Introduced by M. of A. D. ROSENTHAL, BRABENEC, MONTESANO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a personal income tax credit for the cost of health insurance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new 1 2 subsection (c-2) to read as follows:

(c-2) Health insurance credit. (1) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-one, a taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subsection, against the tax imposed pursuant to section six hundred one of this part. The amount of the credit shall be the amount of premiums paid by the taxpayer or taxpayers filing jointly for the provision of health insurance for 9 the taxpayer, his or her spouse and dependants. Such credit shall not 10 exceed eight hundred dollars for the provision of health insurance for a taxpayer, eight hundred dollars for the provision of health insurance 12 for a taxpayer's spouse, and four hundred dollars for the provision of 13 health insurance for each dependent under the age of eighteen years. The 14 total credit authorized pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed two 15 thousand four hundred dollars in any taxable year.
