AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to providing for the remote notarization of documents

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 135-c
2 to read as follows:

3 § 135-c. Notary services provided utilizing audio-video technology. 1.
4 Any notarial act that is required under New York state law is authorized
5 to be performed utilizing audio-video technology provided that the 6 following conditions are met:

7 (a) The person seeking the notary public's services, if not personally
8 known to the notary, shall present valid photo identification to such 9 notary public during the audio-video conference and shall not merely 10 transmit it prior to or after such video conference;

11 (b) The audio-video conference shall allow for direct interaction
12 between the person receiving notary services and the notary public (e.g.
13 no pre-recorded videos of the person signing);

14 (c) The person receiving notary services shall affirmatively represent
15 that he or she is physically situated in the state of New York;

16 (d) The person receiving notary services shall transmit by fax or 17 electronic means a legible copy of the document signed during the audi-
18 o-visual conference directly to the notary on the same date that such 19 document was signed; and

20 (e) The notary shall notarize the transmitted copy of such document
21 and transmit the same back to the person receiving notary services.

22 2. The notary public may repeat the notarization of the original
23 signed document as of the date of execution provided the notary public
24 receives such original signed document together with the electronically
25 notarized copy within thirty days after the date of execution.

26 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
