means of payment of fines, civil penalties, taxes, fees, rent, rates, charges or other amounts owed by a person to the city shall be authorized to charge and collect from any person offering a credit card as a means of payment of a fine a reasonable and uniform fee as a condition of accepting such credit card in payment of a [~~fine, civil penalty,~~] tax, [~~fee,~~] rent, rate, charge or other amount. Such fee shall not exceed the cost incurred by the agency or department in connection with such credit card transaction, which cost shall include any fee payable by the city to the financing agency.

4. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, no agency or department of the city, or any tribunal located therein, shall be authorized to impose a surcharge on a holder who elects to use a credit or debit card in lieu of payment by cash, check, or similar means to pay any fine, civil penalty, or fee owed. For the purposes of this subdivision, the following definitions shall apply:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
