AN ACT directing the department of financial services to conduct a study on certain impacts of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. 1. The department of financial services in consultation
2 with the empire state development corporation shall conduct a study on 3 the financial impact of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic on the 4 following:

5 (a) underbanked and underserved areas;

6 (b) small businesses, as defined by section 131 of the economic development law, obtaining loans and other credit instruments; and

7 (c) minority- and women-owned business enterprises, as defined by 8 subdivisions 7 and 15 of section 310 of the executive law, obtaining
9 loans and other credit instruments.

10 2. The study shall also examine topics including, but not limited to:

11 (a) the ability of individuals in underbanked and underserved areas to 12 receive, access, and use their stimulus payments;

13 (b) closures or changes to hours, staffing levels, or services in 14 banks in underbanked or underserved areas;

15 (c) the number of small businesses applying for loans; the number of 16 small businesses receiving approval for such loans; and the amount of 17 money such small businesses have received in loans;

18 (d) the number of minority- and women-owned business enterprises
19 applying for loans; the number of minority- and women-owned business
20 enterprises receiving approval for such loans; and the amount of money
21 such minority- and women-owned business enterprises have received in 22 loans;
